

Local News In Brief

Really Board Meets—The La Grande reality board met at noon today for regular business.

Ill at Home—The Rev. and Mrs. F. O. Hess are ill at their home suffering from influenza.

Thanksgiving Away—Mrs. and Mrs. Ralph Winters, of La Grande, spent Thanksgiving at North Powder.

Miss Hatt Visits—Miss Miriam Hatt, of La Grande, spent Thanksgiving at Enterprise with her mother.

Mrs. MacDonald Returns—Mrs. Harriet R. MacDonald, of La Grande, returned to her home Wednesday following a few weeks' stay at Hot Lake.

Go to Yakima—Mrs. Ira Howell and son, Lawrence, went to Yakima, Wash., today to visit Mrs. Ben Eberhart. They expect to return Sunday.

Baby Son Born—A baby son, who has been named Arthur David, was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Sanford this morning at their home on 1506 M avenue. The baby weighed eight pounds.

To Klamath Falls—Miss Eunice Herr, of La Grande, has gone to Klamath Falls where she will spend the winter with Mrs. J. E. Knight.

Lodge to Meet—The Moose lodge will hold a dance at the Moose hall Saturday evening. All members and friends are invited to attend.

College Quarantined—Mrs. R. W. Leighton, of La Grande, received a letter yesterday from her daughter, Louise, who is a student at Gooding College, Gooding, Ida., that the college is quarantined because of the epidemic of spinal meningitis and infantile paralysis. None of the students were permitted to leave the campus for the Thanksgiving holidays. Miss Leighton states that the vicinity around Gooding for a radius of 75 miles is under strict quarantine. Most of the cases are in Twin Falls.

Mr. McDowell Here—J. McDowell, of Enterprise, arrived in the city this morning. Mr. McDowell is at the Sacajawea Inn.

Vacation in Portland—Portland where she will visit over the weekend with relatives.

Visiting in Corvallis—Miss Louise Wetzel went to Corvallis the first of this week where she is visiting with friends for a few days.

Visit in Halfway—Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Harrison, Mrs. H. J. Harrison, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Glenn, all of La Grande, spent Thanksgiving in Halfway with Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Elmer.

Goes to Hermiston—Miss Alta Lillie, mathematics teacher at the La Grande High school went to Hermiston last evening where she is visiting over the Thanksgiving vacation with friends.

To Leave Today—Mr. and Mrs. Chester Gilbert and M. Hinshaw, of Harrington, Wash., expect to leave for their homes tonight. They have been visiting in La Grande with Mr. and Mrs. John Adkins and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ware and other friends. Mr. Gilbert was principal of Riveria school last year.

Thanksgiving at Baker—Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Rosenbaum, Sax Bruce and family, Otis Veal and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Playle spent Thanksgiving in Baker where they had dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rosenbaum, who is a brother of J. V. Rosenbaum.

Seville Pratt Here—Miss Seville Pratt, of La Grande, arrived in the city Tuesday evening to spend the Thanksgiving holidays. Miss Pratt is a student at St. Theresa's academy at Boise, Ida. Last year she was an advanced freshman at La Grande High school. She expects to return to Boise Sunday. While in La Grande Miss Pratt is at the home of Mrs. Viva Hansen.

At Patton House—George Corne, of Portland, and Roy Davies, of Walla Walla, Wash., were Thanksgiving guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Patterson.

Go to Union—Douglas Kline and Ted Klein, of La Grande, went to Union yesterday to see the football game.

From Joseph—Edith Huston, of Joseph, is visiting in La Grande. She arrived this morning and is staying at the Sacajawea Inn.

To Visit Father—Miss Lenore McCorkle, of La Grande, went to Huntington today to visit her father, C. H. McCorkle, who works there.

Impires at Game—J. V. Rosenbaum, of La Grande, was the umpire in the football game between Baker and Pendleton held at Baker yesterday.

To Union Yesterday—Among the La Grande people who attended the game at Union yesterday were Grace Hedden, La Valle Richey and Mary Nowland.

Visit Relatives—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schilling and daughter, Jean, of Aloha, Ore., arrived in La Grande Wednesday for a visit with friends and relatives. They expect to return to their home Sunday.

