Where Is She?

On October 7, Mrs. Henrietta Rogers, young widow, returned to her apartment in Louisville, Ky., after a trip to Chicago and the east. A young man who called on her that night said that as he was leaving her apartment the lights went out and he volunteered to go to the basement to see what was wrong. Mrs. Rogers said it wasn't necessary, so he departed, he said. That was the last seen of Mrs. Rogers. Police in many cities are still seeking her.

QUILTED SILK BAGS

PARIS (AP)—Quilted handbags with amber and tortoise shell mountings are new. They indicate that accessory manufacturers expect soft fall and silk rep to be important materials of the near future. Most of the quilted silk bags are in dark colors.

DIVA HAS INFLUENZA

CHICAGO, Dec. 15—(AP)—Mrs. Ganna Walska (Mrs. Harold F. McCormick) has been stricken with influenza, and though it is only a mild attack, she has found it necessary to cancel her concert scheduled for Orchestra hall this afternoon.

MORE DRIVERS ARRESTED

PORTLAND, Dec. 15—(AP)—Names of 171 more motorists were on the police docket today as a result of arrests in the police war on traffic law violators. The total for the week up to last night was 1,264, and fines aggregating more than $2,500 had been imposed. Today's ground in the police court added to this amount.

ALICEL WOMEN ARE FILLING XMAS BOXES

By Mrs. Carl Fuller (Observer Correspondent)

ALICEL (Special)—The Ladies Aid met Thursday for an all-day work meeting at the hall in Alicel. Eighteen members were present and had out two comforters and quilted one quilt. These comforters, each with a box of groceries, will be given to two poor families for Christmas. Two committees were appointed to solicit the different aid members and collect the fruit, meat, or vegetables or whatever is given. Mrs. Clara Moss, Mrs. Carl Fuller and Mrs. Herbert Speckhart for the committee north of the Lower Cove road, and Mrs. L. A. Howell, Mrs. Ray Fuller and Mrs. Ralph Chenault will act on the committee for the section south of the market road.

SUSPECT CAPTURED

VALLEJO, Cal., Dec. 15—(AP)—Word was received by the sheriff here that Choy Kim, alias Ah Choy, wanted since October, 1917, on a charge of murdering Mrs. Margaret Shelly, 38, near Fairfield, had been captured in China. Officials said they expected difficulty in extraditing the Chinese.

ACTION URGED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15—(AP)—Representatives Burtness and Hall, of North Dakota, urged President Coolidge today to take speedy action to raise the tariff on flaxseed, if the forthcoming report of the tariff commission is favorable. Hearings were concluded by the commission last week but no report has been made.

ACTRESS INJURED

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Dec. 15—(AP)—Pauline Glavin, motion picture actress, suffered concussion of the brain and severe bruises when her automobile collided with one driven by Dr. L. J. Price. She was taken to a hospital.
