Annual Church Meetings to Be Weekend Events

Christians and Episcopalians to Elect Officers; Two Pastors Return to Pulpits Here

Two annual church meetings and a sacred concert are three of the outstanding events on the weekend church program in La Grande. The concert, to be given at the Presbyterian church, is told of elsewhere on this page.

On Monday evening the annual parish meeting of St. Peter's Episcopal church will be held at 7:30 o'clock in the church with financial reports, election of officers and other business scheduled.

The Central Church of Christ will hold its annual meeting tomorrow, with sessions all day. Morning worship will begin at 11 a. m. with the Rev. R. L. Putnam delivering his annual message. The subject is "Pressing On." A basket dinner will be served at noon. Mrs. George Rochester is in charge. The annual meeting is scheduled for 2:30 p. m. when reports will be delivered from every department of the church and by the pastor. The program for the year, election of officers and transaction of other important business requiring a vote of the congregation will be before the meeting. Every member of the church and interested friends are invited to attend.

Bible school meets at 9:45 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. and an evangelistic service will be held at 7:30 p. m. The sermon will be "Drifting Seaward."

Episcopal Church
Choral celebration of the holy communion at 11 a. m. at the St. Peter's Episcopal church follows: holy eucharist at 8 and church school at 9:45 a. m. tomorrow. The sermon will be "The Greek's Question," by N. Ashby, at the console, will play prelude "Unfinished Symphony" by Schubert, offertory by Joachim Raff, and postlude "Allegro Maestoso" by West.

The evening service begins at 7:30 o'clock. The sermon will be "The Star in the East." Miss Phyllis Barnes will preside at the console.

Presbyterian Church
The Sunday morning 10 o'clock hour will be devoted to the holy communion. The pastor will speak on "A New Year Heart." The Ladies Triad choir will sing the anthem "Nearer, My God, to Thee" by Eugene Marks, and W. W. Nussbaum will sing the solo "The Lord Is My Light" by Althaus. Mrs. Harjey H. Richardson will be at the organ console.

At 7:30 in the evening the Triad choir, Mrs. A. L. Richardson, director, will present an evening program of music, in which the quartet will have a part. Mrs. Paul Pollman, of Baker, will sing a solo, E. J. Lindsay will play the violin number, and the choir will repeat the cantata "Bethlehem."

Sunday Bible School is at 9:45. Christian Endeavor: juniors will meet at 11 a. m. and intermediates and seniors will meet in the church at 6:30 p. m.

Christian Science
Services will be held tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, corner First and Washington. The subject will be "God." Golden text: Jeremiah 10:10, The Lord is the true God, he is the living God, and an everlasting King.

Sunday School is held every Sunday morning at 9:45.

Meetings are held each Wednesday night at 8 o'clock which include testimonies of healing.

The reading room in the West-Jacobson building is open every day except Sundays and holidays from 12 to 4:30 o'clock.

First M. E. Church
The subject for next Sunday's sermon at the First Methodist Episcopal church is "Hall, 1929." Mrs. Claude Cooper and Mrs. R. E. Tyler will sing "Sun of My Soul" by Frederick Jerome.

The order of services is: Junior church 10:50, morning worship 11, Epworth League at 6:30 and evening services at 7:30.

Lutheran Church
The subject of the morning sermon at the English Lutheran church at 11 o'clock will be "The Supreme Quest." An anthem, "I Am a Pilgrim," will be sung by the choir.

Song school meets at 9:45 and the intermediates and Junior Luther Leagues meet at 11 a. m. There will be no evening meetings.

Baptist Church
The Rev. F. O. Hess, pastor of the First Baptist church, expects to be in his pulpit both morning and evening after an enforced "vacation" on account of the pneumonia following an attack of the flu. His morning subject is "Forward With Christ" and in the evening he will speak on the text found in Acts 1:8 "Witnessing for Christ." The regular monthly communion will be held in the morning.

R. Y. P. U. meets at 6:30 led by Glenn Baker.

Beginning Monday night at 7:30 and continuing through the week, prayer services will be held to which all are invited, remembering this is the week of prayer all over the world.

Church of God
Sunday services at the Church of God begin with the morning worship at 11 o'clock, when the subject of the sermon will be "The Year 1929." At 7:30 p. m. the put through rice. Add salt, pepper, butter and egg well beaten. Add enough hot milk to make very light and fluffy when mixture is beaten. Fold in sausage and pile lightly in a well-buttered baking dish. Brown slightly in a hot oven and serve from baking dish.

There will be no meeting tomorrow evening at the English Lutheran church.

They had both spent an amusing evening, and as they lived in the same street, it was not remarkable that they should collide with each other on the way home.

Said the first traveler: "Jewever see me before?"
"No," answered the second.
"You know who I am, then?"
"No."
"Then you don't know who I am?"
"No, I don't."
"Then how do you know it's me?"

"My motto is: What is worth doing is worth doing well."
"I notice that whenever you make a fool of yourself."

Dead and Don't Know It.
Henry Allen Wilson, secretary of the New England Anti-Tobacco League, said in an address at Portland:

"Carefully compiled statistics show us that for every cigar a man smokes he shortens his life three days, while with every cigarette he shortens his life a week."

At that point a prominent Portland physician rose in the rear of the hall.

"Are those statistics absolutely accurate?" he asked.
"Absolutely, sir," said Secretary Wilson. "Why?"
"Because it's rather important," explained the physician. "You see, if your statistics are accurate, I've been dead over 500 years."

George—My dear, I tell you I was talking up with a sick friend, Simmie—How many did you set up before he got sick?
"Walter, there's something queer about this coffee—it tastes like cocoa."
"Oh, beg pardon, sir, I've given you another customer's tea by mistake."
