92nd Birthday Anniversary Is Celebrated Here

On the occasion of her 92nd birthday which comes today, Mrs. Johanna Gangloff was the honor guest at a birthday dinner given yesterday at the Sacajawea Inn when members of the Foley and Rosch families were in attendance.

The dinner was held in the main dining room of the Inn. The table was decorated with a centerpiece of red carnations to do honor to Mrs. Gangloff on the day which she celebrated with her children and grandchildren and their families.

Those who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bowry, and daughter, Joan; Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Foley, and children Mercedes and Tom; of The Dalles; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Foley and daughters, Mariotta and Elizabeth; Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Fitzgerald and daughter, Nancy; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Brady and daughter, Louanna; Mr. and Mrs. Julius Rosch, Mrs. Mary T. Foley, Mrs. Margaret and Herman Rosch.

The Daughters of Nile met Saturday at the home of Mrs. E. A. McEachern. About eight members were in attendance for the afternoon which was spent sewing on articles for the Shrine hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Padlock entertained a group of friends Saturday evening with bridge. High score prize went to Mrs. Lillian Green and low to Mr. Green. Two tables were at play.

Mrs. Padlock served a two-course luncheon at the close of the evening.

Epworth Leagues In Joint Meeting

About 25 young people of the Epworth League of the First Methodist church, from five to sixty, a "Fellowship Hour" was enjoyed followed by the serving of a hot lunch. During the service, Norman Sting sang a very beautiful solo, "Beside Still Waters" with Miss Genevieve Adler playing the accompaniment. A saxophone solo was given by Paul Hull with Miss Phyllis Peterson at the piano. Short talks were given by the representatives of the two societies.

After the "Fellowship Hour" the young people went into their regular devotional meeting, the lesson, "Problems We Face" having been interestingly carried on by Miss Bethmyr Miller. The devotions were in charge of Norman Sting and two special musical numbers were given. Miss Genevieve Adler played a piano number and George Moats, a harp solo. Rev. Hansen and Rev. Hally, pastor of the two churches spoke on the general subject, "Racial Difficulties". A very lively discussion followed.

Committees responsible for the success of the evening were, recitation, George Moats and Eugene Cates; refreshments, LaVelle Richley, Faye Hamilton, Ben Hicks and Adam Leighton; entertainment, Phyllis Peterson and Bethmyr Miller.

George Moats, whose birthday was Thursday, and Vernon Patton, whose birthday was Saturday, were the honor guests at a surprise dinner party given yesterday afternoon by Miss Berneta Pierson at her home.

The table was decorated with flowers. For the dessert two lovely birthday cakes were brought in. The guests were: Bethmyr Miller, Iona Hardman, Evelyn Piper, Mary Lou Piper, Charline Faus, Eugene Cates, Paul Hull, Adam Leighton, Charles Wainum, George Moats, Vernon Patton and Berneta Pierson.

The Degree of Honor Protective association is planning a regular meeting for Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at Eagles' hall when installation of officers will be held. Mrs. Minnie Card, state president of the association, will be installing officer.

It is hoped that all members will be present for the meeting and for the program and refreshments which will follow the lodge session.

At the meeting of the Central Parent-Teacher association held Friday afternoon at the Presbyter-ian church, Lester Bramwell, La Grande banker, spoke to the members on "Thrift". The meeting was opened by the Rev. J. George Wain and was presided over by Mrs. H. P. Tyler in the absence of the president, Mrs. Herbert Hanna.

The program by the school children consisted of songs and recitations. Seventeen children from Miss Deal's and Miss Stella Ingel's first grade rooms sang the following songs: "Snow Flakes", "Little January", "Jackie Frost", "Ba, Ba, Black Sheep", and "Santa Claus".

Kenneth Bray sang a solo entitled "Motor Car", and Jerry Neal sang "Sonny Day".

Barbara Conley recited "I Have a Pain in My Saw-Just", and Ruth Zurbick sang "Go to Sleep, My Dolly".

The attendance prize for the month was awarded to Mrs. Heasley's fifth grade room.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST — Baked apples with cereal and cream, baked sausages with fried bananas, extra toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON — Veal timbales, creamed peas, prune and cabbage salad, whole wheat bread and butter sandwiches, milk, tea.

DINNER — Casserole of fish, spinach and mushrooms, fresh fruits in lemon jelly with whipped cream, milk, coffee.

None of the ingredients are cooked in the luncheon salad. Fine prunes are soaked in cold water for 24 hours and stoned. Cabbage is finely shredded and crisped in cold water, drained and used in place of lettuce as nests for the prunes. New carrots are grated, seasoned with salt, paprika and orange juice and heaped in a mound between the prunes. Match-like pieces of celery are sprinkled over the vegetables and the whole is served with French dressing.

Baked Sausages with Fried Bananas
Eight small sausages, 8 fingers of toast, 4 bananas, orange juice, flour.

Brick sausages with a fork and placed in a iron spider. Cover and put in a moderate oven. Brown on one side and then turn and brown on the other. It will take about 50 minutes to cook the sausages thoroughly. Place each sausage on toast on a hot platter and surround with fried bananas.

Stults Witness

One of the state's chief witnesses in the trial of Harvey L. Smith, former private detective of South Bend, Ind., on the charge of murdering Mrs. Genevieve Stults, former Mishawaka, Ind., beauty parlor proprietor for 15th, is Mrs. Joseph Bartoski, of South Bend, sister of the dead woman. Smith was said to have been retained by Mrs. Jane Reyer of South Bend "to secure Mrs. Stults out of town" because of an alleged illicit love affair between Reyer and Mrs. Stults.
