P. E. O. Observes Founders' Day At Richardson Home

Chapter I of P. E. O. celebrated founders' day yesterday afternoon with a 1 o'clock luncheon at the Grande hotel. Covers were placed for 25 women. Mrs. J. T. Richardson had charge of a delightful founders' day program which was an impressive affair. A ceremony took place. Both the program and ceremony were held at the Richardson home at 1312 Pennsylvania avenue.

Those assisting Mrs. Richardson during the afternoon were: Mrs. Fritz Lottes, Mrs. F. A. Epling, Mrs. H. A. Zuerick, Mrs. Robert Galin, Dr. Margaret Ingie, Mrs. George Birnie and Mrs. Harley Richardson.

Mrs. Harry M. J. Turner was hostess to members of the Friday Bridge club at her home at 1801 Cedar street yesterday afternoon. Three tables were at play during the afternoon with first prize for high score going to Mrs. De Lile Arone and second to Mrs. Hedding.

Sweet peas made attractive decorations.

The Lucky Dozen club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. E. Sting at 1108 1/2 avenue for an enjoyable social. Ten members were in attendance. Late in the afternoon Mrs. Sting served a two-course luncheon.

The next meeting will be held Feb. 1 at the home of Mrs. Charles D. Griffin at 502 Main avenue.

The Hoop Owl club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Wright last night with three tables of bridge at play. First prize for high score went to Mrs. Blake Shields and first for men to Ray Brown. Mr. Shields and Mrs. Brown were awarded consolations.

After the cards a two-course luncheon was served.

A newly organized pinocle club was entertained last night by Mr. and Mrs. Porter Webb with three tables at play. Mr. and Mrs. Doan received first prize for high score and consolation went to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Redmond.

Refreshments were served late in the evening.

M. E. Church Night Delightful Event

About 100 members of the First Methodist Church are decidedly much better acquainted following the "church night" held last evening.

ning at the church. The evening was one of delightful informality, each item of the entertaining program having been entered into by every one present so that the group seemed more like one big family than anything else when the company dispersed about 11 o'clock.

At the door the members of the church were greeted by Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Brown who tied on the right hand of each person a stiff paper bag using heavy binding twine. Each was required to shake hands until the bag was worn off. Following this, the company divided itself into groups by states, and most of the northern states were represented beginning as far east as Pennsylvania, and including three from Canada. Other games and a community sing led by Mrs. Sherwood Williams, with Genevieve Adler at the piano, occupied the time until refreshments were served in the church parlors by the ladies.

During the evening a very short business meeting was held during which a number of new plans to be put in operation soon were announced by the pastor, Rev. Vernon E. Hall, and members of the official board.

The St. Peter's Episcopal Guild, hoping to eliminate the annual bazaar, has determined upon a series of monthly events, through which the members hope to raise sufficient funds for the purposes which, in the past, were financed by the bazaars.

As the opening event, the Guild will give a bridge party on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Feb. 2, in the La Grande hotel and will charge a nominal admission fee. Those who desire to make reservations for the party may do so by communicating with Mrs. G. L. Larison, Mrs. D. H. Jesse or Mrs. Leslie K. Kinzel.

The committee women in charge expect to make the parties particularly attractive and it is expected that they will form one of the pleasing series of social events during the coming months in addition to lending necessary aid to the church.

The Royal Neighbors entertained Thursday night at the home of Mrs. C. B. Johnson at 1402 M avenue with a delightful gift shower for Mrs. Ray Aistott, member of the lodge.

Twenty-five members were in attendance for the social evening. Refreshments were served by Mrs. W. D. Root, Mrs. Fred Reed and Mrs. Johnson.

Baptists Close Conference At Evening Session

Miss Ina Burton and Dr. Moody Speak; Methodists Quarterly Conference Tomorrow

With one conference ended and with a quarterly conference set for Sunday night and a joint ministerial meeting for Monday morning, this weekend is proving a busy one in local church circles.

The La Grande Ministerial association will hold a joint meeting with the Union County Ministerial association at the Sacajawea Inn Monday at 10 a. m. when Capt. Pack of the Salvation Army, will speak of his organization and its work. The Rev. Oliver Hiley will give some special musical numbers. Luncheon will be served at noon.

