California Will Play Washington Huskies Saturday HENRIKLEY, Cal., Nov. 5 (AP)—The University of California gridiron prepared for a hard workout today—probably their last after practice before leaving for Seattle late tomorrow to meet the Washington Huskies Saturday. The Bears went through only a light run-through on Friday, but it was enough to show that every man on the squad, with the exception of Bert Schwartz, guard, is in top notch condition. Schwartz was out of a uniform with a slight knee infection, but he will probably be around in time for the game. The California gridiron, thirty strong, accompanied by Coach "Nile" Price, Trainer Charlie Vola, and a flock of California supporters will leave for the north tomorrow aboard the "Cascadia." The California team composed of 62 members will leave for Seattle Thursday to meet the Bears in their last conference game before meeting Stanford in the annual "big game." TO CONTINUE ROWING MADISON, Wis., Nov. 5 (AP)—The athletic council at the University of Wisconsin has decided to continue rowing as a major sport, after the death of "Bud" Vall, veteran crew coach. There were reports that the sport might be dropped. An open water race ground opens in gradually being abandoned by the equipment of more and more swimmers here in this country. They may be naive here, but it's wonderful the way they discuss it when they get a chance at an arm.
