McGraw Clan To Be Changed Some
New York Giants, With Considerable Material, Expect Good Year
NOTE: This is the fourth of a series of stories dealing with mid-winter prospects of major league baseball clubs. Others will follow day by day.
By Brian Bell
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
NEW YORK, Jan. 10 (AP)—John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, probably will leave in 1929 many a huddle with Adolph and his new assistants, Ray Kelle and Bert Hoff, before he settles on the permanent personnel of his 1929 outfit.
Second base, the outfield and pitching staff will give the veteran manager food for much thought.
Three-fourths of the 1928 infield will remain. Bill Terry at first base, Travis Jackson, short, and Vera Lindstrom at third. Kelle will be uncertain. Andy will play the bag but whether it is to be Kelle or Cohen remains to be seen. No matter which Andy is given the assignment the other will remain on call.
The Outfield Problem
McGraw thinks the outfield problem may develop into an adjustment of roles. He added a clever and experienced major league performer to his club when he purchased the services of Fred Lusch by trade from the Phillies and 155,000. Melvin Hill and Jim Welch are brought over from last year. If he should decide to have two outfielders he has Tony Scamman, a returned pitcher, Art Weisman and Chick Pflum to complete the array of talent.
Another player who may make a place for himself as a utility man is Pat Crawford, the star foot-ball and baseball star, who did great work at first base for Toledo last year. For much of the season Crawford's batting was a sensation. The North Carolina has played third base as well as first and his neighbors say he asks only "what have you?" in the way of questions.
Plenty of Pitchers
The pitching staff may be built around Larry Houston, Virgil Hays, Fred Fitzsimmons, Joe Genewich, Bill Walker and Jim Paulner with half a dozen other moundmen purchased from the minors. Two of the newcomers, Kelly, late of Memphis, and Ogden from Buffalo, won 21 games each last year while losing only ten.
The catching trio, of Hoehn, O'Farrell and Cummings may grow

ALEX GASTON

It will be Gaston and Gaston as battery for the Red Sox next season. Another three catchers and another Milton pitcher.
BOSTON (AP)—The Boston Red Sox probably will have the only brother battery in the major league next season.
Alex, brought back to Boston from St. Paul of the American Association, will do the catching and Milton, late of Washington, will do the pitching in the Gaston-Alex combination.
The Gaston boys have not played ball together for 15 years. They were teammates on a New York team that was

Golfing Group Whittled Down To 130 Players
By Frank G. Miller
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
SANTA MONICA, Cal., Jan. 10 (AP)—The nation's golfing fraternity, 120 strong and swarming of a force that before dawn yesterday was some three times that number and right in the port of San Diego as they rested and considered their chances in the impending $100,000 Los Angeles open.
Thirty-six holes of qualifying play yesterday held over six courses, slatted a contesting field over slightly more than 100 down to 10 players, who with 40 others who were exempt from qualification because of their showing in the national open and last year's Los Angeles open, will start the big money drive on the Riviera country club course, near here tomorrow. Eighteen holes of shooting will start the 72-hole grand order way. A similar number will follow on Saturday with the low 100 score and the 50,000 prize play going into the 36-hole final this Sunday.
With but one or two outstanding exceptions the 200-odd players who fell by the wayside in yesterday's qualifying grind were lesser knowers of the realm of golf. Tom Williams, young professional from Shickman, N. J., made it known he was not to be reckoned with in the Los Angeles open, when he won the preliminary first with flying colors, leading the 50-odd 72-90-141. His card was one stroke better than that of Johnny Rodgers of Denver, Colo., who is mentioned by many of his fellows as perhaps the greatest wood and iron shot in the country, when he was on his game, and John Lamer of Portland. Rodgers played a 69 over the Sunset Florida country club course in his morning round, and followed with a 72. Junior's golf was the more consistent, the Portland professional's training in a 71 for each of his trips. Frank Hoops, of Seattle, turned in a 74-89-142 for the preliminary 189, while Johnny Golden, stock raiser, N. J., professional had 72-72-144.
MacDonald Smith of the Lakeville country club, Brook Neck, Long Island, the defending titlist, was not obliged to qualify. champion, again took occasion to deny last night that the world money Fred Moody, son of wealthy San Francisco real estate man. The rumor was that their engagement would be announced soon.
"The rumor is without foundation," Miss Willis said, adding: "Any announcement of my engagement will come through my parents and not through the newspapers."

Also took up professional ball. There is quite a story to be told about Alex. It concerns his trip to and from the major. Alex has been down to the minors and back three times. The Giants first fitted him from the lumber in 1928. Three years later he was sent to Toledo of the American Association. The Red Sox bought Alex the next year, and his few seasons and then shipped him to St. Paul. Now Bill Carrigan's club is providing the opportunity for another stint under the big top.
Alex is a quiet, unassuming man. His services should be especially valuable in the spring when untried players from the minors are being run through their paces at the San Antonio training camp. The Giants have also changed camps and have finally returned to Texas after a stop in Georgia on the way from Florida.

"Pass me a Lucky-I pass up the sweets." Johnny Farrell

WHEN fattening sweets tempt and you dread extra weight, light a Lucky instead. No discomfort, no trouble—just a common sense method of retaining a slender figure.

The finest tobaccos are skillfully blended to make Lucky Strike. Then, "It's Toasted." This secret process brings out every essence in the tobaccos and produces a flavor which makes Lucky Strike a delightful alternative when you crave fattening sweets—there is no interference with a natural appetite for healthful foods. That's why folks say: "It's good to smoke Luckies."

At the same time toasting removes impurities. That's why 20,679 physicians are on record that Lucky Strike is less irritating than other cigarettes. That's why prominent athletes have testified that Luckies steady their nerves and do not impair their physical condition. No wonder that this was discovered long ago by many men, who pride themselves on keeping trim and fit, who love the "pep" that comes with health and vigor.

A reasonable proportion of sugar in the diet is recommended, but the authorities are overwhelming that too many fattening sweets are harmful and that too many such are eaten by the American people. So, for moderation's sake we say—

"REACH FOR A LUCKY INSTEAD OF A SWEET."

MEYERS AND AL KARASICK WRESTLE DRAW

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 10 (AP)—Bob Meyers, Tillamook, and Al Karasick, Portland, light heavyweights, went through two hours of wrestling here last night to a draw. Each won a fall. Meyers took the first fall in 1 hour 15 minutes 22 seconds with a step-over short arm scissors. Six minutes before expiration of the two hour limit, Karasick brought his reserve headlock into play and after several applications of his pet hold, tumbled Meyers to the canvas with a flying headbutt. The time for the fall was 38 minutes, 28 seconds. Both men weighed 172 pounds.
In the preliminary, Walter Johnson took one fall and the decision over Jim Thor.
