DODGERS SEEKING PITCHING STAFF

Outfield Positions Also Uncertain; Rest of the Lineup Is O. K.

By Brian Bell (Associated Press Sports Writer)
NEW YORK, Jan. 19 (AP)—President-Manager Wilbert Robinson of the Brooklyn baseball club, must decide on a pitching staff and outfield. The rest of the lineup will take care of itself. The infield is believed to be fairly well arranged with Del Bissonette at first, Jake Flowers taking care of second, Glenn Wright, the former Pirate, stationed at short, and Walter Gilbert assigned to third. This plan would leave Dave Bancroft, former Boston manager, in the role of utility infielder. The outfield is not so simple. Max Carey will continue to act as first lieutenant to the manager but probably will do little playing. Harry Hendrick and Babe Herman can hit well enough to play on any team but in other years their fielding has left something to be desired. Robbie has definitely decided to abandon thought of having these two sluggers play the infield and they will stand or fall on their own fielding performance. Another outfielder brought over from last year is Rube Bressler and the three are numerically strong enough to fill the outposts if they can dispose of a small army of minor league outfielders trying to break in.

Promising Youngsters
Two of the promising youngsters who are represented as ready for major league duty are Max Rosenfeld, purchased from Birmingham, and John Frederick, who comes by purchase from Memphis. Frederick hit .356 in the Southern association. Rosenfeld's mark was .348. Billy Hibel, who has been an infielder and outfielder in his day, is said to be a better hitter than fielder, but his hard clubbing and aggressiveness probably will win him a utility place even if he fails to crash into the regular lineup.

With Jose Petty gone to Pittsburgh for Wright, the honor of being the club's star southpaw must be contested by big Jim Elliott and Watson Clark. There is no pitcher in sight threatening to wrest the right hand honors from Dazzy Vance, leading pitcher of the league in strike-outs and effectiveness. Douglas McWeeny and Rube Ehrhardt will be back again with a flock of young pitchers willing to accept nominations. Win Hutton, former Washington and St. Louis pitcher, was drafted from Milwaukee and has a good chance to go a comeback. Elzie Dudley from Atlanta and Jim Richardson from New Haven are also conceded better than even opportunities.

One of the trio of 1928 catchers, hand DeBerry, Johnny Gooch and Walter Healine, may be displaced by Alphonse Lopez, who spent a profitable season in 1928 on the Brooklyn farm at Macon.

Commission Room in City Hall 10 sold City for City of La Grande Improvement Bonds, Series 1928, in the sum of nineteen thousand, eight hundred twenty-seven and 74/100 dollars ($19,827.74), said bonds bearing date of December 30, 1928; to mature ten (10) years from date of bonds, with payment, however, optional with the City of La Grande at any semi-annual coupon date on or after one (1) year from date of said bonds; bearing interest at the rate of five and one-half per cent (5 1/2%) per annum, payable semi-annually; both principal and interest payable at the office of the Treasurer of the City of La Grande, Oregon.

All bids must be unconditional and be accompanied by a certified check for one thousand dollars ($1000).

The approving legal opinion of Messrs. Teal, Winfree, McCulloch & Shuler, Portland, Oregon, will be furnished the successful bidder.

The Commission reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Leo Lomski Is Given Nod Over James Braddock

NEW YORK, Jan. 19 (AP)—James J. Braddock, hard punching light heavyweight from Jersey City, has lost in the aggressiveness of Leo Lomski, the Aberdeen, Washington, woodman, the roughest spot being his head to the top of the division. Lomski forced the fighting all the way in their third round battle at Madison Square Garden last night and got the decision.

The Jersey lad, who got this shot at big time battling by shooting in one right hand smash that broke Pete Laitos's jaw and following it up with a knockout of Jerry Griffin found he could not find his terrific punch on the stock westerner. Lomski kept coming to close quarters, evading the dangerous right and pounding Braddock's body with jolting left hooks.

A ringside consensus gave Lomski six rounds and Braddock three while one was called even. The officials were less certain, one judge calling the fight a draw while the other agreed with Referee Arthur Dohisyan in awarding it to Lomski.

Canzoneri Whips Santiago, of Cuba

CHICAGO, Jan. 19 (AP)—Tony Canzoneri of New York who recently was deposed as featherweight champion, today stood out as a principal threat to Tod Morgan's junior lightweight crown, following his knockout victory over Armando Santiago of Cuba.

Coming back after being pounded to the floor for a seven count in the first round, Canzoneri knocked out Santiago in the fifth count of their bout at the coliseum last night. The victory stopped the sensational rise of the Cuban, who knocked out Canzoneri's old

BAGSHAW BATTLE IS STILL RAGING

Status of Washington Football Coach Doubtful; Grid Men Back

SEATTLE, Jan. 19 (AP)—The fight over Enoch Bagshaw, football coach of the University of Washington whose virtual ouster was ordered yesterday by the student board of control, was at a standstill today.

The faculty athletic committee, which has the right to review the board's action, was to meet as soon as it received a legal opinion on whether the coach could be legally dismissed, before the remainder of three years of his contract have expired.

The committee members along with football players who have been coached by the "little giant" during his eight years at Washington are regarded as Bagshaw's staunchest supporters.

