Rambler's Art Club Meets With Mrs. R. S. Eakin

A very interesting meeting was held by the Rambler's Art Club yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robert S. Eakin on 1112 Walnut Street, when the study of political and religious history of Italy in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries was the subject. The subject was well handled by the speaker, Mrs. Eakin, who is a well known authority on Italian history. The history ground information of comprehensive study of the art of those centuries, which is to be taken up during the year as part of the study program of the club.

An interesting and impressive ceremony of the Order of Rainbow for Girls was an event of Saturday night when two new members, Phyllis Peterson and Ruth McDermott, were initiated into the order.

Another important part of the program was the presentation to members of the order of the award of the rainbow emblem, which is a symbol of the organization. The award was presented to the members by Mrs. Eakin, who is the president of the order.

Plans were made and a committee was appointed for a future anti-knockout league. It is to be held at the La Grande church.

Miss Catherine Almon, president of the club, presided at the meeting.

The Presbyterian ladies' society, from a financial standpoint, was said to be the most successful ever held by the La Grande church.

Seven hundred dollars were taken in and the amount will be used for the local church during the coming year.

One of the interesting features at the banquet was the white elephant booth in charge of Mrs. William Condit, which was also a financial success.

Local Lodge At Union Last Week

The La Grande Odd Fellows and Rebekahs were royally entertained last Saturday night by the members of Mountain Gem lodge, No. 57, Rebekah lodge, at Union. About 250 people from both towns, including the La Grande and Union were there to enjoy the banquet.

The Rebekahs began the evening's entertainment. The program was followed by the ladies.

South Declarer, contract No. Trump, score love-all. No other bid has been made.

To trick 1, West leads the five of diamonds.

Question No. 1—Which cards should Declarer play from closed hand and dummy?

Question No. 2—Which cards should Declarer lead and play to trick 2?

ANSWER BLANK

THE ANSWERS

1. On trick 1, Declarer should play the ace of diamonds from dummy and the queen of diamonds from closed hand.

Declarer is sure of four hearts, three spades and one diamond—one trick short of game. The heart finesse must be tried for game. If it fails, it is important that West continue diamonds because if West should shift to clubs, the adversaries would save game. Playing the ten of diamonds on the first trick and permitting it to win, or winning in dummy with the ace and playing the seven from closed hand, probably would frighten West away from diamonds if the heart finesse lost. The play suggested is apt to make West think that South is left with only one diamond—the king.

2. Dummy should lead the queen of hearts and, unless that plays the king, closed hand should play the jack.

This play is made so that if the finesse wins, the heart lead can be continued from the dummy with the nine, and that card also can be underplayed by Declarer so that a

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST—Baked pears, cereal, cream, hot hash, crisp toast, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON—English monkey, curried chicken with bacon dressing, Dutch apple cake, milk, tea.

DINNER—Baked and stuffed shoulder of lamb, currant jelly, creamed Jerusalem artichokes, grapefruit salad, old-fashioned doughnuts, cider, milk.

Small members of a family should not be allowed to eat the doughnuts for their dinner dessert. However, adults will welcome this traditional fall treat.

Old-fashioned Doughnuts
Two cakes compressed yeast, 1 cup milk, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg, 2 eggs, 3/4 cup granulated sugar, 5 tablespoons melted butter, 4 cups flour (about).

Scald milk and eggs to lukewarm temperature. Add crumbled yeast cakes and stir until dissolved. Add 1 1/2 cups sifted flour and beat mixture until smooth. Cover and place in a warm place until puffed up and bubbly. It will take about an hour for the sponge to rise. Mix and sift 2 cups flour with sugar, salt and nutmeg. Add eggs well beaten to sponge and then stir in dry ingredients and melted butter. Slowly add more flour until dough is stiff enough to knead. Knead the dough until smooth and elastic. Cover and let rise in a warm place until double in bulk. This will take not more than three hours. Turn onto a floured board and pat the dough into a sheet about 3/4 inch thick. Cut with a small round biscuit cutter. Let stand on board closely covered until double the bulk. Drop into deep hot fat and fry until delicately brown. Drain from fat, dredge with sugar and let stand until cool before storing in crock or tin box.

The fat should be hot enough to delicately brown an inch cube of bread from the soft part of the loaf in 30 seconds.
