

Lift Quarantine From Allen Home At Lostine, Ore.

By Mrs. William Wiggins
 LOSTINE, Ore. (Special)—The quarantine for smallpox has been lifted from the Clarence Allen home. Harley and Nell Allen both have recovered from this disease.

A shed on the Mary Downs property was destroyed by fire early Monday morning. Mrs. Downs had stored her mother's things in this shed which had been a garage. The building was a total loss.

Theresa Von Der Geag, German police dog belonging to Marvin Wiggins, proved herself capable of doing some exceptional reasoning on the coldest night of the season, when, as is her usual custom, she was called to take a bucket to the barn. On returning from the barn with her bucket of milk, she raced ahead an account of the cold and the milk could not be found. The next morning, when told to find the milk, she went directly to where she had left it the night before, and, although frozen, the fat was intact and no damage done.

Mrs. Bert Candler, who underwent a major operation last Tuesday is reported to be doing very nicely.

Saturday night was the coldest of the season, the thermometer registering 23 below.

Mrs. Floyd Leonard and Mrs. Roy Cook went to Wallowa Monday to visit Mrs. Bert Candler, who is in the hospital there.

Mrs. Ida Wart, of Enterprise, has spent several days in Lostine.

An old-time dance was given in the amusement hall Saturday night, but owing to the extremely cold weather, the crowd was small.

The grange will hold another of their card parties at the hall next Saturday evening.

Mrs. Ella McKinzie went to Wallowa Monday, where she will have some dental work done.

Word has been received by friends of Dean Crow, who with his wife, has spent several weeks in California, that they are expected home in a few days.

William Wiggins made a business trip to Enterprise Saturday.

The Cusin Brothers shipped another bunch of 23 fat hogs from the local stock yards Friday.

The Neighborhood club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. L. Pearce. Election of officers was held with Mrs. Minnie Ward elected president, Mrs. D. H. McGill, vice president, Mrs. George Allen, secretary, Mrs. Shields, treasurer, Mrs. Pearce, assisted by Mrs. Willard Kuhn, served lovely refreshments.

Several business houses, as well as private homes have taken advantage of the cold weather, and are storing their summer's supply of ice. The ice this winter is of unusual quality, being about 13 inches thick.

The meeting of the Ladies Aid society, which was to have been held at the home of Mrs. C. W. Fleener Tuesday, was postponed on account of the funeral of Billie Hunter.

The Lostine civilian rifle club met Monday evening in the office of Fred Edwards. Election of officers was part of the business that came before the meeting.

LOSTINE SCHOOL NOTES
 Lowell Courtney, Daniel Cole and Hugh Magill will take state examinations in geography this week.

Yone Heidler is absent from Mrs. Crow's room this week on account of being ill of chicken pox.

Little Allen Fischer was absent from Miss Halme's room Wednesday.

Anita Willet was absent from high school Wednesday.

The debate squad met at the home of Superintendent Crow Monday evening.

The seventh and eighth grades gave a hard-time party in the high school assembly last Friday night. A delightful time was enjoyed by all the students present.

The high school will have charge of the general assembly next Monday. The program is as follows: Monologue, Veto Hamneck; monologue, Bill Jackson; vocal duet, Esther Fleener and Sara Sherman; melophone, Melvin Crow; quartet, Mr. Crow, Freda Hall, La Desca Gray and Melvin Crow.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 24 (AP)—Tom Allen, former sheriff of Harney county, Oregon, and veteran of the Bannock Indian war, is dead at his home here.

Marriage is a good deal like a fire. You run to it and walk back from it.

PRESIDENT SIGNS PACT TO OUTLAW WAR

An historic scene that may have a tremendous influence on the future of world peace was enacted in the great East room of the White House when President Coolidge, surrounded by cabinet members and senate notables, signed the senate's acceptance of the Kellogg anti-war treaty, thereby making it a law. In this picture President Coolidge is shown signing the document with the Kellogg pen, presented to the secretary of state by the city of La Hayre, France, seated, from left to right, are Vice President Dawes, President Coolidge, Secretary Kellogg, Secretary Mellon and Secretary of War Davis. Standing are Senator Borah, Senator Swanson, Senator Walsh, Vice President-elect Curtis. President Coolidge is said to regard the Kellogg anti-war treaty as the most important document of his administration.

Twelve Inches Of Snow In The Cove District

By Mrs. Leona Price
 (Observer Correspondent)
 COVE, Ore. (Special)—A total of 12 inches of snow has fallen at Cove, which is experiencing some real winter weather.

H. I. Barker, A. A. Antles and George Golay are sorting Rome Beauty apples at the co-operative shed. K. J. Stackland is handling this consignment of apples. These men are expecting to pack out a carload of apples next week. Oscar Lund and M. E. Peterson have also packed out a carload.

E. E. Coad spent the weekend with his family at Cove. Mr. Coad is principal of the Fruitland, Idaho school this winter. He reported a very cold drive coming over Friday.

The camp fire girls' candy sale Saturday netted them $2.00. This is to be used to help pay their national dues. Owing to the inclement weather, the meeting for election of officers was postponed until Jan. 28.

P. F. Sturges left for Pendleton Monday and returned Tuesday, accompanied by Mrs. Sturges who has been visiting Bishop and Mrs. W. P. Remington for the last week. Elmer Wheeler, of Ladd Canyon, spent the weekend in Cove visiting with relatives and friends.

Mrs. G. E. Barker gave a birthday dinner Tuesday, in honor of Mr. Barker's mother, Mrs. H. I. Barker.

Leslie Peck, formerly of Cove, who has been working for the Shango store in Baker, has been transferred to their Denver store. Mr. Peck took his wife and family to Imbler, where they will remain with Mrs. Peck's mother, Mrs. Westenslow, until Mr. Peck finds a suitable home for them in Denver.

The stockmen of Cove were notified of the impending cold wave several days in advance through

Robert Withycombe, of the experiment station at Union.

Owing to the heavy snow, H. E. Coolidge was unable to cross the valley Tuesday afternoon and his thrift talk was postponed until a later date.

Mrs. L. M. Laird has been ill for several days.

Man's Hair Is Heavier
 Delicate scales tell curious stories about hair. The Chinese and the Japanese have the heaviest hair—60 per cent heavier than that of the white race. Yet the hair of white persons is 60 per cent heavier than that of negroes. And man's hair weighs 15 per cent more than woman's.—Capper's Weekly.

Overlook Imperfection
 Whoever looks for a friend without imperfections will never find what he seeks. We love ourselves with all our faults and we ought to love our friends in like manner.—Exchange.

Girl on Wild Ride Is Under Arrest

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24 (AP)—Miss Mary Elizabeth Culbertson, 26, daughter of the late Charles A. Culbertson, former senator from Texas, faced charges today of driving while drunk and leaving the scene of an automobile collision.

Police charged that Miss Culbertson collided with five parked automobiles on Pennsylvania avenue, forcing two onto the sidewalk.

Not Procrastinators

"Mamma" is not, says the Brooklyn Eagle, such a bad word as it's sometimes cracked up to be, and one gathers that the quick-witted modern Chileans, who are proud of being called the Yankos of the South, have kept enough of the "mamma" spirit to put off unnecessary worries till tomorrow, though they do essential tasks today.

Toads Are Valuable

The United States government says that every toad is worth $24. Therefore, a wise gardener will protect the toads, according to Nature Magazine. Toads are the night watchmen of the garden and are busy devouring cutworms and beetles which hide during the day. Birds carry on the insect war during the day and toads by night.
