"There's been so much controversy and publicity devoted to Hitler that only one-half of the present day dooze hoisters begin out of curiosity," declared a prominent hostess today. This is doubly true in the house an' trace ancestry.

Women Shoppers' Whims Described

CHICAGO, Jan. 23 (AP)—Women shoppers' whims that can be capitalized for increased sales were detailed before the convention of the National Wholesale Grocers association today.

Carl W. Dipman, editor of the Progressive Grocer, said that when a store is arranged so that women have access to the stock, they will buy from 10 to 50 per cent more.

"They buy more freely when goods are priced on the old cent. They like the bargain atmosphere," Dipman said.

In Congress

Just after she learned that she had been chosen to succeed her husband as Arkansas' first congresswoman, Mrs. W. A. Oldfield posed for this exclusive NEA Service picture—the first she has had taken in 11 years.

CHARGE WIFE HIRED MEN TO ASSASSINATE HUSBAND

Here are the principal figures in an alleged plot to kill Ralph Wood, wealthy Detroit real estate dealer—a plot that was foiled when police tipped off, killed one gangster and arrested two alleged accomplices. Mrs. Grace Wood, above at right, is accused of hiring three gunmen to kill her husband so that she could inherit his real estate holdings and collect on a $100,000 life insurance policy. At the upper left is Cecil Holt, who was a member of the conspiracy, but who, on his wife's advice, revealed it to the police. Below him is Wood himself. At the bottom Detective William L. Lisle (left) is shown with the two alleged co-conspirators—Taylor Pierce (left) and William Thompson. Mrs. Woods declares she is victim of a "frame-up" engineered by her husband.

JAIL BREAKER ARRESTED

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 23 (AP)—An alleged Alabama jail-breaker was in custody here today after an unsuccessful effort to gain his freedom on a writ of habeas corpus. Another had escaped arrest.

The prisoner is identified as Roy Dickerson, who with Frank Cook, convicted of burglary, and Ivanhoe Silva, known as Birmingham's "bootlegger king," escaped from the Kilby prison in Alabama last October.

Now Mr. Durant might offer another $25,000 prize for the best criticism of the prize-winning prohibition enforcement plan.

DISCARD SUICIDE MURDER THEORY

Death of Two in Los Angeles Puzzles Police; Note Left by One

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 23 (AP)—What police had believed was a murder-suicide pact between Andrew L. Davis, 28-year-old mechanic, and a beautiful red-haired girl about 24 years of age, found shot to death in a Cedar street rooming house early this morning, later today apparently developed into a murder with some one other than Davis firing one and perhaps both of the fatal shots.

Examination of the unidentified woman's body revealed that she had met death from a bullet fired into her head from a small caliber gun, while Davis, the police surgeon's examination showed, had either taken his life, or been killed by a bullet from a .45 caliber pistol. Officers first reported the seven shot, .45 caliber automatic pistol found near the bed on which the two bodies were discovered had two empty shells in it, but later reports stated that six unfired shells were found in it.

Police said the note written by Davis on the fly leaf of a book had been deciphered, and read as follows: "My wife and her family killed this woman and it looks bad for me, but I am innocent. They say they are going to kill me with my own gun. It has not been shot yet. (signed) Davis."

Brought to House?

The homicide bureau is working on the theory that the young woman was killed elsewhere, brought to the rooming house in a car and that her body was dragged across the porch and taken to Davis' room, and undressed. Both bodies were nude when found. Police reported finding a streak of blood across the porch, and a pool of blood, which had been covered by a rug in the room.

Davis had lived at the rooming house for two years. Police reported Mrs. Louise Williams, landlady, as saying that she heard a couple, presumably Davis and the girl, enter the house Monday night. Early this morning, she was reported as saying, she became worried over the absence of Davis and with the aid of Alvin Thompson, a neighbor, broke into the room, finding the two bodies on the bed. Later, police reported the woman as saying that she heard some one enter the house late Monday night but that she heard no shots.

Davis, it was learned had been separated from his wife, Mrs. Jean Davis of Los Angeles, for more than a year, and had filed bill for divorce and custody of a 5-year-old daughter.

Questioning of Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Williams, police said had absolved them of any complicity. Without clues as to the possible murderer of either one, or both persons officers were endeavoring to establish identity of the dead girl and locate the small gun with which she was killed.

EXECUTE REBEL HEADS

GUATEMALA CITY, Jan. 23 (AP)—Various leaders of the revolt in Northern Guatemala have been summarily executed by government forces. The number of those who were captured by loyal troops and faced the firing squad was not announced.

Troops were pursuing today the rebels who held Quezaltenango for a short time.

MURDER AND SUICIDE

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23 (AP)—Fred Swelger, of Denver, returning to Baltimore after an absence of 25 years, fatally wounded his nephew, Thomas W. Cole, and then killed himself in Cole's office in a local printing company.
