

OREGON ELEVEN LOOKING AHEAD

Five Conference Contests and Game With Pacific Already Lined Up

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Dec. 13—(Special)—Pacific university will open Oregon's 1929 football season. Jack W. Burdette, graduate manager, announced. Pacific will play here September 28. Although Oregon's conference schedule is complete, Burdette is negotiating with several eastern schools for a post-season inter-conference game next year.

The complete schedule to date follows:
Sept. 28—Pacific at Eugene.
Oct. 5—Stanford at Palo Alto.
Oct. 12—Idaho at Eugene.
Oct. 19—Washington at Seattle.
Nov. 2—U. C. L. A. at Eugene.
Nov. 16—Oregon State at Eugene.

Captain John J. McKeown, head football coach, expressed himself as pleased with the 1928 schedule as arranged last week by the graduate managers at their meeting in Los Angeles. Four of the five teams Oregon meets next year it played this season and defeated all except Stanford. Idaho revises California in the 1929 schedule and unless the Vandals improve considerably they should not be a tough foe. The other conference teams on Oregon's schedule are Washington, Idaho and Oregon State.

Admittedly, Oregon's toughest game will be against Stanford, McKeown said. If Oregon can defeat the cards, it should breeze through the remainder of the schedule as the Webfoots will lose by graduation twice more than any other northern eleven. This year Oregon defeated Washington, 27 to 0, Oregon State, 12 to 0, and U. C. L. A., 26 to 6. With a stronger team in 1929, Oregon stands a good chance of again winning from the Huskies, the Argies and the Uclas, and unless the dope bucket is completely upset, Stanford will be the team to beat for the conference title.

Larry French Is Sold to Pirates

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 12—(AP)—The Pittsburgh National league baseball club has obtained Lawrence French, left-handed pitcher, from the Portland club of the Pacific coast league, according to Sam Dreyfus, Pirate treasurer. In exchange for French, the Pirates gave Portland infielder Mack Hill, of the South Atlantic league, a pitcher to be delivered later, and cash, the amount of which was not announced.

HOCKEY PLAYERS ILL

If bullets are slow in starting to lay a light trail of blood, much given daily will be helpful, especially if this is mixed with milk.

Restoration Of Tiger - Harvard Contests Urged

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 13—(AP)—James Barrett, captain of next year's Harvard football eleven, favors restoration of relations with Princeton. He writes in the Yale Daily News that next to the Yale game the Princeton contest created the greatest enthusiasm at Harvard and the undergraduates would like to see the Tigers back on the schedule.

"I expect Yale to come through in fine shape next year," he says. Harvard is satisfied with the work of Coach Arnold Horween, in Barrett's opinion, despite numerous "unjust" criticisms against him by the alumni and the public.

Mat Season Is Opened; Meyers Pins Kauffman

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 12—(AP)—The wrestling season opened here last night when Bob Meyers, Tillamook, defeated Gene Kauffman, Columbus, Ohio, in two out of three falls. Kauffman took the first fall in six minutes, 32 seconds with a reverse leg-hold Nelson catch hold. Meyers won the second in 29 minutes 18 seconds with an airplane spin and the final fall in fourteen seconds with another spin. Kauffman was so shaken up after the first aerial ride the final fall was a mere matter of routine. Kauffman weighed 174 and Meyers 172 pounds.

Walter Johnson and Frenchy Leavitt went 30 minutes to a draw in the preliminary.

There's Something In A Name, It Seems

CHICAGO, Dec. 12—(AP)—Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier were divorced yesterday because, their wives testified, they had the pugnaeous propensities of their more famous namesakes. It was a right to her jaw, Mrs. Anna Dempsey told Judge Klarowski, that caused her to sue her husband.

Deplores Frequent Grid Substitutions

NEW YORK, Dec. 12—(AP)—The alumni weekly of New York University says that frequent substitutions have reduced football from a contest between two representative eleven to a test as to which of two institutions can produce the strongest aggregation of players. Many substitutions are made for tactical, not physical, reasons and are unnecessary.

N. Y. U. used 154 players in nine games while its opponents used 148, an average of over 29 to the game for N. Y. U. and under 17 for the opposing teams. Only 29 New York players and 31 opponents played through a full game.

