Goitre Not a Disease
Milwaukee Doctor Makes Remarkable Discovery

MILWAUKEE, Wis. — It has been brought to light by scientific research that goitre is not a disease and is not to be treated as such. Dr. A. A. Rock, Dept. G-25, Box 737, Milwaukee, Wis., a prominent goitre specialist for over 24 years, has perfected a different method of treatment for his patients that has proved remarkably successful. This same method is now being used for a home treatment of goitre cases all over the country, with astonishing results. The doctor states that goitre is a condition which grows worse with age and recommends immediate attention no matter how small the growth may appear. He strongly opposes needless operations. Dr. Rock is the author of a book that tells in a simple way about treating goitre at home. He has published this book at his own expense and will send a copy free to anyone interested. Bill Jones' wife had gone to another city to consult a doctor. Bill celebrated the occasion by sending the children to grandmother's and inviting some friends out for a poker party. While the game was in session the telephone rang. "Postal Telegraph speaking," said the impersonal voice on the phone. "Read it," said Jones nervously. "Repeat to state your wife has turned. Stunned F. B. Hopkins, M. D." Jones dropped the receiver and turned a white face to his friends. "Heavens," he said, "my wife has twins."

PICKED WRONG SPORT (Convict reading newspaper): "Here's justice for you! A football player breaks two men's jaws and another man's leg and is de lion of do hour, while I gets ten years for old stunnin' an old guy wid a blackjak."

Visitor: "Will you share my lot?" Fair Lady: "If it's got a house on it, I'm not crazy about living in a tent."

One of the best places in the world to keep out of is court.

He had poured forth passionate declarations of love to the pretty girl at his side. He had not thought himself capable of such eloquence. Yet in the midst of his loving words the girl yawned. Even though she raised her hand to conceal it, it did not escape his eager eye. His torrent of burning words ceased.

"Why speak to you of love?" he cried bitterly. "You, who are so utterly heartless. Your yawn showed it."

"Oh, Clarence," she whispered, horror-stricken, "I open my mouth as wide as that?"

"Well," said Farmer Wilkins to his city boarder, who was up early and looking around, "bea out to hear his cock crow. I s'pose." And he winked at the hired man.

"No," replied the city boarder. "I've just been burying the frogs that croaked last night."

Some persons call it luck, but the wise man adds another letter and it is pluck.

Probably one reason why there never has been a labor club organized is because no building can be found large enough to hold the membership.

Don't Let That Cold Turn Into "Flu"

That cold may turn into "Flu," Grippie or, even worse, Pneumonia, unless you take care of it at once. Rub Musterole on the congested parts and see how quickly it brings relief as effectively as the messy old mustard plaster.

Musterole made from pure oil of mustard, camphor, menthol and other simple ingredients, is a counter-irritant which stimulates circulation and helps break up the cold.

You will feel a warm tingle as it enters the pores, then a cooling sensation that brings welcome relief.

Jars & Tubes MUSTEROLE WILL NOT BLISTER Better than a mustard plaster

AT THE THEATERS

Dane, Arthur In New Type Comedy Picture

Karl Dane and George K. Arthur, wandering through mysterious groves and amid weird mummies, sinister shadows, and secret trapdoors that hurl the heroes of "Hooker" into the black depths, are making their bow in a new and very hilarious type of comedy at the Arcade theater Thursday in "Detectives."

It is a straight mystery story with all the thrills of the crook drama at its heart—and the comedy is introduced when Dane and Arthur, as a "hick" house detective and a billy who aspires to be a second Sherlock Holmes, blunder innocently into one tense situation after another.

They get into secret chambers where weird enemies assail them; Dane dodges knives hurled at his head and hides in a mummy case that once housed an ancient Egyptian king; Arthur impersonates a woman and wins the stolen jewels, and finally wins the girl after a series of adventures and misadventures so hilarious that the new style of comedy sets a new mark in screen history.

The cast is a notable one, including Tegen Holtz as the sinister Orloff, Polly Moran as the society dowager bereft of her jewels, Clarence Lyle, Koo Mai, and others of note. The story was written by Franklin and Robert Lord.
