Bigamy? Never Heard of It

NEA Denver Bureau

"I didn't think it was wrong to marry two men—and I'm so sorry," Mrs. Margaret Arthur, 17-year-old mother, told Denver juvenile court authorities, who are assisting her in annulment proceedings against Kimer Arthur, whom she married just recently. Alex J. Evans, first husband and father of their 13-months-old daughter, tried to kidnap his wife from her second husband, authorities say, and started the investigation.

NORTH POWDER PERSONALS

By Mrs. Ethel Forsstrom
(Observer Correspondent)

NORTH POWDER, Ore., (Special)—Lottie Knapp, of La Grande, spent New Year's day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Olson.

Mr. Ryder, of Baker, called on friends here Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Moore transacted business in Baker Wednesday.

Winton Hudleson returned from Salem after spending the holiday with relatives.

Ray Hobbs was a La Grande visitor Thursday taking the morning stage and returning the same afternoon.

Mrs. Mercer was stricken with a heart attack Thursday morning. She is reported to be resting easily at present.

Alma Peters took Harold Craig to Hot Lake for medical treatment. He has been suffering from rheumatism for some time.

J. A. Savage's sedan was badly wrecked last week when his son was driving it and hit the Speelman car this side of Haines. The Savage car was the more severely damaged.

A western judge has ruled that a pedestrian has the right of way at street corners. It still isn't a bad idea to look each way, though, before crossing.

MENUS

By Sister Mary

BREAKFAST — Orange juice, cereal, cream, poached eggs on graham toast, extra toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON — Cream of oyster soup, toasted crackers, cabbage, celery, carrot and green pepper salad, nut bread sandwiches, re-heated carrot pudding with lemon sauce, milk, tea.

DINNER—Fresh pork shoulder stuffed and roasted, scalloped potatoes, piquant winter beets, fruit salad, squash pie, milk, coffee.

If whipped cream is served on a cream soup, don't forget to add a little salt to the cream while whipping. A dash of paprika or light sprinking of finely minced parsley make attractive garnishings over the top of cream.

Piquant Winter Beets

Four or five smooth medium-sized beets, 2 tablespoons melted butter, 2 teaspoons sugar, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon vinegar or lemon juice, 1 tablespoon grated onion or horseradish, few grains nutmeg.

Cook beets in boiling water until tender. Drain, plunge into cold water and slip off skins. Chop quite finely. Melt butter and stir in remaining ingredients. Add chopped beets, stir and cook for five minutes. Turn into a hot serving dish and serve at once.

Allow plenty of time for cooking winter beets. Two hours at least will be needed.

Union Girls In Competition With College Sextet

By W. V. Connor
(Observer Correspondent)

UNION (Special)—The Union High school girls basketball season opens this week when the sextet from Links Business college will be here from Boise, Idaho, to oppose them. Vivian Smith, senior in the high school, will be a forward on the local team, while her sister, Marie, will hold a similar position with the college players. Marie Smith formerly played as running center when she was a student in the Union High school.

A New Year watch party was held at the home of Miss Ruth Connor Monday evening, following a visit to the movies by the young folk who made up the party. The evening was spent in playing pinochle and Lindy. Shortly before midnight the hostess, assisted by Miss Dorris Sturgill, served light refreshments. A trip to the South school to ring the bell at midnight finished the evening's program. Those present besides the hostess were: Misses Dorris and Wanita Sturgill, La Verne Clark, Kathryn Kielblock and Charlotte Swift, Ralph Connor, Leonard Clark and David Tripp. Miss Swift, who is a cousin of the Misses Sturgill, has been existing with the latter during the Christmas holidays. Her home is in Baker.

Captain Adrian Goodbred of Headquarters company, O. N. G., issued a call for the guardsmen to report for mess at Shanks restaurant at seven o'clock Tuesday evening. Needless to say, there were very few members who disregarded the officer's command. After enjoying a chicken dinner and the customary adornments the men were guests at a theater party which ended the evening's program.

Supt. Roy Conklin of the Union public schools, was in Portland during most of the two weeks Christmas vacation. He went as a delegate from Union county to the Oregon State Teachers association. He left for the western part of the state on Wednesday, Dec. 26, and arrived home on New Years day.

Miss Josephine Bliss left early this week for Monmouth where she will attend the normal for the second winter term, then return home and finish her work when the Eastern Oregon school opens in the spring. Miss Bliss will graduate from the normal this summer.

A meeting of the Union Sportsmen club has been called for Friday Jan. 4, at seven o'clock. The members will bring refreshments which will probably be served before the business meeting is called. The purpose of the coming meeting is for the discussion of new game legislation by the state legislature and probably to adopt a few resolutions to send to the lawmakers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Stevens entertained the T. B. club Wednesday evening. Enough members were present for four tables of bridge. Mrs. Walter Cook and J. F. Hutchieson won high honors while Mrs. George Wjaship received the consolation honors. The hostess served a two-course luncheon to her guests.

Possibilities

Every human soul has possibilities of greatness. There is a certain creative force in every man and woman. It comes from the great source of power by which the universe and all the universes were created. The tragedy is the neglect of the cultivation of these seeds of greatness.—Grove Patterson, in the Mobile Register.