KEN STRONG WEDS BEFORE COMING WEST

NEW YORK, Dec. 12—(AP)—Ken Strong, New York University football star, and his bride, Anna Hummel, an actress, are taking a whole football team along on their honeymoon.

They were married at the Little Church Around the Corner a few hours before Strong was scheduled to leave for Pittsburgh to join other members of the all-Eastern football team which is to play an all-star aggregation of western college players at San Francisco, Dec. 29.

They announced their engagement a week ago but said at that time they would be married in June, after Ken had been graduated. Their marriage yesterday was a surprise even to members of their immediate families.

HE SPENT HIS WEEKENDS IN RECOVERING

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 12—(AP)—Al Lassman, New York University football captain who has been in a hospital here since the Carnegie Tech game of November 17 with a head injury, seems to be suffering from a case of "repeated bumps." He is improving daily.

"We have just learned," said his doctor today, "that Lassman spent almost every weekend in a hospital recovering from head and neck injuries incurred in football. His present case seems to be an accumulation of these repeated bumps."

The statement added that he had suffered an impairment of functioning on his left side, but at no time could it be considered as paralytic.

"His condition is improving daily and he now has absolute use of his left side and arm," said the statement.

Lassman is entirely conscious, but, the doctor said, "as in all concussion cases, his memory as to the actual happenings is faulty. He doesn't recall the game, which, to us, is perfectly natural."

NIGHT FIGHTS

By The Associated Press
Akron, O.—Elliott Hanco, Ellwood City, Pa., outpointed Frank Wins, Mooresville, N. C.
Fort Wayne, Ind.—Ted Miravida, Grand Rapids, Mich., won on foul from Mike O'Dowd, Columbus, Ohio (11). Frankie Jarr, Port Wayne, knocked out Eddie Armstrong, Cincinnati (3).
San Francisco—Jack Malone, St. Paul, won on foul from Jack Gillis, Los Angeles (15).

Uprooting Faults

You will find it less easy to uproot faults than to uproot virtues. Do not think of your faults; still less of other's faults. In every person who comes near you look for what is good and strong; look for that to imitate it; and as you can try to imitate it, and your faults will creep off like dead leaves when their time comes.—John Ruskin.

Tex Spins One About Old Days In The Argentine

NEW YORK, Dec. 12—(AP)—Tex Rickard made known today that in 1913 he had a chance to become the biggest fight in his career—a war between Bolivia and Paraguay.

Rickard spent eight years in Paraguay, going there in 1912 with twenty Texan cowboys sent by the Paraguayan syndicate engaged in the cattle industry and development of the country's resources.

"In 1912," said Rickard, "I came through the Argentine with twenty cowboys, 50,000 head of cattle and a train of about fifty wagons, with the idea of crossing into Paraguay across the Pilcomayo river, the boundary between Paraguay and the Argentine.

"Well, as soon as we got into Paraguay we found a lot of hot spots, all filled with Bolivians. All these Bolivians—soldiers they were—said that if we didn't turn back they'd shoot us.

"Well, we thought we'd better go around, so we came out again and went south through the Argentine in Assunition and into Paraguay across the eastern boundary, the Paraguay river. When we got there we told them how there were a lot of Bolivians sitting in forts in the middle of Paraguay, and that we'd come to a bit. It was the first they'd heard of it, I guess.

"Anyway, they all came around to see, the president, the cabinet and every one, and they told me that if I'd go out and fight the Bolivians they'd give me all the money I wanted and more. They'd give me an army, in fact.

So He Missed His Chance

"Well, I didn't like to get without instructions, so I went to my people in Buenos Aires and they called to Mr. Paraguaray in Paris. He didn't want a war, though, he had too many big interests, he had too much at stake. And so I missed my chance to lead an army."

The promoter of pugilistic fights said he still owns 500 square miles of land in the Gran Chaco, the disputed territory. He said he had granted grazing privileges to a group of Americans and that the land might come in useful some day.

Godfrey Wins In Second With K. O.

PREMONT, O., Dec. 12—(AP)—A fight to the chin just as the second round opened near "The Jim" Stigman, Bartlettton, heavyweight. Through the ropes and into George Godfrey, married to Mrs. G. G. Godfrey, Pa., a housewife here last night. Stigman was unconscious for five minutes.