Visit in La Grande—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sax and Miss Mary Praxley, of Portland, are visiting in La Grande. They spent the day in Baker yesterday. They expect to return to Portland Sunday.

Get 28 Mallards—W. O. Clinger and John Adam, of La Grande, returned Wednesday from Ontario where they went on a duck hunting expedition. They brought back 28 mallards. The men expect to return to Ontario later.

Mrs. Parker Returns—Mrs. J. M. Parker, of La Grande, returned to her home Wednesday night from Portland and California, where she has been visiting for the last two months with relatives. In Portland Mrs. Parker visited her daughter, Mrs. F. D. Hobbs, and in San Francisco she visited another daughter, Mrs. Edna Lathrop. She also visited a son, Jesse Parker, in California. Mrs. Parker says she had a very enjoyable vacation.

Visit Wednesday—Mr. and Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Parks, of Elgin, were visitors in La Grande Wednesday when they attended O. E. S. chapter in the evening.

License Issued—Jessie Thompson and Ambrose Kippes, both of Richmond, Ore., were issued a marriage license Wednesday, Nov. 29, at the Union county court house.

To Baker—Dick Dykhuys and Letroy Dykhuys, of La Grande, went to Baker yesterday for a short visit.

To Visit Mother—Mrs. J. F. Brock and children, Jack and Wanda, of Croswell, arrived in La Grande this morning to visit Mrs. Brock's mother, Mrs. H. G. Rendic.

Here from North Powder—Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Moore, of North Powder, returned to their home today following a short visit in La Grande. They were registered at the La Grande hotel.

To Visit Brothers—Mrs. L. E. Hamner and daughter, Burdell, of Spokane, arrived in La Grande this morning to visit Mrs. Hamner's brothers, Ray and B. C. Snyder.

Council to Meet—The La Grande Parent-Teacher council will meet Monday at 2:45 o'clock at Greenwald school. The board of managers will meet at 2:45 o'clock. Mrs. George Lyman will give a lesson in parliamentary law. All council members and chairmen are urged to be present.

Returns to Baker—Marion Nodine, of Baker, returned to her home today after visiting her mother, Mrs. Fred Nodine, who is in La Grande at the Grande Ronde hospital.

Spend Day at Summerville—Mr. and Mrs. George B. Herr and children, Donald and Evelyn, of La Grande, spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Herr's sister, Mrs. C. H. Bault, at Summerville, yesterday.

Going to Nampa—Mrs. L. R. Pepper and daughter, Phyllis Ann, went to Nampa, Ida., this morning on the train, following a visit in La Grande with Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Allen.

To Weber—The Rev. and Mrs. Vernon E. Hall and family, of La Grande, went to Weber for the Thanksgiving holidays. They plan to return to La Grande tomorrow. Mr. Hall is pastor of the First M. E. church.

Son Visits—Mr. and Mrs. John F. Groulch, of La Grande, had as their guests for Thanksgiving their son, daughter-in-law and grandsons, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Groulch, Robert and Gayle, of Nyssa, Ore. They are leaving tonight for their home.

Here for Holidays—Mrs. K. Lund and two sons, Lloyd and Arthur and daughter, Lilian, of Bend, Ore., are guests at the home of Mrs. Orville Webster, another daughter of Mrs. Lund. The Lund family formerly made their home here until about a year ago.

To Visit in Idaho—Mr. and Mrs. Orville Deane and Mrs. G. M. Barnett left for Boise, yesterday to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with Mrs.

Barnett's daughter, Mrs. J. H. Lake. They expect to return late in the week.

Robert Guild Visits—Robert Guild, of La Grande, arrived in the city yesterday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Guild, for the Thanksgiving holidays. Robert is a student at the University of Oregon.

Epworth Meeting—A special service of dedication and communion by the members of the Epworth League will be held at the Island City Community church Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. An appropriate and impressive service has been prepared, it is said. Everyone is invited to be present.

Traffic Accident—Two cars figured in a minor traffic accident at Jefferson and Chestnut this morning. No one was hurt and the damage was slight. The accident was reported to police by Walter Burnham, a report of an accident a mile from Bigard was also received in which no one was hurt. Names of the persons in this accident could not be learned.