The Rev. Harry S. Hamilton, district superintendent, from Boise, will conduct a quarterly conference at the First M. E. church Sunday evening.

Baptist Meeting Held
The mid-winter Eastern Oregon Baptist conference at the First Baptist church here ended last night with a meeting to which the public was invited. Meetings were also held during the day with a large attendance, considering weather conditions. Baker and Cove churches were represented.

Miss Ina Burton, of Chicago, one of the speakers, gave some figures that proved startling to the church men in attendance. She said that the Northern Baptists have 794 missionaries sent out and 9,615 native workers. All this has been done since the time when Judson went into Burma in 1813 and spent seven years before he got his first convert. Last year there were 29,452 converts in the mission field. Ninety-three per cent of the churches in the foreign field support their own work, she said. She said there are 3,813 schools, six colleges and 31 seminaries in the foreign field and that 70,000 Baptist churches in the world now have 12,000,000.

Dr. Moody, returned Missionary, spoke of his work in the Belgian Congo and of the large territory in which he had jurisdiction. He said that in spite of improved travel conditions as compared with his arrival there 40 years ago, missionaries worked at a disadvantage because of lack of support. He said that such a thing as a vacation for missionary leaders was unknown.

The speakers will leave La Grande tonight for Pendleton where they will hold a similar conference tomorrow.

First M. E. Church
In the morning the pastor, the Rev. V. E. Hall, will speak on "Keep Going" at the First M. E. church. The Martyr class will elect officers following the study period.

At 5 p. m. the young people of the Epworth league will meet at the church and then go to Union for a joint devotional with the Union league.

After the evening service, District Superintendent Harry S. Tam-tion, of Boise, will conduct a quarterly conference.

Mr. Hazeltine, of Seattle, regional official of the federal prohibition department, will be present and may speak.

Baptist Church
The Baptist services for tomorrow follow: Sunday school at 9:45 with Mrs. Bynum superintendent, teaching at 11 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. and B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 p. m. In the morning the Rev. F. O. Hoss' subject will be "A Most Natural Result."

Christian Church
The subject of the sermon at the 11 o'clock hour of worship at the Central Church of Christ tomorrow morning will be "Why a Christian College." The service will be the annual Christian college one. Bible school starts at 9:45 a. m. and Christian Endeavor meets at 6:30 p. m.

An evangelistic service is scheduled for 7:30 p. m. and the song service will be assisted by the young people's choir. The sermon will be "Moses a Type of Christ."

A winter convention under the auspices of the Oregon Christian Missionary convention will be held in the local church beginning Monday evening, Feb. 4 and continuing all day Feb. 5. The Churches of Christ of Malheur, Baker, Walla Walla and Union counties will participate in this convention. Similar conventions are being conducted before and after this date in 11 other places in the state. C. F. Swander, state secretary, and W. G. Mosley, northwest director of religious education, of Spokane, and participating ministers will be the speakers.

Church night will be Thursday from 7 to 9 o'clock as follows: Layal Volunteer meeting 7 to 7:30, devotional and Bible study 7:30 to 8:15, and Bible school conference 8:15 to 9.

First Presbyterian Church
"They Feared Nothing But Sin," a bit of history of the early Quakers, will serve as the subject for the morning sermon by the pastor, the Rev. J. George Watz. The choir, Mrs. Alfred L. Richardson, director, and Mrs. R. G. McCall at the organ console, will sing "The Homeland" by Hanscom.

In the evening at 7:30, Mrs. Lee Reynolds will play the service, and the pastor will bring a message based on "Three Awakenings."

Sunday Bible school meets at 9:45 a. m. with the beginners meeting in the Sunday school annex, also the high school boys meet in the upper room of the annex. Junior Christian Endeavor meets at the same place at 11 a. m. The other departments of C. E. meet at 6:30 p. m. in the church.

Episcopal Church
Services at the St. Peter's Episcopal church tomorrow begin at 8 a. m. with Holy eucharist, followed at 9:45 by church school. Morning prayer is at 11 o'clock and the sermon will be "Obedience, the Key to Christian Knowledge." Mrs. H. N. Ashby, at the console, will play prelude "Andante Religioso" by Thome, offertory in A by Hollins, postlude "March" by Harris.

Wayfarers' guild meets at 5:45 p. m.

There will be no evening service.

