Daughters of Nile Organize Social Club in La Grande

A Daughters of Nile social club was organized in La Grande Saturday when Mrs. Charles E. Runyon, grand queen, and Mrs. G. B. Cellars, recorder, both of Nydia temple No. 4, of Portland, were in the city and met with about 18 charter members of the organization. Several of the members are from North Powder.

Luncheon was held at the La Grande hotel and was followed by a business meeting. Mrs. E. A. McEachran was elected president and Mrs. Harry Turner, secretary, of the club.

The third Saturday of every month will be the meeting day for the club, it was decided. The time will be spent sewing on material for the Shrine's hospital at Portland.

Wives, daughters, mothers and sisters of Shrineans are eligible to join the organization.

Mrs. J. P. Morelock entertained at bridge Saturday night at her home. Two tables were at play. Mrs. W. G. Sawyer was winner of the club prize.

Lavender pom poms made attractive decorations. Mrs. Morelock served dainty refreshments at the close of the evening.

"Artistic Achievements Available to Tourists of the West," is the topic for the meeting of the La Grande Neighborhood club which is to be held tomorrow at the La Grande hotel. Mrs. Turner Oliver is chairman of the program.

The Neighborhood club quartet is to give several musical numbers. "Carmel-of-the-Sea" is to be the topic of a talk by Mrs. H. M. Buck. Miss McEachran will read a group of poems. Mrs. Oliver will talk on "Opportunities for the Employment of Art in the Northwest." Sally Segrist will entertain with a Spanish dance.

Guests from Pendleton and Union will be present at the Degree of Honor lodge meeting tomorrow evening at Eagles hall when an initiation will be held.

The meeting will begin at 7:30 o'clock and following the lodge a social time will be enjoyed. Each member is asked to invite a friend for the entertainment at 5 o'clock. Mabel Coleman and Edna Owens will have charge of the program and Edith Doane is head of the refreshments committee.

At the meeting names will be drawn for Christmas gifts.

Fathers Guests at Rainbow Banquet

Fathers were entertained by daughters Saturday night at the banquet and assembly given by the Order of Rainbow for Girls.

At the banquet a delightful program was held with Christine Fain chairman. Catherine Humphreys, worthy advisor, made a welcoming talk to the fathers and Mr. Hunt, of Idland City, responded for the honor guests.

Mary Vaughn Hendrickson entertained with a reading and Jean Campbell played a piano solo. Mrs. G. N. Tarkington then talked, explaining "What Rainbow Means to Girls."

After the banquet a new member was initiated into the order. A collection was taken to buy Christmas presents for orphan children in the Masonic home at Forest Grove.

Miss Harriet Casey, of Portland, formerly of La Grande, and Henry A. Kuckenberg, of Portland, were married Thursday morning at the Church of the Madeline in Portland with the Rev. Father Thomas Tobin officiating.

Mrs. Kuckenberg is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Casey, who are well known here.

Before the impressive church ceremony Genevieve Clancy Duane, organist, and Lucien E. Becker, violinist, played the bridal music.

The bride was dressed in a white satin gown which was trimmed with tiers of satin and net. She wore a veil with a Russian coronet.

Miss Dorothy Casey, her attendant, was dressed in a period gown of Spanish rose satin and a felt hat. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and delphiniums.

Nicholas Long was best man. Those who ushered were Edward Casey, Herbert Jackson, Lloyd Legg and Arthur Jackson.

A wedding breakfast was served at the Casey home after which the couple left for a month's trip to California.

P-T. Association Meetings Friday

The Central Parent-Teacher association met Friday afternoon in the auditorium of the Presbyterian church. The meeting was opened with a prayer by the Rev. Lell H. Awea. A delightful program followed.

The fourth grade room of Miss McNew gave a playlet which followed the Thanksgiving motif with turkeys, a pumpkin pie and pilgrims participating.

