Judge: Did the accused give you the impression of a drunken man on the night of the attack?"

Witness: Yes. He was wearing a watch with an illuminated dial, and was trying to light his cigar by it.

Barthelmess Plays Sea Role At the Star—Apla—Somewhere East of Suez. Apla—Gladly and ghostly. A city of shadows and weird blinding lights—of humming guitars and brown maidens with flowered, stoneware. This is the intriguing atmosphere of the background against which First National Pictures has set one of the most colorful Richard Barthelmess dramas, "Scarlet Seas," coming to the Star theater Friday.

It has been synchronized with sound so that auditors hear the humming of guitars, the roar of a storm at sea and other sounds that enhance the drama of the film. The music score has also been synchronized.

The village of Apla was especially built on the Isthmus of Catalina Island for "Scarlet Seas." Many technicians assisted in obtaining the right effects and the result is said to be a feature film of extraordinary picturesqueness and dramatic values.

"Scarlet Seas" is the first Barthelmess sea story since "Fury," which the star made over six years ago. It offers him an unusual characterization and one that only Barthelmess can essay in the finest traditions of cinematic acting.

Something for everyone to enjoy. Zane Grey's story of "The Water Hole" as pictured by Paramount to be shown for the first time to-day at the Arende theater.

For those who like Western pictures with much riding and tense situations. For those who prefer society drama, "The Water Hole" has an absorbing plot centering around a pampered society belle and scenes of magnificent entertainment in the homes and lives of the wealthy.

Jack Holt, as a young engineer in love with the philanthropic Nancy Carroll, proves himself a versatile and accomplished actor. In formal dress clothes or in rough riding outfit, Holt is equally at home.

"The Haunted Ship" At Colonial On Friday—"The Haunted Ship" a Tiffany-Stahl production suggested by the Jack London story "White and Yellow" will be the feature picture attraction at the Colonial theater Friday for two days' run. In the east of this thrilling drama of the sea are such well-known screen players as Dorothy Sebastian, Montagu Love, Tom Santschi, Ray Hunter, Pat Harmon, Alice Lake, Blue Washington and Solja and directed by Forrest Sheldon.

"The Haunted Ship" tells as only a Jack London story can of a triangle on board a sailing ship in which the captain, his wife and the first mate are involved. The three had been friends since their teens, and when the captain married, took his friend as first mate aboard ship. After five years of married life a son, then three, became heir to the father who did not like his mollycoddle ways. His enmity towards his child became so marked that the first mate interfered and for his interference was accused of being the child's father, made prisoner and the wife and son set adrift in an open boat in the Pacific. For 18 years the first mate was held prisoner and beaten daily to confess that the child had been his. On a Pacific island the boy miraculously saved, the English for the first time. Here also is "The Haunted Ship," a stranded stow-away who is attracted to the youngster. During a scuffle in a low dance hall where the girl was engaged, the captain recognizes his son from a scar and he has him and the girl shanghaied and brought on the ship. They set sail and the boy is placed in the "dungeon" with the mate. The crew later mutiny and through the efforts of the girl her men are freed, and the captain infuriated blows up his ship, just after the crew and the boy and girl escape, while he and the mate are lost.

AT THE THEATERS

"Lilac Time" And Colleen Coming

"Lilac Time" is the sort of a story that motion picture actresses dream are made of, according to Colleen Moore, who comes to the Arende theater soon in the screen version of Jane Cawley's stage triumph.

When Miss Moore and John McCormick, who adapts her pictures, read the play manuscript of "Lilac Time," they both knew instantly it was the story of which they had dreamed, but hardly dared hope to find it.

Gary Cooper, hero of "Boys N' Girls," "The Legion of the Condemned" and other pictures, appears in the chief supporting role. Other players include Burr Melton, George Cooper, Cleve Moore, Kathryn McGuire, Eugene Becker, Emil Chardard, Jack Stone and Edward Dillon.

Divorced Wife Of Hagen Files Suit—LOS ANGELES, Jan. 17 (AP)—Walter Hagen, golf professional today had been served with papers attaching his golf earnings to recover judgments and other alleged debts to his divorced wife, Mrs. Edna C. Hagen, amounting to $8,625. Hagen's recent victories in Southern California tournaments included prizes of $1500 in the Long Beach open which he won and a total of $275 in the Los Angeles and Pasadena opens.

The papers naming the noted golfer defendant in a superior court attachment proceeding instituted by Mrs. Hagen, were served on "The Hale" yesterday on the Pasadena municipal golf course, where Hagen had just completed play in the $4,000 Pasadena open tournament in which he won $175. He won $100 in the $10,000 Los Angeles open.