English Lutheran Church
"Mountain-Top and Valley Experiences" is the subject on which the pastor, the Rev. L. H. Aves, will preach at the Sunday morning service beginning at 11 o'clock. Special singing by the choir.

The Sunday school begins at 9:45 a. m. followed by meetings of the Intermediate and Junior leagues.

Church of God
The Rev. E. H. Ahrendt, pastor of the Church of God, will preach on "The Holy Spirit's Work on Earth" at 11 a. m. and in the evening his subject will be "What God Thinks of His Word."

First Church of Christ, Scientist
Services will be held tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock at First Church of Christ, Scientist, corner of First and Washington. The subject will be "Life." Golden text: John 3:16. God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

Sunday school is held every Sunday morning at 9:45 o'clock.

Meetings are held each Wednesday night at 8 o'clock which include testimonies of healing.

The reading room in the West-Jacobson building is open every day except Sundays and holidays from 12 to 4:30.

WINNOWINGS

One of the interesting features of the week in La Grande churches was the mid-winter conference of Eastern Oregon Baptists conducted yesterday at the First Baptist church.

No evening service will be held tomorrow at the Episcopal church.

A winter convention under the auspices of the Oregon Christian Missionary convention will be held here Feb. 4 and 5.

The School of Missions at the Presbyterian church had a splendid opening session on Wednesday evening, the pastor reports, and will hold its second session on next Wednesday evening, with the following supper at 6:30 o'clock, which is one of the features. This is followed by classes in the study of missions.

Train Wrecked In Mountain Washout

HAMILTON, Ont., Jan. 17 (AP)—An express train on the Toronto, Hamilton and Buffalo railroad was wrecked last night when it ran into a washout on a mountainside near here.

The fireman was killed and the engineer and a score of passengers injured.

The track, weakened by heavy rains, gave way under the locomotive which plunged down a 49-foot embankment. The baggage car slid part way down the bank and the smoking car immediately behind it, fell on its side. Several Pullman's remained on the rails.

NATIONAL THRIFT WEEK
"Thrift Is Wise Spending"

The Code Of The Thrifty Housewife

---whose job is to make a home as well as to keep a house, to love as well as to labor.

- To observe the true spirit of the meaning of Thrift, I must observe this code:
- I must expend wisely my time as well as my portion of the family's income.
  - I must exercise economy in my household purchases but not at the expense of my strength or my patience.
  - I must conserve food and household equipment but I must preserve family health, harmony, and happiness.
  - I must keep busy and carry my share of the family's burdens, but not in such a way as to sacrifice the companionship of my husband or my children.
  - I must be efficient so that through my efficiency I may have time to be a helpful wife and a guiding and sympathetic mother, to make a home as well as to keep a house.
  - I must not neglect my duty of love while performing my duty of labor. That is a distinct part of the code of the Thrifty Housewife.

The electrically equipped home is a Thrifty home. More work with less expenditure of both money and energy. More leisure hours for the real essentials of home making. More happiness, more health. Home work done electrically is home work done thriftily.

MENUS

By Sister Mary

BREAKFAST—Chilled apple sauce, cereal, cream, little sausage, buckwheat pancakes, syrup, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Baked ham and eggs, creamed celery, graham rolls, jellied prunes, milk, tea.

DINNER—Braised mutton, potatoes au gratin, mashed turnips, head lettuce with French dressing, sliced oranges, coconut cookies, milk coffee.

Keep in mind the necessity of varying the cereal from morning to morning. When children cannot partake of the breakfast they should be provided with a well-cooked cereal with plenty of cream. Crisp toast is an ideal accompaniment for a cooked cereal.

Baked Ham and Eggs
One cup chopped cooked ham, 1 cup soft stale bread, crumbs, 2 tablespoons melted butter, milk, pepper, 4 eggs.

Combine ham, bread crumbs, butter and pepper. Mix lightly with a fork and add milk to make quite moist. Line buttered casserole cups or gem pans with the ham mixture and break an egg in each cup. Cover with ham paste and bake in a moderately hot oven for 15 minutes or until eggs are set. Serve with hot tomato sauce or creamed celery, as suggested. This is an excellent way to use up fragments of cold boiled or baked ham. Any meat can be substituted but will need extra seasoning to make "savory."