Mrs. Patten's eighth B music class sang a group of two and three part songs entitled, "By Gone Days," "Castles in Spain," and "Night Fall." W. W. Nussbaum was the accompanist.

At the meeting it was announced that the Central Parent-Teacher association has the distinction of having the largest membership in the state of Oregon including the Portland associations. There are nearly 500 members in the association. The large number was due, largely, it was said, to the work of Dr. Margaret Ingie chairman of the membership committee, and the other members of the committee. The cup was shown which was won by the La Grande city council for having the highest increase in membership in proportion to the number of pupils in the La Grande grade schools. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gabriel, of Portland, gave the cup.

Delegates in the regional division of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers gave interesting reports and all expressed themselves as having received valuable education and inspiration at the meeting.

Mrs. H. B. Hanna reported on the outstanding activities at the convention. Mrs. George Lyman reported on the historian's report. The president's penny march and the memorial service to the late Mrs. Hawkins, "Congress Mother," Mrs. Andrews told of the art and music on the Pendleton program commenting on the excellent training shown.

Mrs. Stella Ingie spoke concerning the kindergarten law in Oregon saying that the present trend shows that within a few years kindergarten work will be a part of the school system.

Mrs. Hessler's fifth grade won the attendance picture at the Friday meeting with 13 parents present.

The Iktavia Parent-Teacher association met for an interesting program and social Friday night. Mrs. Clyde Davis was chairman of the program committee.

Wilma Hansell gave a musical reading and the fifth grade pupils of Mrs. Guy Ellis sang a group of two songs. A talk was made by the Rev. Oliver Riley on "What Is a Child Worth?"

Charles Malboen, secretary of the Union county chamber of commerce, talked on the home market survey which is being made in Union county.

At a short business meeting Mrs. Clyde Davis and Mrs. A. Alexander, who were representatives to the regional meeting of Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers held at Pendleton Nov. 14, 15 and 16, gave interesting reports of the convention. Mrs. Alexander displayed the loving cup which was awarded to the La Grande association in recognition of the growth in membership during the past year.

Refreshments were served later in the evening. Mrs. Jesse Spencer was chairman of the committee.

The So-Ne-He club will meet with Mrs. Harvey Patton at 1217 Eleventh street Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Degree of Honor lodge will meet tomorrow evening at Eagles hall at 7:30 o'clock. Each member is asked to invite a friend for the entertainment to be held at 2 o'clock following the lodge session.

13-YEAR CHASE ENDS SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 26 (AP)—After 13 years absence from Georgia, John D. Walker, banker, political and religious leader, was in Chatham county hall today awaiting a hearing before a United States commissioner on charges that he misappropriated $9,000 in bonds belonging to the First National Bank of Sparta, Ga.

BOOTH NOT IMPROVED LONDON, Nov. 26 (AP)—General William Marshall Booth, commander of the Salvation Army, had a restless night. Otherwise his condition was unchanged today.

MENUS

By Sister Mary BREAKFAST—Apples, cereal cooked with raisins, cream, waffles, strap, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Baked macaroni and tomatoes, buttered cauliflower, canned fruit, cookies, milk, tea.

DINNER—Baked ham with raisin sauce, asparagus, steamed spinach, stuffed celery, porcine apples, milk, coffee.

Apples are carefully simmered in syrup until tender, but not broken. They are then rolled in blanched and shredded almonds and the reduced syrup is poured over them. After thorough chilling they are served with a garnish of whipped cream and a cube of bright jelly. The shredded almonds give the name "porcine."

Raisin Sauce Three-fourths cup light brown sugar, 1-3 cup water, 1 cup seedless raisins, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 glass currant or grape jelly, 1/2 teaspoon ground cloves.

Put sugar and water in a sauce pan and bring slowly to the boiling point, stirring until sugar is dissolved. Add butter, raisins, jelly and salt, pepper and cloves. Stir cornstarch to a smooth paste with a little cold water and add to mixture when the boiling point is reached, stirring constantly. Cook 10 minutes and remove from fire. Stir in lemon juice and serve.

