Parkdale Club Meets At Home Of Mrs. Bowery

An interesting meeting was held by the Parkdale club yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Bowery. At one o'clock a potluck dinner was served.

Mrs. H. P. Owsley, president of the club, presided at the business meeting held at 2 o'clock.

Decorations in keeping with the Thanksgiving season were used. Mrs. Lee Smith had charge of the program which included the following numbers:

Mrs. Mito Hokland, recitation; song by club, "Little Brown Church In The Vale"; Mrs. Laphier, history of the song; Mrs. Lee Smith, reading and readings by Mrs. Henderson and her two daughters.

Mrs. Carl Heim and Mrs. Charles Playe were present at the meeting to talk concerning the home market survey being conducted in Union county.

The Past Matrons' club of the Order of the Eastern Star, met last night for a social evening. Mrs. John K. Hadden and Mrs. Carrie Stearns were hostesses and served a delightful two-course luncheon. Thirteen members of the organization attended.

A delightful get-together will be held next Saturday night when the members of the Order of Baitob for Girls will be hostesses to their fathers at a banquet to be held at 6:30 o'clock at the Masonic hall. The fathers and daughters' banquet will be followed by a luncheon assembly. All fathers who are members of the Masonic lodge will be invited to attend the assembly.

Sometime between Dec. 1 and 7, the Sacajawea campfire girls group is to hold a meeting for the purpose of packing the several quilts which they have been making for the neglected babies' hospital in the West Indies.

Plans for the meeting were made when the campfire girls met in their room in the Lutheran church yesterday afternoon. At the December meeting home-made candy and popcorn will be served. The girls also discussed plans for a Christmas party. Edna Brown was appointed chairman of the committee to have charge of the party. Part of the afternoon was spent on painting of honors.

Mrs. Lill H. Ames, guardian, and Mrs. Fred R. Gehring, assistant guardian, served supper.

Loyal Sisters Aid Plans Are Reported

An important business meeting of the Loyal Sisters Aid of the Central Church of Christ was held yesterday afternoon in the annex of the church with Mrs. C. W. Huntington presiding. A dinner was served at 5:30 to 7:30 o'clock. The meeting was opened with a prayer and Mrs. C. E. Golden had charge of the devotional.

Reports from the three divisions of the aid were made. Division A reported plans in progress for a cooked food sale to take place next Saturday.

Division B is planning an entertainment Friday, Dec. 7 and Division C will hold a carnival about the middle of December.

Mrs. Arno Voelz was appointed chairman of the dining room committee for the bazaar which will be held later. It was decided that two meals, a cafeteria luncheon and a dinner from 5:30 to 7:30 o'clock, be served at the bazaar.

The nominating committee appointed included: Mrs. George Anderson, Mrs. C. F. McPherson and Mrs. C. E. Traiger.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Huntington at the close of the meeting.

The Bible Searchers' class of the Presbyterian church, met yesterday afternoon at the church. Mrs. H. P. Lewis led the devotional. Following the short business meeting the afternoon was spent on a quilt to give to a needy family at Christmas time. Mrs. Mumford, Mrs. Hale and Mrs. Hansen served refreshments.

Announcements

Central Parent-Teacher association will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:45 o'clock in the auditorium of the Presbyterian church. Delegates who attended the parent-teacher convention at Pendleton last week will report. They are: Mrs. H. H. Hanna, Mrs. G. R. Lyman, Mrs. Stella Jorgie, Mrs. S. J. Andrews and Mrs. J. E. Tyron. A program of songs and a playlet will be given.

The Royal Neighbors will meet Friday, Nov. 22, at 7:30 o'clock at the Knights of Pythias hall. Officers are requested to wear white uniforms for initiation. Mrs. J. P. White is chairman of the luncheon committee and Mrs. S. G. Coleman is chairman of entertainment.

The second ward of the Latter Day Saints church will give a carnival bazaar at their church on Fir street today and Friday. It will be given as a benefit for the building fund. This evening a chicken dinner will be served and on both today and Friday from 12 to 2 o'clock will be served. A dance will be given Friday night. Those in charge promise two evenings full of entertainment.

The Westway club will meet with Mrs. C. O. Murchison Friday evening.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST — Oranges, cereal, cream, fish and vegetable hash, Graham muffins, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON — Creamed oyster plant on toast, stuffed beet salad, fig cookies, corn.

DINNER — Baked shoulder of lamb, steamed brown rice, creamed carrots, fruit salad, cheese, crackers, milk, coffee.

Whenever cocoa is served to children it should be made entirely of milk. A few tablespoons of water are used with the uncooked cocoa and sugar to make a smooth paste. This should be thoroughly cooked, stirring constantly for a few minutes before adding the milk. Add a few grains of salt and bring to the scalding point. A few drops of vanilla can be added and greatly improve the flavor if the beverage is "strong" with milk and "weak" with cocoa.

Fish and Vegetable Hash
One cup flaked left-over fish, 1 1/2 cups chopped cold boiled potatoes, 1 cooked carrot, 1 cooked beet, 4 thin slices fat salt pork.

Cook salt pork until crisp. Drain from fat and keep hot. Pour all but 2 tablespoons fat from frying pan. Combine fish with potatoes, carrots and beet finely chopped. Turn into frying pan, sprinkle with salt and pepper and cook, covered, over a low fire until brown on the bottom. Fold and turn out onto a hot platter. Garnish with crisp salt pork and serve.