Roads Clear—In spite of the snow which fell last night and this morning the highways and main roads about the valley are still open. The snow is not deep enough to warrant the use of snow plows, according to the local Three A office.

Observes Thanksgiving—Thanksgiving was observed very quietly at the Hot Lake sanatorium. Many of the patients and visitors went to their respective homes for the day. Others who remained at the lake enjoyed a short service, with a sermon "Thanksgiving" by the Rev. Oliver Riley, of La Grande, and community singing of old familiar Thanksgiving songs.

Father Better—Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Morgan, of La Grande, returned to their home Wednesday from Modford where they were called by the illness of Mr. Morgan's father, O. T. Morgan, who recently suffered a paralytic stroke. He was slightly improved at the time the Morgans left for La Grande.

Miss Maguire Visits—Miss Edna Maguire, with a friend, Miss Ann Young, of Portland, are visiting with Miss Maguire's mother, Mrs. S. B. Morgan, in La Grande during the Thanksgiving holidays. Miss Young returned to her home last night and Miss Maguire will leave for Portland Sunday night. She is assistant to the chief pass clerk of the O.-W. R. & N. railroad in Portland.

When making children's clothes, if several small pieces are put under the hem, the garment may be lengthened as it shrinks or as the child grows.

PIGGLY WIGGLY

No effort is made in Piggly Wiggly to sell to customers higher priced articles than they want to buy. Price tags hang above every item to help you to decide the quality you want.

Golden Age
Macaroni Products
One large double package, containing TWO ordinary pkgs.
10c

White King
Granulated Machine Soap
Large Pkg., 44c

Standard Grade
Corn No. 2 can—11c Peas No. 2 can—11c

Grand Pa's
Wonder Speed Soap
Contains pumice,
Large cake 8c

Santiam Brand
Fancy Wild Mountain Blackberries with a different flavor.
No. 2 Can 28c

Cane Sugar
10 lb. cloth bag 68c
25 lb. cloth bag $1.55

Lard
Swift's Silver Leaf Brand
4 lb. pail 72c
8 lb. pail $1.36

Soft Shell Walnuts
1928 Crop — No. 1 Grade
Per lb. 29c

Uniformly low prices every day in the week.

YES FOLKS!
IT'S HERE

A Great Celebration

CLINT'S CLOTHIERY
LAST CHRISTMAS
IN BUSINESS

SALE

To Sell Out, Close Out
Absolutely Quit Business

Starting Tomorrow

Saturday Dec. 1st. at 10 a. m.

Another Unmerciful Slaughtering of Low Prices

Men and Women

who shop for men, here's your greatest opportunity to do your Christmas shopping from our big stock of Holiday Gift Goods for men and young men at savings that are enormous which will greatly lessen the strain on your purse just at a time when it strikes it the hardest.

Remember It's Your Great Chance.

CLINT'S CLOTHIERY
"THE STORE WITH A CONSCIENCE"

TODAY and SATURDAY

★ STAR ★

Carl Laemmle Presents
Norman Kerry and Lewis Stone

in
"THE FOREIGN LEGION"
A Laemmle Super Production
with MARY NOLAN and JUNE MARLOWE
A Double Triangle of Tangled Lives — Highly Dramatic Spectacular Story—beneath the blazing desert sun.

ARCADE

TODAY
and
SATURDAY

WILLIAM
HAINES
in EXCESS BAGGAGE

with Josephine Dunn
Ricardo Cortez
A
JAMES CRUZE
production

"Sharing the applause — as if I earned it! I've excess baggage, that's all!" ARE you, too, being carried through life as "excess baggage"? A great human document—a Haines triumph in the picture from the smashing stage hit.

Metro News
& Oswald
"The Lucky Rabbit"

We Buy For Less

We Sell For Less

The New York Store's

Greatest Annual Event

Commencing Saturday, Dec. 1st.

Such Prices for Quality Merchandise Have Never Been Equaled In La Grande

Every article in the store is priced at a figure that gives you the most sensational values ever offered in years.

We are doing everything within human possibility to make this sale THE GREATEST MONEY SAVING EVENT OF A LIFE TIME.

Hunt The World Over

You will never find our prices equalled any where—in this, our 19th Anniversary Sale.

Come — you will not be disappointed.

NEW YORK STORE
Destroyers of High Prices