PONDOSA, Ore., (Special)—The officers of the Primary association have a program and bazaar in the school house Friday night. All the home made candy and fancy work put on sale was disposed of, and about $25.00 was cleared. Mrs. Frank Larsen is president of the association.

The members of the Medical Springs women's club gave a show, complimenting Mrs. M. G. Murray at the home of Mrs. Henry Maxfield Monday afternoon. Many pretty and useful gifts were received by the honor guest, Mrs. F. F. Robertson, of La Grande, mother of Mrs. Murray, came for the occasion and returned Tuesday to her home.

Mrs. T. E. Kennedy returned from La Grande Saturday where she had spent a week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Leonard Hoffman and family, who have been ill.

School attendance has been cut 50 per cent this last week owing to so many children being ill with severe colds and influenza.

Five couples drove to Baker Sunday and spent the evening with Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Bloom. The Blooms made their home here a number of years, Mr. Bloom having been local forest ranger. Those who made the trip were, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whitton, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Maxfield, and Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Raymond.

Midcoast-Jacksonville, etc.—E. G. G. The car belonging to Frank Larsen overturned three miles out on the Baker road Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Larsen and their son were also in the car but fortunately no one was injured. The only damage to the car was a broken windshield. Snow and ice on the road is believed to have been responsible for the accident.

M. F. Raymond returned from the hospital in Baker Thursday where he has been taking treatment for flu for several days. Mr. Raymond is an engineer on the B. and T. railroad and during his absence Ed Tidwell, of Austin, ran the engine.

R. W. Van Fleet, principal of the school and his daughter, Miss Virginia, left for their home at Albany Friday afternoon. Miss Maxine Duncan accompanied them and will be their guest for the holidays.

Miss Marie Cologne also left Friday for her home at Eugene. Both rooms at the school have Christmas trees and the teachers and pupils exchanged gifts yesterday afternoon. School will reopen January 2.
