FALLING STAR SHOWER STUDY IS BEING MADE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 16 (AP)—Whether the earth will experience a shower of "falling stars" in 1932 may be forecast from observations taken last night of the Leonid displays by astronomers of the Pacific coast.

The meteoric demonstration in the direction of the Constellation Leo is being watched by observers at Mt. Wilson, Cal. at the Chabot observatory in Oakland and at Lick observatory near San Jose.

Data taken at Lick observatory last night will require months and perhaps a year for computation, according to Dr. D. H. Menzel, assistant astronomer.

Robert G. Aitken, associate director of Lick observatory, declared that if the display comes in 1932 it should cause perhaps ten times as many shooting stars to appear as might be seen on an ordinary night.

CONQUER RHEUMATISM

To overcome the distress of Rheumatism and to completely remove its cause, requires a form of treatment specifically prepared for the particular function. Medical authorities have long searched for such a treatment and countless experimentations heretofore have failed to materialize the results for which they sought.

However, recent developments have produced Nue-Ovo, a treatment for Rheumatism that is far superior to any other treatment for this ailment; a careful check kept on 1500 of the first 4000 cases in which it was used, proved it to be unfailingly effective in 84% of these cases. Its widespread use and constantly growing demand is an attestation of its effective qualities and is proof of its power to conquer Rheumatism.

NUE-OVO
Is the Proved Remedy for RHEUMATISM
Of Any Form

Arthritis — Neuritis — Articular — Sciatic — Muscular — Inflammatory — of the Heart — Lumbago and Others

You Can Have the Same Good Results

Estella Waddle, Forest Grove, Oregon, says: "I want you to know how I have been helped by taking your medicine, Nuevivo.

"I have had pains in both legs since I was seven years old and for thirteen years I suffered. At times it seemed my legs would burst. I began your treatment three months ago and now I am cured. Your medicine has been wonderful to me."

Nue-Ovo is a pure herbal, drugless remedy that acts directly on the kidneys; it awakens dormant kidneys restores them to normal action, corrects their subnormal condition and in a natural manner causes the elimination of excess uric acid from the blood stream. Removing excess uric acid from the system conquers Rheumatism. As Nue-Ovo attacks Rheumatism at its source, it removes the cause. When the cause is removed the disease cannot exist. This is why Nue-Ovo is so effective and proclaimed the greatest remedy of its kind.
