

Holiday Season Program Given At Lower Cove

By Mrs. Nell Kight
(Observer Correspondent)

LOWER COVE, Ore., (Special)—Miss Ida Roberts and pupils of Freest school gave a program and Christmas tree at the school on Monday afternoon. Songs and recitations and dialogues, "The Character Dollie" and "By Which Heir?" were enjoyed by all. This was followed by a visit from Santa and trays of candy, nuts and popcorn balls. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Daron, of Quincy, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. N. Daron, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Daron, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. W. Cookbank, Mr. and Mrs. Nell Kight, Mrs. Mary Chambers, Marie and Betty Kight, Betty Evered and Della Morris.

Mrs. Harlan Koger is suffering from flu this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Daron, of Quincy, Ore., are visiting at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Daron.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Johnson are visiting at the home of their brother, T. H. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Johnson, Walter and Charles Johnson, Mrs. Sarah Thompson and Mrs. Pearl Kight, spent Christmas day with L.

V. Johnson and family, of La Grande.

L. J. Chadwick and family and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gassett were guests at the Nell Kight home for Christmas dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. George Baker entertained R. J. Baker and family, Ray Hartley and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker on Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker, of Hermiston, returned to their home on Wednesday morning.

F. T. Bossell has moved his estate to a good yard near Union.

The wind on Christmas eve did considerable damage to haystacks, fences, chicken houses, etc., even uprooting large trees.

Blind Boy Makes Gift for Hoover

NBA San Francisco Bureau
Herbert Hoover, president-elect, is going to have a blue and gold necktie. It is being made to order for him, but the maker will never see the tie. Kingsley Price, 11, an inmate of the California School for the Blind, started the tie on a (fay hand loom as he lay very sick in the institution's hospital. Enthusiasm over the tie hastened his convalescence.

Grever Whalen, New York's official welcomer, is said to be slated for the job of police commissioner. The theory may be that the killer of Arnold Rothstein is waiting to be sure he'll be cordially received before he surrenders.

When West Beat the East

NBA Los Angeles Bureau

West beat East when pretty 13-year-old Loretta Turnbull, of Los Angeles, defeated Helen Henschel of New York City, for the feminine motorboat title during the mid-winter National Outboard championships at Lake Elkhorn, near Los Angeles. Miss Henschel, the loser, was also international girls' champion, having won the title in Germany last winter. Above, Miss Henschel (on left) is congratulating Miss Turnbull. Below is Miss Turnbull in her winning outboard-craft "Saphire 212."
