UNION SAWMILL CLOSES SEASON

Will Not Re-open Until Next Spring; Planer Is Still Operating

By W. V. Connor (Observer Correspondent)

UNION, Ore. (Special)—The Oregon Trail sawmill has shut down for the winter but the planer will continue to run for some time. Sawing will probably be resumed as soon as the spring as the roads in the mountains will permit the hauling of logs for the mill.

Miss Elida Miller and her mother, Mrs. S. Edward Miller left last week for a visit in Western Oregon and Washington. They will visit Eugene where Miss Miller will attend the home coming at university. They will also visit in Seattle where Miss Miller's sister, Beth, is attending the Cornish school.

Nate Zeehoff of La Grande was doing some work in Union last week, installing plumbing at the S. E. Miller home in North Union.

D. M. Hoos, who is about 80 years old, was at Hot Lake about a week ago and had his tonsils removed. He was brought back to his home and is slowly recovering from the operation.

The Union High school girls wound up their valley ball season with a clean tournament Thursday and Friday afternoons at the local school gym. The seniors emerged victors, having defeated the freshmen class in the final game.

Mountain Gem Hotel lodge held its semi-annual election of officers last Wednesday night. Viola Colburn was elected, noted grand, Sadie Connor vice grand, Kathryn Spears recording secretary, Belle Busick financial secretary, Ella Holly treasurer. Installation of the new officers will be on the first Wednesday night in January.

Preparations are about completed for the final football game of the season for the Bobcats when they face the La Grande Tigers on the Union gridiron on Thanksgiving day.

Mr. W. O. Haggerty made a trip to Enterprise Saturday to see the valley ball game between the Union girls and the latter school.

E. P. Coburn, high school coach, and most of the boys on the Union High football squad went to La Grande Saturday afternoon to witness the latter play the Walla Walla football aggregation.

Sunday morning about 11 o'clock two cars crashed together on the intersection of Main street and the road running to the sawmill, resulting in one of the machines being practically wrecked.

Smithers was turning at the intersection and Pete Wright was going north on Main street. The latter struck the Smithers' truck and knocked the front wheels and axle out from under the body of the truck. The other car was only slightly damaged, especially the fender and hood. Mrs. Smithers' truck had to be hauled in with the wrecker from the Oregon Trail garage.

Will Hixler, Mrs. Lela Sturgill, John Workman, and the girls' coach, Miss Hood, accompanied the Union high valley ball team to Enterprise Saturday where they played against the latter school Saturday night. The game resulted in a decided victory for the Enterprise team. This was the last game of the season for the Union team, the girls having won two and lost two games. Union added valley ball to their school athletics only this year and the girls were playing against teams which had one or more years of experience.

The Cove grade football eleven won a victory over the grade boys from the Union school on the latter's ground Friday afternoon. The final score being 27 to 6.

Will Cameron, of Hixler, was visiting Sunday with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cagler, Mr. Compton

If You Were Investing Your Own Money Direct--

What security would you want if you were loaning several thousand dollars constantly as the La Grande Building & Loan is doing?

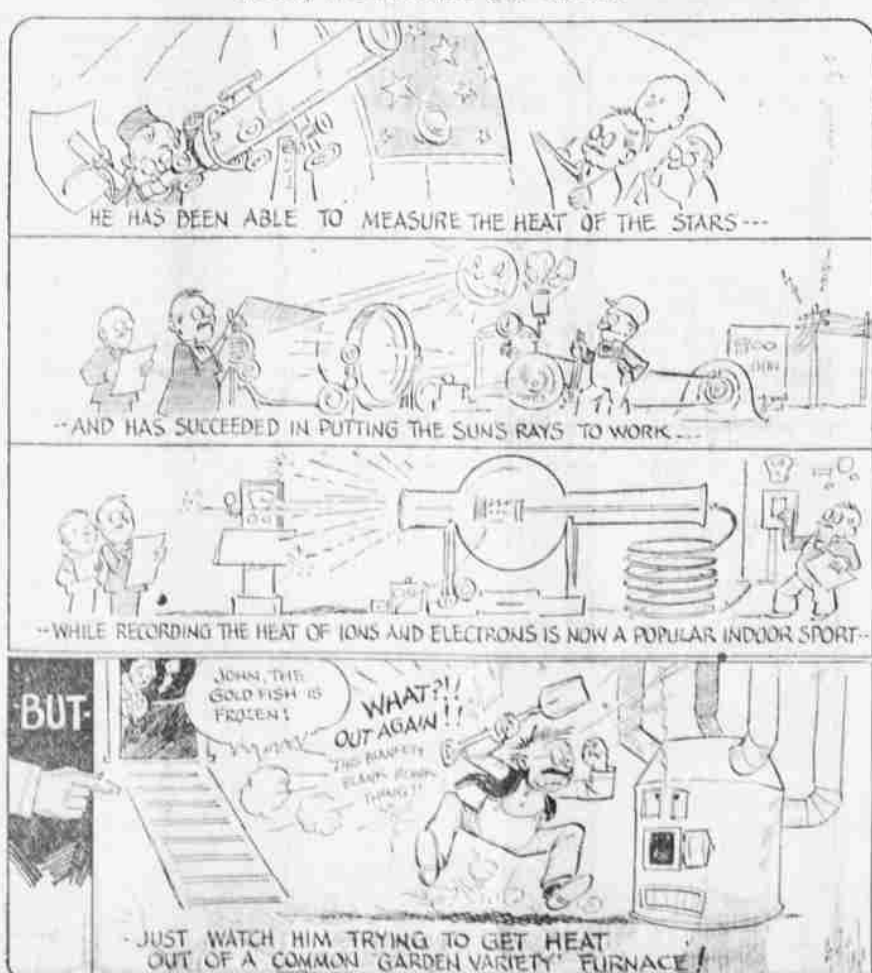

Could you hope to have better security than a first mortgage on a man's home -- a first-improved property that he was paying for in monthly installments?

Could you imagine a loan that would be given more rigid attention by the borrower -- a loan that would be paid off more quickly?

American homes are considered security on a par with United States bonds by many investors. Your money, deposited with your local building and loan company, is invested in just such high-grade first mortgages -- and never is a loan greater than one half the value of the property.