PHIL STARS RE-UNITED
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 22 (AP)—The trial separation of Alma Rubens and her husband, Ricardo Cortez, film stars, has come to a happy ending, both admitted today.

Miss Rubens and Cortez separated several months ago when Cortez went to live at the apartment of a friend.

Love Always Finds A Way

By NEA Service
ARKANSAS CITY, Kans., Nov. 22.—Love will always find a way. Thirty years ago Mrs. Laura Altman, a young widow with two small sons in support, worked in the little Empire Laundry here. It was owned by O. N. Hunt, mayor and postmaster for 18 years.

One of the settlers in Oklahoma's famous Cherokee strip, C. C. Endicott came along, married her and took her to his newly-claimed farm, where with her meager savings they bought an additional 140 acres of farm land.

Times continued hard, however. To hold the land they had bought Mrs. Endicott had to run a hand laundry, and she and her husband and the two sons went through many long years of very hard work. The land was not very good and while they would gladly have sold it they could find no buyers.

Then, in 1921, they found themselves stopped into one of Oklahoma's traditional fairy tales. The Corner Oil company leased Mrs. Endicott's land and struck a gusher of prodigious size. For three years she enjoyed an income of more than $7,000 a day in a short time the family moved to California and began to enjoy their new riches. They were millionaires, several times over.

A year ago Mrs. Endicott died, and the woman was again a widow.

Thirty years ago a young man worked in the little Empire Laundry here—one Dave C. Tweddell. He and the young widow were sweethearts. They might have married had not some turn of fate separated them, and when she married Endicott, Tweddell moved to Arizona, where he now was married.

A year ago Mrs. Tweddell died. Recently Mrs. Endicott chanced to pass through Phoenix, Ariz. There she met her old friend, Dave Tweddell. They fell in love all over again—and not long ago they were married, by a minister who had also been a fellow-worker in the Hearts and South should attempt to make a second Heart trick by leading that suit, the adversaries would save game; but the game is a clinch for Declarer played on the basis above described. West, at trick 10, will be left with two Diamonds, but Declarer then must make the last two tricks and game because West must lead a Spade or a Heart. Should West lead a Spade, Dummy will take it and the Ace of Hearts will take the last trick; should West lead a Heart, it will be up to Closed Hand's Ace-Queen.

Hawley En Route To Capital Today

SALTEM, Ore., Nov. 22 (AP)—Representative W. C. Hawley, accompanied by Mrs. Hawley, left here last night for Washington, D. C., where he will begin a series of hearings on the tariff revision bill. Hawley is chairman of the ways and means committee. He said that the bill would not be completed in time for the short session of congress, but should be ready for a special session if one is called.

BOARDING HOUSE BOMBED
MELBOURNE, Australia, Nov. 22 (AP)—A boarding house in South Melbourne was bombed today, the seventh outrage of the kind that has taken place in recent weeks. One man was injured and several other residents had narrow escapes.

The newspapers have published demands that the police throw their whole resources against the bomb throwers.

Bridge Pointers

By Milton C. Work

Continuing the series of twenty-five Auction Bridge questions, we give today Deal F and question No. 9.

South Declarer, contract No Trump, score love-all.

To trick 1, West leads the Seven of Diamonds, North plays the Four, East the King, and South the Five.

To trick 2, East leads the Deuce of Diamonds, South plays the Jack, West the Ace, and North the Nine.

To trick 3, West leads the Ten of Diamonds, North discards the Deuce of Clubs, East discards the Four of Clubs, and South wins with the Queen of Diamonds.

QUESTION No. 9. How should South play the remainder of the hand? (Fill the blank before you read the answer that follows.)

Answer: Blank

The Answer
9. South should exhaust the Clubs, lead the Ace and King of Spades and then, but West in the lead with a Diamond.

South can count in addition to the one Diamond trick already won, four Clubs, two Spades and one Heart; he needs one more trick. The adversaries have won two Diamond tricks and can take two more if West obtains the lead. If West should have the King of

Paris Making Styles Still More Feminine

By Hazel Reavis
(Associated Press Fashion Editor)
PARIS (AP)—The most feminine frocks from offered show the war are indicated for spring in the mid-season style collections. Soft colors, soft fabrics, slimmest lines are all prophesied on the basis of new creations designed for wear at southern resorts.

Taffeta does not figure as largely in the new fashions as it did in the autumn collections. More satins, soft failles and crepe satin are used for both afternoon and evening dress. One or two of the most important dress houses eliminate taffeta entirely from their showings.

The softer fabrics are largely responsible for the softer lines of the latest models. They are essentially feminine, with much hand remaining, narrow hems, simple railroos around the hips and more around the hips. Necklines show a tendency toward less conventional lines.

Red is on the out-going tide at many houses. One large house, responsible for the popularization of lipstick red, shows only one red costume in the new series of models. Some houses eliminate red entirely. Yellow, on the other hand, is in the ascendency with green still a favorite everywhere. Blue shows no sign of giving way before gray, although pale gray afternoon dresses are more widely shown than ever.

There is less lace for evening in the new collections. Crepe art in promises to be the leading material for spring evening dresses, but tulle is the newest.

A bad habit is the one the other guy has.
