Dr. McAdory Returns— From warm, sunny days "down south" in Alabama, to the cold, snowy weather of Eastern Oregon, Dr. W. P. McAdory, La Grande physician, returned last night. He spent the Christmas holidays with his mother, Mrs. I. W. McAdory, in Birmingham, and for the first time in 20 years the McAdory family, including Mrs. McAdory and three sons and two daughters, were together for the Yuletide season, Dr. McAdory said. His brother, Dr. I. S. McAdory, is a professor of veterinary surgery at the Alabama Agricultural and Mechanical Arts college. Dr. McAdory is principal of a high school. Mrs. Caldwell, a sister, lives in Bristol, Tenn., and another sister, Miss Margaret McAdory attends Columbia university. Dr. McAdory had not been in Alabama for a year and a half, and his trip this year took him through the states which last year were inundated by floods. The marks of the water on the trees are still in evidence in the flood states, he says.
Salvation Army Ends Year's Work— The work of the Salvation Army has ended for the year 1928. The last spurge of activity included that which centered around the Christmas season. During that time 21 families were given bountiful Christmas dinners with enough food to last for more than one meal, reports Captain Pack, of La Grande. Fourteen families were given fuel. Altogether 144 persons were helped.
A total of 164 presents were given to children, Capt. Pack says, and 233 children attended the Christmas tree program.
"I wish to thank all of the La Grande people who donated money and gifts to help with the Christmas work," says Capt. Pack.
