

Several Cases Of Influenza In Promise District

By Mrs. Bertha Carper
(Observer Correspondent)
PROMISE, Ore., (Special)—The flu is going the rounds here. Mrs. W. L. Bauman, Mrs. John Carper, Mrs. Bertha Carper and the family of P. A. Trump are all ill of the disease. Howard and Harold Carper made a trip to Wallawa the first of the week. Bill Carper went to Wallawa Tuesday accompanied by his daughter Arlene, who went out to have some dental work done. Ralph Carper made a trip to Old Wortman's Monday, going on up the ridge to Ben Matthews' Tuesday. He returned home Wednesday. C. E. Carper came home Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with his family. He returned to his work on the Upper Klamath, Sunday. Gladys Hays, Mr. Potter and

NORTH POWDER SCHOOLS PLAN XMAS PROGRAM

By Mrs. Eathel Forsstrom
(Observer Correspondent)
NORTH POWDER, Ore., (Special)—The grades from the North Powder school are planning a Christmas program. William Lovern lost a valuable dairy cow recently from eating third cutting alfalfa hay. He had recently refused a good sum of money for her. Jesse Doby, of Baker, was a business visitor here Monday. E. O. Wolfey returned Monday after spending six weeks visiting through the east. C. J. Forsstrom and W. A. Hudelson were La Grande visitors Monday. They made the trip by car. Frank Collins, of Baker, transacted business at North Powder Monday.

Mrs. Metcalf and children returned Sunday night from Portland after spending Thanksgiving with her daughters. Dr. Irvine and Arthur Elsworth returned Monday morning from Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Al Johnson returned from Eugene Monday, spending the vacation visiting relatives. Guy Coe, of the Union Oil company of Baker, visited here Tuesday.

LARD
Open Kettle Rendered. (Cash)
No. 10 Pail $1.25

This Lard is open kettle rendered and 100% pure. It is produced under the most sanitary conditions possible. Don't call for just lard. Say OPEN KETTLE RENDERED. The difference is:—Open kettle rendered lard has all moisture extracted, and you get 100% lard. Tank lard contains about 10% moisture and air which you pay for. Call at our plant, and our foreman will fully explain both processes.

AGAIN—Our products are manufactured from Grande Ronde Valley hogs, and we use home labor, and spend our money in La Grande. It does not go to outside money centers.

Other Specials

Back Bone, fresh daily 5c Lb.
Shoulder Ribs Pork 5c Lb.
Fresh Columbia River Salmon 20c Lb.
Lean Breakfast Bacon 29c Lb.

We are processing over 400 hogs weekly. Call and see our New Equipment in action. The products we offer are second to none and we guarantee to Save You Money.

WHO has not said to herself, "What shall I serve to vary the menu?" If she has, however, written for the "Sweet Sixteen" Recipe Packet, the answer is in her hands. This amazing group of recipes (just 16, chosen from among scores of prize-winners) reveals so many easily made dainties...desserts...cakes...puddings...beverages...that the wonder is how women have gotten along without it. A packet will be sent you, free, if you will send your address to D. Ghirardelli Co., San Francisco, Calif.
