

More Farm Circulation In Union County

*--Than Any Two Other Papers
Combined*

From Muddy Creek neighborhood to Palmer Junction---from Starkey to Medical Springs and Pondosa---

Out in the heart of the valley--or up on the high meadow of the surrounding hills---

Wherever you find a Union county farmer and stockman, you find an Observer acquaintance---always an occasional reader---generally a constant subscriber.

Better news service of the Valley, of Eastern Oregon, the state and nation --- quicker news service---

That's the reason why The Observer has more paid circulation in the farming districts as well as in the towns than ANY TWO OTHER PAPERS COMBINED.

Outside papers coming into the La Grande territory or county papers --- The Observer's farm circulation is greater than any two combined.

If you aren't a regular Observer reader, you're missing the best, quickest, most varied farm news service to be had in this territory. A six-months subscription is $2.50, strictly in advance, by mail.

LA GRANDE EVENING OBSERVER

More Local and Valley News Than All Other County Papers Combined
