Fariss Players Present "Why Wives Worry"

The Fariss Players' offering tonight at the Arcade Theater will be one of those merry comedies with plenty of action and scarcely a minute of lagging interest. As soon as said "A man's wife can't be happy unless she has something to worry about," and in "Why Wives Worry" there is enough grief to keep several wives worrying—of course, the grief is all clean fun.

The best laid plans of mice and men? Well, Roy R. Baker and Roy L. Baker laid the best made plans they could and with the showiest connivance to help each other. But they both had wives and that's where the story "Why Wives Worry" waxes warm. This will be the second offering of the popular stock company. In addition to the drama play there will be motion pictures.

"The Singapore Mutiny" At Star Today

In the confined area of a freight steamer on a long voyage through tropic seas, with withering heat beating down upon it day after day, it is inevitable that human passions should have unrestrained play. When to this is added the presence of a fascinating woman passenger, whose wiles turn the heads of a half-dozen men and set them to battling with each other for her smiles, the tense drama of the situation may well be imagined.

This is the unusual setting of FIVE powerful incidents of the high seas, "The Singapore Mutiny," at the Star theater today, with Ralph Rice and beautiful Estelle Taylor in the leading roles.

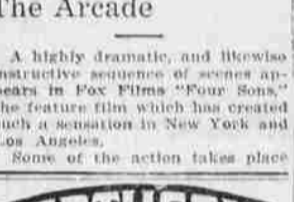

In addition to playing the role of a stockhold bully whose abuse of his men leads to mutiny and shipwreck, Rice directed the photography with a fine sense of dramatic values. Miss Taylor's characterization of the adventures on the Singapore-bound "tramp" steamer is declared to be the most outstanding of her brilliant screen career. Others in the cast are James Mason, Gardner Gray, Martha Matton, Harry Allen, Frank Newberg, Robert Galliard and Carl Axzelle.

"Four Sons" Coming To The Arcade

A highly dramatic, and likewise instructive sequence of scenes appears in Fox Films "Four Sons," the feature film which has created such a sensation in New York and Los Angeles.

Baby for Sale!

Father a college professor; mother cultured and refined; heredity guaranteed. Price—$30.00.

PASSIONATELY devoted to her husband, Marjorie often said she would sacrifice anything for his success and happiness. And now, as he faces failure, disillusionment, despair—all for a lack of money—she sees only one way out. She has heard of women, rich and childless, who would give thousands of dollars if they could adopt a baby, and she is sure of its heredity. But as the golden dreams of approaching motherhood fill her soul, she wonders if she can go through with it.

True, the secret of her coming baby is still her own. Even her husband does not know—and never know. But can she resist the loving touch of tiny, helpless baby hands that are already clasp tightly around her heart? Can she all her unborn child?

Read her poignant story, "Nature's Vengeance," in January True Story Magazine.
