CATERPILLAR

WHY "CATERPILLARS" WIN BIG YIELDS

Look at the long, wide "Caterpillar" tracks! There is the secret of earlier, better plowing—of wood-free seed beds—of unpacked ground—of dependable traction to conquer the hazards of soil and weather. Picture a plow as long and as wide as the "Caterpillar" track. Think of the weight it can bear on soft plowed ground without sinking! The pressure per square inch of a horse's hoof is 30 pounds; of a man's foot, 10 pounds. . . of a "Caterpillar" track it is less than 6 pounds. The tractor itself—riding on top—asks for but little power. Never mind ruts or gullies or little ditches—ride over them! This sure traction plows earlier and swifter—travels the soft seed bed to kill weeds—wins extra bushels at harvesting time.
