Wally Wales Hero Of Western at Star

The attempts of the Brennan gang to capture the neighboring Halliday property and the stout-hearted defense of the Hallidays to keep their own, aided by Ann Halliday's new-chest and his pet, make up the story of "Desperate Courage," the new Pathwestern starring Wally Wales, which is now at the Star Theater.

The popular young Western star has some stirring scenes during his sequences, and in particular his entrance into the strong hold of the enemy, single-handed, to rescue Ann makes an exciting episode as you can imagine, for in hours the eddies, 30 feet up, swarms up his rope, sailor fashion, and then works his way along the eaves of the house, hanging on only by his hands, until he can drop down into the window of the room where his

Stowaway

Clarence Terhune, 19-year-old New York caddy, will have plenty to tell about when he next appears at the Rye (N. Y.) Country Club, where he has been employed. He stowed away in the big dirigible Graf Zeppelin at Lakehurst, and made the trip across the Atlantic to Germany as an uninvited passenger.

OFFICE CAT By Fenius

A RING ON THE FINGER IS WORTH TWO ON THE PHONE

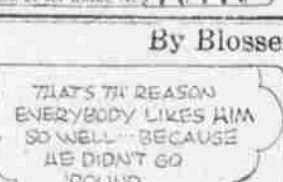

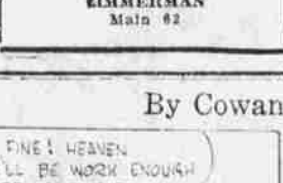

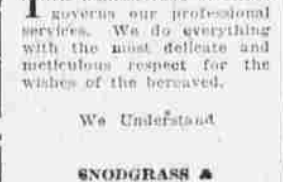

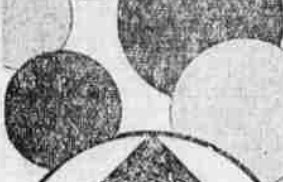

He had just proposed. She had just accepted. He had just put the ring, a great big gorgeous emerald, on her finger. "George, George, how did you guess that this was my favorite stone?" George, darling, you are the first one who ever chose my ring with so much taste!"

Prudence had evidently spoken the truth, nevertheless her statement did not seem to charm the susceptible George.

He gave her a killing glance. "Just a question of chance," he replied. "That is the ring that I am in the habit of giving under such circumstances."

FROM THE "BRUSHVILLE RIG"

Humorist, who has always been known for running people down when talking about them, was run down himself yesterday by an automobile.

GENERAL SATISFACTION "So, Geoffrey is dead, eh?" "Better be, they buried him yesterday."

"What was the complaint?" "None whatever. Everybody is satisfied. You see, Geoffrey was one of those guys who always shows you a mistake after it is too late to rectify it."

The sky is bright when it rains but it's different with a man.

When your Child has Croup

RUBBED on throat and chest, the effect of Vicks in relieving spasmodic croup is two fold:

(1) Its medicated vapors, released by body heat, reach air passages direct;

(2) At the same time it stimulates the skin, thus helping the inhaled vapors ease the difficult breathing.
