H. E. Dixon Hostess to Alpha Club Thursday

H. E. Dixon was hostess to the Alpha club yesterday afternoon at her home at second street.

The game was played during the afternoon with club prizes going to Charles W. Bingham and guest Mrs. H. E. Westmeyer.

Three tables of bridge were set up in the afternoon. On each of the tables there was a vase containing roses and bouquets of red and white.

Ed Boyten entertained the members of the Jolly Bridge club at home at 1503 Oak street yesterday afternoon. A color of red and white was used.

Polonaises were attractive additions to the decorations.

Three tables of bridge were at play with first prize for high score going to Mrs. L. H. Bramwell and second to Mrs. William Wilson. Mrs. T. H. Maxwell received guest prize.

Mrs. Boyten served a two-course luncheon.

Mrs. Ed Boyten was hostess to a group of friends last night at her home at a delightful card party. Three tables of bridge were at play with first prize for high score going to Mrs. Perry Caldwell and second to Mrs. Gilbert Barron.

A two-course luncheon was served at the end of the card playing.

The Hon Ten club met at the home of Mrs. Haskell Andrews for an afternoon party Monday. Eight members were in attendance. The

M. E. Missionary Society Meets

Mrs. A. W. Leffel was hostess to members of the Women's Pivotal Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church Wednesday afternoon.

The meeting was opened by Mrs. H. W. Leighton, president. Mrs. Leighton read a Christmas story and a paper to the members of the society.

Mrs. H. P. Tyler had charge of the lesson which was said to be most interesting and beneficial.

At the meeting of the Stitch and Chatter club held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. N. Palmer at 703 Adams avenue, the women completed seven pairs of pajamas to be sent to Portland for welfare work for children of World War veterans. Thirty pairs of pillow cases were finished. They will go to government hospital No. 77 at Portland.

The first regular business meeting of the Associated Girl Students of La Grande High school was held yesterday in the L. D. S. Recreational hall.

After the regular business session, Miss Eleanor Glass, girls' athletic coach, explained the new Oregon Girls' Merit system in athletics.

Announcement of the annual Christmas party given by the association was made. The party will be held Wednesday, Dec. 19, in the afternoon at the recreational hall.

The Good Times Dancing club held an enjoyable party last night at the La Grande hotel. Music was furnished by the Star Novelty orchestra.

The hostesses were: Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. Dehl, Mr. and Mrs. Knight, The Rev. and Mrs. Oliver Riley and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McEachran.

The M. R. H. club met yesterday at the home of Mrs. Jack McGowan. Three tables of cards were at play. Mrs. Boyd Pillock received first prize for high score and Mrs. Ed Coughenower received second. Mrs. Dwyer Charlton was awarded guest prize.

A two-course luncheon was served. Cyclamen flowers made attractive decorations.

The 37th birthday of the Grand Army in La Grande is to be celebrated tomorrow when the Women's Relief Corps meets at the Knights of Pythias hall. A luncheon will be held at noon and will be followed by a meeting in the afternoon.

The committee in charge includes: Lorena Smith, Nellie Smith, Alice Turner, Mary Andrews Taylor, Hattie Talbot, Susan Williamson, Rose Wright and Elsie Wilcock.

MENUS

By Sister Mary.
BREAKFAST—Stewed prunes, cereal, cream, baked French toast, marmalade, milk, coffee.
LUNCHEON—Tomato toast, romaine and cottage cheese salad, baked custard, crisp cookies, milk, tea.
DINNER—Beef loaf with baked bananas, twice baked sweet potatoes, creamed cauliflower, shredded celery, carrot and pepper salad, pineapple cottage pudding, milk, coffee.
 Sweet potatoes are "something else again" when they are twice baked. Scrub and bake as usual.

Cut in halves lengthwise and scoop out pulp. Mash and season with plenty of butter, salt and pepper. Beil shells and bake in a moderate oven until tops are brown.

Beef Loaf with Baked Bananas
 One pound round steak, 2 large bananas, 1 egg, 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 1 cup stale bread crumbs, ¼ cup milk, 1 tablespoon minced parsley, juice 1 lemon.

Put meat through food chopper, season with salt and pepper and mix thoroughly with crumbs. Add egg well beaten with milk and mix. Shape into a loaf and place in a roaster. Bake in a hot oven for one hour. When loaf is nearly done peel bananas and scrape with blunt edge of knife. Cut in halves crosswise and then lengthwise. Dip in melted butter and arrange around loaf in pan. Sprinkle with salt, pepper and lemon juice and bake until a delicate brown. Place loaf on hot platter and surround
