HY-PEP-SEN

A Laxative Tonic and System Cleaner

There are two processes continually taking place in your body. One is the building up of your Bone, Blood Nerve and Tissue. The other is the carrying off of waste matter and impurities. If your digestive organs fail to do their duty, portions of this waste matter remain in the stomach and intestines where they ferment, spoil and decay, causing Indigestion, Sour Stomach, Dyspepsia, Kidney Trouble, etc.

HY-PEP-SEN is recommended to restore the Stomach, Liver and Bowels to their natural functions, thus correcting the causes of many ailments.

OREGON DEFEATS HONOLULU, 13-?

U. of O. And Town Team Play Xmas Day Game in Wind, Rain Storm

HONOLULU, Dec. 26 (AP)—Oregon University's varsity football team won a 13 to 2 victory over the Honolulu town team here Christmas day in a game featured by a wind and rain storm, making it necessary to hold the ball down during the huddles to prevent its being blown away. The Oregonians were too fast for the Honolulu squad and prevented them from scoring a touchdown, despite the fact the ball was in Oregon territory a good share of the time. Johnny Kitzmiller, Oregon's "flying Dutchman" attempted a field goal in the first quarter only to have the wind halt the ball before it reached the goal posts. During the second period Gould went over for Oregon's first touchdown. The try for extra point failed. In the final period Burnell went over for Oregon's second touchdown. The try for extra point was successful when a short pass, Kitzmiller to Robinson was completed over the goal line. The town's team only scoring came in this period when one of Kitzmiller's punts was blocked and the Islanders' scored a safety for two points. About 4000 braved the elements to witness the game. The lineup and summary:

Score by periods:

Oregon (13)	PO (2)	Town Team
Pope	LE	Harrigon
Colbert	LT	Clark
Hagen	LG	McCrae
Stadelman	C	Spencer
Shields	RG	Shaw
Christensen	RT	Kam
Archer	RE	Thatcher
Robinson	QB	Borges
Burnell	LH	Oana
Kitzmiller	RH	Rhisell
Gould	FB	Char

Oregon	0	6	0	7	—13
Town Team	0	0	0	2	— 2

Oregon scoring: touchdowns: Gould, Burnell; try for point after touchdown: Robinson (on a pass from Kitzmiller.)

Son's Death Brings A Reconciliation

NEW YORK, Dec. 23 (AP)—The death of Irving Berlin Jr., 24-day-old son of the song writer, was thought today to have cemented a reconciliation between the child's parents and grandfather, Clarence Mackay, president of the Postal Telegraph company.

Mr. Mackay, who was estranged from his daughter by her marriage to Berlin, in January, 1926, was among the first to call at the bereaved home yesterday to offer condolences after the death of the infant as the result of a heart attack.

The death at 5 p. m. was sudden. Earlier in the day Irving Jr., had shown no signs of illness. He and his little sister had a Christmas tree.

Georgia Tech, Dixie's Best, Gets Ready For California

Here's a challenge to Pacific Coast football that cannot be disregarded. It comes from Georgia Tech, Southern Conference champions, which meets California in the annual Rose Bowl game, January 1. Above are some of Tech's big stars.

By Alan J. Gould
(Associated Press Sports Editor)

NEW YORK (AP)—The Tornado sweeps on toward the Far West this year for post-season gridiron conflict where the Crimson Tide left off.

The South has been producing more than an ordinary share of great football teams in the past few seasons, but not even the Tide of Alabama swept westward to Pasadena in quest of intersectional honors with any greater power at its disposal than the Tornado of Georgia Tech, headed for the New Year's Day game with California in the Tournament Rose Bowl at Pasadena.

Football is prone to the superlative. Current accomplishments are apt to overshadow past achievements, whether justly or not, but Dixie rates this Georgia Tech array which swept through to the Southern Conference title as the strongest it has ever had. Consequently high hopes are being erected that the Tornado will sweep to victory over the Golden Bears.

A Great Line

Tech will go West with a great line and a set of unusually hard-hitting backs. It is difficult to pick the stars out of the forward wall, but Captain Peter Pund at center, Frank Speer at tackle and Drennon at guard have perhaps been mentioned oftener than any of the rest in discussion of All-Southern of All-American selections.

Behind the Tech line there is Warner Mizell, one of the outstanding triple threat backs of the year, as well as the hard-running Stumpy Thomason, redoubtable "Father" Lumpkin, Randolph and Durant, quarterback and a star at the passing game. Thomason and Lumpkin possess unusual defensive ability in addition to value in advancing the pigskin.

California's record is not as spotless as Tech's but the argument is put forth that the Bears have been running up against stiffer competition in a year that has lifted Pacific Coast prowess to a high level. Their only defeat was at the hands of the Olympic Club of San Francisco, but they played ties with their foremost two rivals, Stanford and Southern California.

The Bears have a stalwart line to match Tech's with two of the coast's outstanding performers in Captain Irvine Phillips, the javelin tosser, at end, and Steve Bancroft at tackle. Benny Lom's punting has been a big factor for the Bears all season and he may have the edge on Mizell in this respect.

It is noteworthy that California and the South, represented heretofore only by Alabama, have exactly the same record of performance in the New Year's Day gridiron classic. Each scored one victory and figured in a tie. California beat Ohio State in 1921 and was tied by Washington & Jefferson in 1922. Alabama defeated Washington in 1926 and came back the next year to tie Stanford.

