Christmas Cookery

by
Marjorie Howe Dixon

By Marjorie Howe Dixon.

In some homes, special little cakes for Christmas are an established custom. If there is a Swedish grandmother about the place, she will be busy for weeks before Christmas with her cooking. If one can find a Danish friend somewhere, one can learn to make the delicious Danish pastry. From the French one can receive instructions in making the dainty little cakes that are "made in France."

We always wanted to know what Petit Fours were. See if they sound good:

Take small circles of sponge cake, split and fill with peach jam. Roll in fondant, roll again in chopped brazil nuts. It would make anyone hungry just to listen to the recipe.

Here's a Pleasing Change
That's a sample of French cakes. A French menu for a meal would offer a pleasant change from the accepted roast turkey and cranberries that is so typically American. The main dish in this menu—

Chicken Souffle—might be a little less expensive to serve, with turkey usually so high priced around the holidays. Here is the menu:

Cream of Asparagus Soup
Hors d'Oeuvres
Chicken Souffle
Halibut Steak Saute
Hearts of Lettuce
Chocolate Charlotte
Cheese-Coffee
Chicken Souffle Recipe
For chicken souffle, you will need 1 1/2 cups of cold chicken, 1 cup cooked rice, 2 eggs. Add the chicken cut in small pieces to the rice while hot. Season with butter and salt and chicken gravy. Add well-beaten egg yolks, then stiffly beaten whites. Bake in glass dish until the top is nicely browned.

The fish course may have to be changed to whatever can be bought at the time. The salad course, too, should be left to the hostess' discretion.

Chocolate Charlotte made in a mold, then turned out and decorated with whipped cream, will look more like Christmas, with holly atop its mound, and a small Santa to guard it. This would be served on a puff paste in France—but it does very nicely without it.

Chocolate Charlotte
You make chocolate charlotte with whipped cream and gelatin. You will need 1 quart of heavy cream, sugar, 1 teaspoon of vanilla and 2 teaspoons of gelatin. Two squares of bitter chocolate will flavor this.

Whip the cream, sweeten and add the vanilla. Dissolve the gelatin with cold water, set in pan of hot water to melt. Add to this the melted squares of chocolate. Cool. Set the cream in a pan of ice water and stir in the gelatin gradually. When it begins to stiffen, pour in a mold. Use whipped cream and holly to garnish it when serving.

A Swedish Christmas menu is distinctly individual. It starts with a cold fruit soup—certainly that has a foreign sound, hasn't it? Here is a suggestion for a menu:

Ice Cold Fruit Soup, Croutons
Wienschnitzel—Mashed Potatoes
Carrot Pudding
Salad
Apple-Meringue
Coffee
Pepperkorn
It's a Swedish Cake
If the last "Pepperkorn" is not spelled right, any Swedish housewife will know what is meant—little cakes that are so important a feature of Swedish holiday celebrations.

Since space is limited, the recipes for the main dishes, only, will be given.

Cold Fruit Soup—3 pints of water, 2 cups of orange juice, 2 tablespoons potato starch, 1 cup sugar, 2 oranges. Bring the water and juice to a boil and add sugar to taste. Dissolve the starch in cold water and thicken the mixture. Let boil three minutes. Add the two oranges sliced thin, and let cool. Serve with whipped cream and croutons of fresh bread, fried golden brown in butter.

Wienschnitzel (Breaded veal patties)—Two pounds veal steak, 2 tablespoons salt, 2 cups water, 1 cup grated bread crumbs, 2 tablespoons of flour, 18 small boned anchovies, 1 lemon sliced, 2 tablespoons capers. Wipe the meat with a hot cloth. Cut into patties 3 inches square and pound. Mix the salt and water. Dip the meat in and dry on a towel. Roll in crumbs and fry in butter, both sides. Place the patties on a platter. Make a brown gravy by pouring boiling water into the frying pan. Pour the gravy over the patties. On each patty place slice of lemon, 2 halves of anchovy and add a few capers. Garnish the platter with mashed potatoes.

Carrot Pudding—Two small bunches of carrots, two eggs, 1 cup milk, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon grated fresh breadcrumbs, 2 tablespoons butter. Beat the eggs, add salt, milk, crumbs and carrots, partly cooked and grated, and melted butter. Butter a baking dish and line with crumbs. Place the mixture in this and put in a moderate oven. Cook until thoroughly set and crumbs are brown.

Apple Meringue—12 to 15 apples, 1 1/2 cups sugar, 1 1/2 tablespoons of butter, 3/4 lemon juice and rind, 2 egg whites, 5 tablespoons of sugar, 1/2 cup almonds. Pare apples, cut in eighths and remove cores. Place apples in pan over the fire, adding butter, sugar, lemon juice and rind.

Boil slowly until apples are soft. Beat egg whites stiff, adding sugar gradually. Butter the baking dish and place apples in it. Put egg whites on top. Beat almonds, cut in strips and attach in eggs. Bake in a moderate oven until nicely browned. Serve with cream.

Variety to the Menu
With these unusual and tempting dishes from other countries, you can vary the Christmas menu. With these suggestions and your own traditional cakes, candies and breads, if you have such, your family will call your name blessed. As for tradition, you can always start one—if for instance, you are a bride and beginning your career as a housewife. And there is a distinct advantage in starting a tradition—you can arrange it exactly as you please, while those that are handed down—well, they may not prove satisfactory.

Here with our very best wishes for your Christmas cookery!

Body Is Found In Ruins Of Stand

CINCINNATI, O., Dec. 12 (AP)—The body of a young man, burned beyond recognition, was found in the smoldering ruins of a barbecue stand near here last night.

Coroner Fred C. Swing saw a slaying in the mystery. The youth probably was killed, he said, before the slayer threw the body into the stand and set fire to it to cover up the crime.

Only by the youth's teeth, the coroner said, could he be identified. His clothes and body were so badly burned that police could find no clue to his identity from them.

Exercise Needed
The smaller the car the more a fat man has to fold himself up to get into it. And middle age has so many unyielding fat men.—Hous-ton Post-Dispatch.

DEATH BEATS CUPID

OXFORD, North Carolina, Dec. 12 (AP)—Arthur L. Cox and Alice Johnson, who were to have been married soon, will go to the church today—in a single casket.

They were returning from a neighborhood supper given for them when their automobile went off a bridge into deep water. Three others in the car were rescued but Cox and his fiancée were drowned.
