The girl named Mary Smith who went to Hollywood and became Marye Smythe has found her match. In New York there is a leading producer named Migue Malloy.

A New York woman got a divorce in Reno because her husband "let her down hard once in a chair." Maybe he thought she was trying to be speaker of the house.

Roeschs Honored On Anniversary At Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Roesch were the honor guests at a dinner party last night at the Buchanan Inn given by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Brady in celebration of the twentieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Roesch.

The guests were seated at a square table which was beautifully decorated with orchid and yellow chrysanthemums. Long yellow tapers were placed around the flowers in the center of the table making an attractive centerpiece.

Those who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. Roesch, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hays, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Ivanhoe, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kiddle, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Fitzgerald, Herman Roesch, and Mrs. Brady.

Members of the Clio club were delightfully entertained last night at a dinner bridge with Mr. and Mrs. Chase Robinson as host and hostess at their home on Spring street.

Seven tables were at play during the evening. Mrs. Weston-haver was awarded first prize for women and Harry A. Ziebrick received first for men. Bouquets of chrysanthemums made lovely decorations.

Mrs. J. R. Davy was hostess to members of the M. B. H. club yesterday afternoon at her home on Oak street.

The rooms were decorated with pink carnations and potted plants. Three tables of bridge were at play with first prize for high score going to Mrs. Walter Jones and second to Mrs. Ernest Walden.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Putman entertained the Alpha club last night with a dinner at the La Grande hotel and with cards at their home on Washington avenue.

Four tables were at play with Mrs. W. C. Perkins winning first prize for high score for women and H. E. Dixon winner for men. Bouquets of broms and yellow chrysanthemums made attractive decorations.

The Mc-Way-A-Tum club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. W. C. Hoppel as hostess at her home. Orange and white decorations were used in keeping with the Thanksgiving season.

Three tables of bridge were at play with Mrs. C. Y. Reale winning first prize for high score and Mrs. Adolph Pooler receiving second. Guest prize went to Mrs. Walter

Lutherans Prepare For Annual Bazaar

The Lutheran Ladies Aid held an interesting meeting yesterday afternoon when plans were made for the church bazaar and social to be held Friday, Nov. 30.

At the beginning of the meeting the Rev. Leif H. Aves read from the book which the Aid is studying. Mrs. L. J. Elert presided at the meeting.

Committees for the bazaar were appointed to work with Mrs. Frank Hansen, general chairman. Mrs. Walter Palmer will have charge of the fish pond and Mrs. Ambrose Wright is chairman of the candy booth. Mrs. Frank Wuel was named to head the refreshments committee.

After the meeting Mrs. H. A. Klinehammer served delicious refreshments.

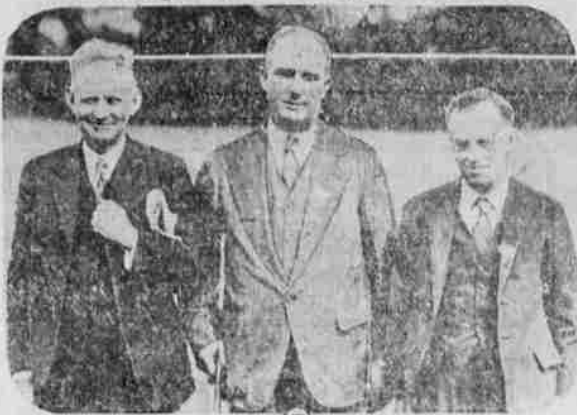

A very successful affair given Thursday night was the annual Thanksgiving banquet of the Ladies Society to the B. of L. E. & K., their husbands and families.

One hundred and fifty persons gathered at the Knights of Pythias hall to enjoy the chicken dinner and the program which followed.

Thameral gave a piano solo which was followed by two vocal numbers by Bethel Trill. Maelin-beth and Alice Jeanette Cooper entertained with a group of violin solos and Mrs. Harry Owens and Mrs. S. T. Coleman presented a clever one act skit.

A grand box completed the evening's entertainment.

Champs as Jersey Owners

When it comes to owning Jersey cattle here are the three world's greatest. They met recently at the National Dairy Exposition at Memphis, Tenn. Left to right, they are: E. C. Lusater, owner of the world's largest Jersey herd at Falturris, Tex.; D. O. Ball of Brampton, Ont., largest breeder of Jerseys in the British empire, and E. C. Perreides, largest Jersey owner on the island of Jersey.

Bridge Pointers

CONTRACT BRIDGE

For two years I have been urging Contract Bridge players to use my point when bidding No Trump or jumping partner's No Trump.

Following lunches, bidding one hand and passing another with the same amount of strength, is fatal to sound Contract, a game in which it is essential that your partner know as nearly as may be the exact strength that you have.

In Contract the rank and file of partners, when they have some strength in each hand, are very apt to bid somewhat aimlessly in the following manner:

South (Dealer) one No Trump (and supposing that the adversaries pass whenever it is their turn to declare), North two No Trumps.

South three No Trumps. They are apt to consider that three No Trump by the Dealer is a bid that is virtually forced by the jump to two No Trumps by the partner. They argue that there is no point in stopping at two No Trumps—one short of game—with a hand that by any possibility can make three, and therefore, in many cases they throw away a valuable partial score of 70 and suffer an unnecessary penalty. Of course, there is no system that will work in every hand, and yet the system I advocate will almost accomplish this seeming impossibility during the past summer I tested it in 600 rubbers, watching every case in which a No Trump was bid, and remarkable as it may seem, in that enormous number of hands there was hardly a single instance in which the scheme did not work perfectly. It is, I direct, that have been made for me by a number of experts in various parts of the country.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST — Grapes, cereal, cream, surprise golden rod eggs, extra toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON — Clear, bouillon, toast sticks, onion dumplings, apple sauce, cookies, milk, tea.

DINNER — Baker canned salmon, potatoes au gratin, buttered tomatoes, carrots, orange and apple salad, squash custards, milk, coffee.

The women in the country may find it convenient to substitute cabbage or cauliflower for the brussels sprouts suggested in the dinner menu. This change can be made without affecting the balance of food value in the meal.

Onion Dumplings
Four large white onions, 4 tablespoons cold chopped meat, 4 tablespoons bread crumbs, tomato catsup, 1 cup flour, 2 tablespoons shortening, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, milk, or water, 1 tin sliced canned tomatoes, 1 teaspoon sugar, 2 slices bacon, 1 tablespoon grated cheese.

Peel onions and summer until tender, but not broken. Cool. Remove centers and chop. Use part of the chopped centers with the bread crumbs and meat to make a stuffing for the onions. Add enough tomato catsup to this mixture to make moist. Fill onions with stuffing. Mix and sift flour, salt and baking powder. Work in shortening and cut in enough milk or water to make a soft dough.

Roll to one-half inch thickness on a floured surface, board and cut in flour squares. Put an onion in the center of each square and wrap the dough around it. Place in a baking dish and bake in a hot oven until brown. In the meantime cook bacon until crisp. Chop very finely with remaining onion from centers and cheese. Add with sugar to mixed tomatoes and bring to the boiling point. Pour hot over dumplings and serve.
