Having completed their tour of inspection the boys had returned to Salem where they decided to attend the picture show. When they returned after the show the loss was discovered. The thief took two suitcases, one belonging to Durland and the other to Stewart. They estimated the loss at $120.

New Directories Out—
New telephone books for use in Union county have been sent out from the headquarters of the West Coast Telephone company at Everett, Wash. The books should not be used yet, according to S. D. Crowe, local manager of the company in La Grande, as many of the numbers in the new book are different from those in the old telephone directory which necessitates a change of the numbers on the switchboard. The numbers on the switchboard will be revised to correspond with those in the new book immediately. When this work is done, an announcement will be made by the telephone company headquarters here, Mr. Crowe says. Directories are issued two times a year.