Union Woman Is Given 25-Year Service Award

By Mrs. Bert Knight (Observer Correspondent)

UNION (Special)—The Pythian Sisters met in regular session Tuesday evening at the K. P. hall. The main feature of the evening's program was the presentation of a twenty-five year service pin to Mrs. Mollie Johnson, who helped to organize Lucette Temple No. 14, thirty-two years ago. Mrs. Johnson responded in a very gracious manner and gave a brief history of Lucette Temple. She is the only charter member of that order left in Union. Following the program a banquet was served in the dining room.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fox were host and hostess to the members of the T. H. club Wednesday evening at their home in North Union. Bridge at four tables was the diversion of the evening with high scores going to Mrs. W. H. Vogel and W. W. Stevens. Mrs. Bert Knight received the consolation prize. Luncheon was served by the hostess following the card games.

Members of the Carnation club and several guests were delightfully entertained Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Frank Conner was hostess at a bridge luncheon at her home in North Union. A three course luncheon was served at 1:15 o'clock at four small tables attractively decorated in a color scheme of yellow and bronze. Bouquets of pom poms were used on the tables and about the rooms. Four tables were arranged for bridge following luncheon. High score among the guests went to Mrs. W. M. Dobbin and Mrs. J. P. Hutchinson receiving the consolation prize. The next meeting of the club will be Thursday, Dec. 6, when Mrs. Bert Knight will be hostess at her home in Union.

Twenty-five members of the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church were present Wednesday afternoon when they met at the home of Mrs. Ellis Hess, South Union. During the business session, arrangements were made for the annual bazaar which is to be held Saturday, Dec. 8. After the business meeting the afternoon was spent piecing quilts. Before adjournment, the hostess assisted by Mrs. Moade Ballard and Mrs. Brown served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Oryon, who have been living on a farm north of Union for the past several years, left Monday for Utah where they expect to reside. They were accompanied as far as Salt Lake City by their daughter, Elma, who is on route to the east on a mission for the L. D. S. church.

Adna Haggerty and Miss Tillie Strickler, of Enterprise, spent Wednesday in Union visiting at the home of his brother, W. O. Haggerty.

John Martens has been confined to his home since Wednesday because of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Stewart, formerly of Union, who have been living at New Plymouth, Idaho for the last several years, have returned to Union where they will reside.

The last distribution of Eastern Brook trout was made the first of the week when H. H. Bonney, superintendent of the fish hatchery here, delivered a load to Wallawa Lake. He returned with Yank eggs to be hatched here at the hatchery. C. A. Gale was a business visitor in La Grande Wednesday.

Miss Mayme Sampson, of the Bob Shop in La Grande, was transacting business in Union Wednesday.

Tex Knight has been confined to his home this week because of illness.

Mrs. Frances C. Tallman was shopping and visiting in La Grande Wednesday afternoon.

G. A. Caspar, of Hot Lake, transacted business in Union Tuesday. The Oregon Trail sawmill here has closed down for the winter months. The planer is still running and will continue to do so most of the winter.

D. M. Hooks was taken to Hot Lake last week, where he underwent a minor operation Monday morning. He is reported as getting along satisfactorily.

After visiting in Union the past two weeks with her sister, Mrs. L. M. Stratton, and brother, Charlie Cross, Mrs. Emma Taylor and son, Eugene, left Wednesday for their home in Touchet, Wash. They were accompanied by Mrs. Cross, who will visit relatives there.

She Is Mayor

The first woman mayor in North Carolina is Mrs. Leah Arcouet Chiles, mayor-elect of the town of Kenilworth, an exclusive residential village near Asheville. She received 76 per cent of the total vote. Mrs. Chiles is president of the Kenilworth Art Association and a leader in many civic improvement projects. Her father, Casimir Arcouet of Lyons, France, and Aurora, Ill., was a famous sculptor.
