OFFICE CAT TRADE MARK REG. By Junius

The usual morning collection was taken in church one morning, and the minister noticed a lot of dollar bills in the plate and two pennies. "Ah," said he facetiously, "I see there is a Scotchman present."

At some time in life every man has longed to own a newspaper so he could publish just as many mean things as he wanted to on somebody he had a grudge against.

She Got the Job. The street railway had a vacancy in its stenographic department, and as all progressive firms nowadays have a personnel department where applicants must give everything from the color of their grandmothers' eyes to the indebtedness of their third cousin on their father's side, one young lady made out her application in the following manner:

Yes, Peggy. Mother (at dinner)—"Peggy, darling, you should not scratch your nose with your spoon." Peggy—"Oh, mother, should I have used the fork?"

Scientific Accounting A wholesaler had a lot of trouble in getting a certain retail client to pay his bills—not to pay them promptly, but to pay them at all. Finally, losing patience, he wrote the merchant in question a rather threatening letter and, in reply, received the following communication.

Dear Sir—What do you mean by sending me a letter like the one you wrote on the tenth last? I know how to run my business. Every month I place all my bills in a basket and then figure out how much money I have to pay on my accounts. Next I blindfold my bookkeeper and have her draw as many bills out of the basket as I have money to pay for.

AT THE THEATERS

College Picture Showing At Star on Sunday

At last a college picture with a new, different approach has been produced. At last the intriguing round of college life in the United States has been divorced from the fanfare and slush of former, so-called college pictures which sickened collegiates and non collegiates alike.

"Varsity," which opens Sunday at the Star theater pictures college life as it is. It is a true and living record which any college man or woman can recognize as such and appreciate. There is none of the win-the-halftime-for-alma-mater type of balderdash woven into its dignified and beautiful theme.

Vera Reynolds In "Almost Human" at Arcade

Vera Reynolds knows her thrills! In one of the most thrilling scenes in her new starring picture, "Almost Human," which comes to the Arcade theater on Sunday, Miss Reynolds sees her baby being rapidly drawn in its carriage down the street by a huge dog.

Tom Tyler At Star In Western Film

Always noted for his daring horsemanship, Tom Tyler, PBO western star, is said to have featured his latest picture, "When the Law Rides," with more than 100 trial runs.