Coast Has Won Five

Here is the record of the Rose Bowl encounters since 1902.

1902—Michigan 49, Stanford 0.
1916—Wash. State 14, Brown 0.
1917—Oregon 14, Pennsylvania 0.
1920—Harvard 7, Oregon 6.
1921—California 28, Ohio State 0.
1922—California 0, Washington & Jefferson 0.
1923—So. California 14, Penn State 3.
1924—Naval Academy 14, Wash. 14.
1925—Notre Dame 27, Stanford 10.
1926—Alabama 20, Washington 19.
1927—Alabama 7, Stanford 7.
1928—Stanford 7, Pittsburg 6.

California Uses Lom On Lateral Pass Maneuvers

PASADENA Cal. Dec. 22 (AP)—Christmas day for most of the world—just another day of toil for Georgia Tech's Yellow Jackets and Berkeley's Golden Bears.

With a hardly perceptible let-up over the holiday, the rival gridiron teams, scheduled to settle the west-south football supremacy question at the Rose Bowl on New Year's day, plunged today with added vim into preparation for the classic.

Both teams worked out yesterday behind the usual bolted gates. Charging and tackle practice was in order for both aggregations. California also got in a kicking drill.

Reports from the Bear workouts have it that Coach "Nibs" Price is using Benny Lom on single and double lateral pass plays behind the line of scrimmage. Many of these, the reports have leaked out, have ended up with Benny skirting the wings for long gains. The California mentor is reported also to have been making a success of delayed tucks inside of tackle. The wise-acres have "sloped" it that Price may be intending to concentrate on the two Georgia Tech guards, who are not quite as hefty as the California men in these positions.

Paulino Given Decision Over Renault In S. A.

CALI, Colombia, Dec. 26 (AP)—Paulino Uzcudun of Spain, the favorite heavyweight of all Spanish-speaking people, has earned himself a place in the hearts of South American ring fans. In a ten-round battle, hailed as the greatest fight ever held in Latin-America, Paulino decisively outpointed Jack Renault, of Canada, here yesterday to get a well earned decision.

Pounding at Renault's body with a steady fire of short jabs, the Basque wore his opponent down in the early rounds and had him battling to prevent a knockout in the final frame. In the eighth round and again in the tenth Paulino appeared on the verge of a knockout victory but the Canadian managed to weather the attack.

Renault fought a defensive battle all the way and gained the approval of the ringsiders by his success in blocking Paulino's fierce left hooks. In the fifth and sixth rounds he staged short rallies, carrying the fight to his opponent for short periods to earn draws for the two frames. One hard blow drew blood from the Spaniard's nose in the fifth round and showed his attack temporarily. Another brief rally came in the ninth round.

A crowd of more than 20,000 hailed the decision.

FOOTBALL RELAY RACE

NEW YORK, Dec. 26 (AP)—A novel relay race will keep some speedy football players in training until Feb. 11 when Manhattan college holds its annual indoor track meet. A race is planned for football players, who will use a football instead of the regulation relay baton. Entries will be limited to teams made of letter men from college football teams.

The race will be run in shuttle fashion, four 100 yard laps across the armory.

POPE PIUS CELEBRATES

ROME, Dec. (AP)—Pope Pius celebrated a Christmas midnight mass in his own private chapel at the Vatican in the presence of his relatives and a few intimate friends.

Suggestions for late 1928 slogan: "Get Hoover out of the trenches by Christmas."

Dead Foul Shot

As soon as he had turned in his football togs, Francis Wilcox, substitute tackle of the Iowa varsity eleven, reported to his basketball squad. Wilcox, shown above, is the regular center and captain of the team. He stands 6 feet 2 inches. He established a free throw record last season by netting 35 goals in 46 attempts.

WEISSMULLER WILL GIVE UP AMATEUR GAME

CHICAGO, Dec. 26 (AP)—Johnny Weissmuller, one of the world's greatest swimmers, will sing his swan song to amateurism on January 3 to dive into the more prosaic business of earning a living.

Weissmuller, in a letter to W. G. Uffendell, chairman of th athletic committee of the Illinois Athletic club, explained that he "must look into the future and try to earn some money, something an athlete in training finds hard to do."

Weissmuller did not state in his letter what he intends to do to earn money, but friends are reported as saying that stage appearances are included in the program.

The swimmer's final appearance as an amateur will be made January 3 at the Cook county interscholastic swimming championships at the Y. M. C. A. when he pulls himself out of the water the last time that night, he will hold nearly every free style world's record in pools from 50 to 880 yards, indoors and outdoors.

Weissmuller was given his first tryout by the Y. M. C. A. in 1920 by Coach William Bachrach. In his first race, he broke a world's record. He later swam 100 yards in a 60-foot pool in 49 4-5 the greatest feat of his brilliant career. He was on the American swimming team at the 1924 and 1928 Olympic games.

Don't Let That Cold Turn Into "Flu"

That cold may turn into "Flu," Grippe or, even worse, Pneumonia, unless you take care of it at once.

Rub Musterole on the congested parts and see how quickly it brings relief as effectively as the messy old mustard plaster.

Musterole made from pure oil of mustard, camphor, menthol and other simple ingredients, is a counter-irritant which stimulates circulation and helps break up the cold.

You will feel a warm tingle as it enters the pores, then a cooling sensation that brings welcome relief.
