MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST—Baked apples, cereal, cream, baked French toast, scrap, milk, coffee.
LUNCHEON—Potato soup with cheese, croutons, egg and lettuce sandwiches, sliced oranges, cookies, milk, tea.
DINNER—Roast lamb, browned potatoes, currant jelly, buttered canned peas, date salad, coconut pudding, bran rolls, milk, coffee.

The addition of cheese to the potato milk soup makes a rich nourishing dish precluding the use of meat. The egg and lettuce sandwiches add much to the heartiness of the noonday meal, making it ideal for children.

Date Salad
 Wash dates well and drain. Make a thin sirap using 2 tablespoons sugar to 1 cup boiling water. Allow 2 or 3 dates for each person to be served. Dip dates in sirap and place on a shallow pan. Put into a moderately cool oven to plump and dry. Remove stones. To one package of Philadelphia cream cheese add 4 tablespoons finely chopped nuts and 2 tablespoons preserved ginger. Work in cream until mixture is smooth. Season to taste with salt while mixing. Fill prepared dates with this mixture and arrange on a bed of lettuce. Drop a spoonful of mayonnaise in the center of each plate and top with a teaspoonful of whipped cream lightly seasoned with salt and made pink with paprika. (Copyright, 1928, NEA Service, Inc.)

Go To The Head Of The Class

Answer these:
 What is the best all-round flour?
 Who makes the clearest-toned radio?
 Which is the smartest of the new car models?
 How can you make your roof both beautiful and fire-proof?
 Where would you go for a stylish afternoon frock at a moderate price?
 Why do up-to-date women have so much more time to do the things they like?

All correct. Go to the head of the class.

In the school of civilized living there are definite rewards for those who study carefully. They are better clothed, better housed, better fed. Their money goes farther. They have more beauty in their lives, and more leisure for enjoying beauty.

And the text-books they use are the most interesting ones in the world—the advertising columns.
