Death of Mr. Morgan

Word reached Imbler Sunday evening to the effect that Eugene A. Morgan, father of R. L. Morgan, principal of the Imbler school had passed away during the afternoon. Mr. Morgan had received word just Friday that his father's condition was critical and left for Corvallis Saturday evening. He reached his father's bedside just a short time before the end came. The elder Mr. Morgan was quite well known about Imbler as he had made frequent and long stays at the Morgan home. He had been here until the Christmas holidays and when Mr. Morgan and family drove to the valley for the holidays the old gentleman accompanied them. He became ill while they were there and was taken to the hospital. The deceased was between 75 and 80 years of age and was a native of New York state. However he had lived in the west and Corvallis for a number of years.

Elgin Women's Club

The Elgin Women's Improvement club met at the home of Mrs. C. I. Hazen last Thursday. Following the routine business, the members reported on the "club dollar." This was a scheme inaugurated last spring by the club president, Mrs. F. W. Keller, wherein each member was given a dollar from the club treasury with the admonition to make it earn as much more as possible. The place of honor, for having earned the most, went to Mrs. Keller who obtained $25 from the original dollar by selling advertising space in a candidates directory before election. Mrs. C. I. Hazen obtained $5.30 from selling chances on a doll before Christmas. Mrs. W. M. Houlet made $4 by selling aprons and Mrs. Henry made the same amount from crocheted bath towels. The total profit reported by the 18 members present was $66.75. The greater amount of this money will be used in improving the park lots. As a result from the recent art exhibit, eight pictures were obtained for the school, one for each grade. A committee from the club met recently and selected frames for these pictures.