Subject to Faculty?
Dean Alfred Scheppe, head of the university law school, rendered an opinion yesterday that the board's action relieving Bagshaw of his duties as head coach to be assigned other work by the board was tantamount to a dismissal and therefore subject to the ruling of the faculty committee.

When Dr. M. Lyle Spencer, president of the institution received Scheppe's opinion, he authorized the committee to review the board's action. In a later statement he said the students would have the ultimate decision "so long as they acted within the scope of their authority."

While those in control of the situation tried to straighten out the legal tangle, the Husky club, composed of football lettermen, added its moral support to the coach's cause. At a special meeting last night the club ousted Lloyd Turncliffe, senior representative on the board of control and former president of the club, for his stand against the football mentor. The club refused Turncliffe's offer to resign.

Try His Retention
Then club members unanimously passed a resolution urging that Bagshaw be retained as head coach.

"We want some voice as to who will coach us," said Herman Hrix, former tackle and one of America's best punting representatives in the Olympic games, who acted as spokesman for the club. "To a man we are behind Baggy. Furthermore we demand more power in deciding this matter. Football players themselves are really the best judges of a coach's ability."

The opinion of Bagshaw's coaches, expressed by George Wilson, professional football player who was the first outstanding backfield man developed by the Husky mentor.

"I have been engaged in playing football for 13 years and have come in contact with all kinds of coaches and coaching," Wilson said. "In all that time I have never met Mr. Bagshaw's superior as a coach or as a sportsman. I have just completed a season with the Providence Steamroller, who won the professional championship of America. We used the Bagshaw system both on offense and on defense, and the result of our season speaks for itself. I consider the Bagshaw style the fastest and most effective of all."

AND WHEN HE GROWS UP—
RACINE, Wis., Jan. 19 (AP)—A pair of size 25 shoes have just been made for a 10-year-old school boy by a Racine shoe company.

The purchaser is Robert Wadlow, an elementary school student of Alton, Miss. The boy is said to be six feet 10 inches tall, and weighs 250 pounds.

Five square feet of leather were used to manufacture the shoes.

rival, Joey Sangor, in the same ring last December.

Promoter Jim Mullen announced that Canzoneri and Sangor will meet here February 6 with the winner virtually assured of a shot at Morgan's crown.

Cove Teams Win Three Games On Friday Evening

By Mrs. A. G. Conklin (Observer Correspondent)

COVE, Ore., Jan. 19 (Special)—Cove school basketball teams won three games last night. The high school quintet defeated Union at 21 to 11, and the grade school boys also won at Union, 12 to 9.

At Cove, the girls school sextet defeated the Sacred Heart academy of La Grande 25 to 16. Tonight the North Powder team plays here.

LA GRANDE DEFEATED
The Cove High school girls' basketball team came out victors in a game played last night at Cove against the Sacred Heart academy of La Grande, with a score of 21 to 10.

The high point player was Orta Baum, of Cove, who had a total of 16 points. Ellen Breshers, of Cove, as next with eight points to her credit.

Isabelle Hager, of La Grande, made six points and Agnes Doherty of La Grande, made four.

The Cove line-up included: Orta Baum, Ellen Breshers, Frances Comstock, Dorothy Barker, Esther Anderson and Elsie Anderson.

The La Grande lineup included the following: center, Ida Noble; right center, Opal Nobles; guards, Lola Martin Snodgrass, Ruth Comstock, Teresa Doherty; forwards, Agnes Doherty, Isabelle Hager, Ethel Donohue, Tillie Wolvers.

Other members of the squad are: Mae Waldorf, Margaret Robbin, Agnes Kenny, Irene Vaughn, Dorothy Wolvers, Nadine O'Sullivan, Catherine Spaeth, Margaret Whitehead, and Verona Stopp.

Washington And Oregon Quintets To Meet Tonight

SEATTLE, Jan. 19 (AP)—The northern division of the Pacific coast conference will open its basketball season here tonight with a clash between the two teams that will probably fight it out for the top berth. The University of Oregon, 1927 champions, and the University of Washington, victors last year, will renew hostilities where they left off in 1928.

Both have teams of almost the same caliber as last season when two points in the final tilt decided who was the best. As both quintets have fast, accurate, forward combination, tonight's game is expected to run into big figures, as have most of their battles in recent years.

Gordon Bidings and Scott Milligan, two year lettermen, are the stars of the Webfoot aggregation against whom the huskies will pit their long and short combination of Hal "Stork" McHenry, giant center, and Stan Jahnif, midsize forward.

Thrift Week Focuses Attention On Investments

But Are Your Investments Carefully Enough Selected To Meet the Demands of Thrift?

Building and Loan certificates are the accepted and popular means of saving for future years. All over America the demand for Building and Loan investments is growing by leaps and bounds.

But the really THRIFTY Building and Loan investment is vastly different from the ordinary kind -- and vastly more fair and more profitable to the average purchaser.

Paying a membership fee when you buy a Building and Loan investment is not good Thrift. Submitting to a contract that exacts penalties and fines and withdrawal fees is not good Thrift. These practices are prohibited in your La Grande association. Every dollar you pay in is always your dollar.
