D. 1928, the same being the first Monday of said month and the time fixed by law for holding a regular term of said Court, when were present: The Honorable C. G. COUCH, County Judge; C. K. MCCORMICK, Clerk; JESSE BRESHEARS, Sheriff.

WHEN, on Thursday, the 11th day of October, A. D. 1928, on the tenth Judicial Day of said term, upon, after the following proceedings were had, to-wit:

In the Matter of the Guardianship of Annie E. Hamilton, an incompetent Person.

Now at this time this matter came on for hearing, upon the petition of Geo. T. Cochran, guardian of the above entitled estate, praying for a license to sell the real property belonging to said Annie E. Hamilton, and it appearing to the court:

That Annie E. Hamilton is the owner of Lot 11, Block 2 of Granddy's Addition to La Grande, Oregon; that said property was appraised at $2000.00;

That the next of kin of said Annie E. Hamilton are the following: Maude E. Skinner, a daughter, residing at Cameron, Missouri; Dolie Bailey, a daughter, residing at Hamilton, Missouri; O. C. Hamilton, a son, residing at Kansas City, Missouri; A. E. Hamilton, a son residing at Breckenridge, Missouri; C. J. Hamilton, a son, residing at Kansas City, Kansas; Mrs. Dora Fitterer, a daughter, residing at Hamilton, Missouri; and Mrs. E. E. Oct. 12-20-27; Nov. 3.

Guide—"That man over there is an artist of note."

Banks—"Yes, I know. I have three of his notes."

WITS OF WISDOM
Enthusiasm is confidence in action. It is the spark plug of any enterprise.

Work is the expression of your creative instinct.

You don't grow old until you are too lazy to learn.

Good manners consist largely in treating the other fellow as though he were as important as he feels.

Just why should a girl stranger be so anxious to make you a present of several thousand dollars?

Price war: Accumulating a deficit for the winner to collect from the public after it's over.

The two most important muscles that function without direction by the brain are the heart and the tongue.

HE RESTS IN PEACE

He was a college student and a crooked one summer day.

But someone said he'd only passed away.

A western land agent said, "Let me suggest."

The gentleman in question surely did go West.

Whereupon the hardware dealer whose name was Tackett.

Said, "No my friend you're Peterson, a daughter, residing at Kansas City, Kansas; that said Annie E. Hamilton, and all of said next of kin of said Annie E. Hamilton, are non-residents of the State of Oregon; and that said Annie E. Hamilton resides at Breckenridge, Missouri;

That Walter O. Hart, of Breckenridge, Missouri, is the duly appointed, qualified and acting executor and guardian of the person and estate of said Annie E. Hamilton, under and by virtue of an appointment of the Probate Court of Caldwell County, Missouri;

That the above described property is city property, upon which there is a lien; that the expense of keeping the same rented and in repair, and collecting the rent, paying the taxes and insurance, reduces the income from said property to a nominal sum; that said property is now rented at $20.00 per month; that a greater income can be secured from the investment of the proceeds of a sale of said property; that the expense of maintaining two guardians to look after the property of the ward places a double burden upon the estate; that a sale of said real property would enable the guardianship in Oregon to be terminated, and would enable the guardian in the state of Missouri to transact all the business of the estate; that it is for the best interests of said ward and of her estate that said property be sold; that inasmuch as there is not a ready sale for real estate at this time, said property can be sold to better advantage at private than at public sale;

And the court being fully advised in the premises, it is hereby CONSIDERED, ORDERED and DECREED that a hearing be held on the 18th day of November, 1928, at the court room of this court in the county home at La Grande, Union County, Oregon, at ten o'clock A. M. of said day, and that said Annie E. Hamilton and the above named next of kin be served with a copy of this order by publication thereof for three successive weeks in the La Grande Evening Observer, a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in La Grande, Oregon, beginning with the 12th day of October, 1928.

C. G. COUCH, County Judge.

AT THE THEATERS

"Smiling Billy" Showing At Colonial Sunday

There is a value to motion pictures beyond mere entertainment, in the opinion of Billy Sullivan, the famous star appearing in "Smiling Billy," which comes to the Colonial Theater Sunday.

"More and more," said Sullivan, "pictures are coming to portray life. I know that even in working on the lot I gather experiences from plots that I probably never get in real life. For instance in 'Smiling Billy,' I'm supposed to be a job in the Pacific fleet."

"While ashore, I follow a pretty girl and stumble into a plot to wreck the fleet. It is a logical plot, too. The thing might happen to any sailor, or to anyone else. It was an accident, well, that incident in the story caused me to think about the plot of every day we live. It has one if we can find it. And sometimes it comes out and jumps at us before we know it."

"Smiling Billy" is a story of the Pacific fleet, with a central theme about three sailors and a girl. Many of the shots were made aboard the great U. S. battle fleet off San Diego.

Marie Prevost Here In "Blonde For a Night"

When a woman changes the color of her hair, she not only transforms her appearance but her entire personality, and this new individuality demands clothes which differ in type as well as hue from any she has previously worn.

So declares Adrian, noted creator of feminine modes, in discussing the gowns with which he costumed Marie Prevost, popular blonde.

While the football man remarked as he played the game of golf, "I think that my friend surely did kick off."

The bank cashier sagely shook his head and said, "Too much gin."

"That's why perhaps that he cashed in."

The ferryman remarked as he manned his craft the River, "I was only last night that that young man passed over."

And the hairdresser choked and almost cried.

When she made the statement that the college student dyed.

"Atlas carried the world on his shoulders."

"What we want is a man who can carry a few loose shoes."

"Show Girl" At The Arcade On Sunday

At last the perfect type of New York show girl has been discovered and presented for our delectation upon the screen. This is Alice White, who dances into our mind in the first National picture, "Show Girl," at the Arcade Sunday, made from that clever serial of J. P. McEvoy's which most talk have read in a national weekly.

From the moment that Alice White as "Dixie Dugan" enters the scene in her humble home, to the triumphant moments when she queens it as a Broadway musical comedy favorite, she is to the manner born. The stage lost a real star when Alice elected to cast her lot with the movies.

Alfred Santoli, who directed the picture, showed his technical and artistic knowledge in a wonderful degree, because in the stage scenes the big chorus rehearsals and the like, there was evidence of entire familiarity with the show business.

Charles Delaney was admirable as the sweetheart of Dixie, while Donald Reed, James Finlayson, Kate Price, Green Lee, Lee Moran, Richard Tucker, and others gave satisfactory performance of their various roles.

Be Careful of the Telephone Cord

Probably you don't know it, but your telephone cord is not merely a wire, but a delicate, stranded tinsel, covered with a protection of silk and cotton. It can't stand much twisting without being so seriously impaired that your connection gets cut off or else it works in a broken, haphazard way.

And yet some people let their telephone cord get so badly twisted up that it looks like a nest of angle-worms.

It's an easy matter to keep out the kinks and get better service out of your phone.
