CORVALLIS, Ore., Feb. 5 (AP)—Led by Billard and Grayson, Oregon State turned back the invading Montana basketball quintet here last night, 28 to 26. Montana was leading at half time and during most of the second period, when Grayson sank one to give the Orangemen a 21-20 lead. The Staters then gradually worked the count to 28 to 22. Montana started flinging long ones, sinking two, and was going at full speed as the gun ended the game. Chinke for Montana and Billard for Oregon State staged an individual scoring battle, Chinke coming out ahead by 13 to 12.

LEADERSHIP AT STAKE
 MOSCOW, Idaho, Feb. 5 (AP)—Leadership of the northern division of the Pacific coast conference was to be at stake tonight when Washington State college, sharing the lead with the University of Washington, meets the Idaho Vandal basketball squad, in third place. The Cougars are at the top with three victories and no defeats while Idaho had two victories and one defeat. A loss to the Vandals would place the Washington Husky crew on top, while if Washington State won from Idaho, they would have unquestioned supremacy for the time being.

Brothers—All Grid Players

Speaking of your brother acts in sports, what about the Gills of California? There are four of them: all football players, studying at Berkeley at this time and they say two more are coming along in a year or two. Frank, left above, was varsity halfback this year and Harry, next to him, was varsity guard. Ralston, below Frank, was freshman halfback, and Sam, right below, entered school recently as a freshman after a great football career in high school.

higher today with the prospect that Van Tuyle, Buckley and Mavdowell would be in condition to play. They had been taking turns on the hospital list.
EMANUEL HAS OPPORTUNITY THIS EVENING
 LOS ANGELES, Feb. 5 (AP)—Armand Emanuel, youthful San Francisco lawyer-boxer whose fight hopes were toppled into oblivion several months ago by the rocky fists of Mickey Walker, many pounds smaller, today again stood on the threshold of opportunity, this time on the trail that leads to the vacant heavyweight throne. Young in years and experience, but the most promising of the west's hopes in the quest for Gene Tunney's relinquished honors, Emanuel tonight, for the second time, will fight Tommy Loughran, light-heavyweight king who, if late, has been pursuing the heavyweight crown. In New York last June Emanuel accepted a match with Loughran on five days notice, substituting for Jimmy Slattery. The champion was given the decision, but many thought it should have been awarded to Emanuel.
 The Kelllogg treaty seems to have overlooked the little matter of gas and electric light franchises as a cause of war.

Dempsey Keeps Young Stribling Out of The Air

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 5 (AP)—Young Stribling does not expect to fly today. Nor tomorrow. Nor any other day until he has kept his February 27 battle engagement with Jack Sharkey in Flamingo arena.

Promoter Jack Dempsey is determined that flying shall have no place on the conditioning program of the Maron boxer aviator. He is so determined that he has stopped asking the Georgian to stay on the ground and has filed injunction proceedings to keep Stribling out of the air.
 Young Stribling purchased an airplane several years ago, and has hopped about the country in it for his various matches.
 Stribling today was prepared for his usual two and one-half miles of road work, which his opponent expected to put in a hard round of posing for camera men.
 Sharkey has been invited to go through an exhibition with his sparring partners in Tampa Friday night, and Dempsey may accompany him to the west coast city.

Battle Over Referee
 The managers' battle over the referee began yesterday. Dempsey has advised "Pa" Stribling and Johnny Buckley, managers of the principals that if his opponent has been made a week before the fight, he will choose the referee himself.
 Among those already mentioned for the job are Dave Miller and Walter Eckersall, Chicago; Ed Dickerson, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Tom Reilly, Philadelphia; Lou Mackolla and Jack O'Sullivan, New York; Max Hinkle, Cleveland; Slim Mettelund, Detroit and two unnamed Massachusetts referees.

Jinx Is Still On Mandell's Trail

PEORIA, Ill., Feb. 5 (AP)—The injury jinx has tagged Sammy Mandell, world's lightweight champion, again.
 Mandell wrenched his left shoulder in the ninth round of his non-championship match with Don Davis last night and appeared badly hurt although his manager, Eddie Kane, said it would not keep him out of the ring for long. Mandell won the decision, easily in 10 rounds.
 Last fall his collar bone was fractured, forcing a rest of several months.
 Men at 45 should begin to disappear, says Sir Arthur K. T. But that's just when most of them begin to expand.

MATSUYAMA WINS FROM HOREMANS

Diminutive Jap Winner Opening Game in 18.2 Billiard Tourney

By Herbert W. Barker (Associated Press Sports Writer)
 NEW YORK, Feb. 5 (AP)—The world's 18.2 ballline billiards crown rested a trifle insecurely on Edward Horemans' curly-thatched head today.
 The slim Belgian made an in-suspicious start in defense of the game's most coveted title last night when he bowed to Kinroy Matsuyama, the pint-sized Japanese, 400 to 292 in 18 innings. It was the first match in the championship round-robin tournament in which Horemans stakes his crown against the assaults not only of Matsuyama but also of Welker Cochran and young Jake Schaffer, of the United States, Eric Hagenlacher, of Germany, and Felix Grange of France.
 Somewhere between his hotel quarters and the Level club, scene of the tournament, Horemans lost his control and there lies the whole story of his defeat by little Matsuyama.
 Not once during the dull and lengthy match did the champion exhibit the uncanny control of the balls that won for him the title in a challenge test against Cochran last March. Horemans spent most of the evening trying to make points with the balls at either end, or side, of the table. Only twice did he compile runs of better than 50. Trailing by 24 to 112 at the end of the 11th inning, the champion temporarily forgot his nervousness and collected a string of 59. He followed this streak with a collection of 58 in the fifteenth inning and added 44 on his next and last attempt. These three runs, his best of the evening, could not save him from overwhelming defeat but they did contrive to make the score a bit more respectable.
 While Horemans was following the balls all over the table and giving vent to his disgust by some extremely expressive grunts and shrugs of his shoulders, Matsuyama, the five-foot, boy-faced stolid Japanese, was running up points with a display of steady, if not particularly brilliant, billiards. At times he took many chances but as a general rule he was content to play a safe and conservative game and let Horemans beat himself. The Japanese had three runs of better than 50, running 74 in his second inning; 67 in his eighth and 59 in his 10th. After that his total mounted slowly except for the fourteenth inning when he collected 40 and in the 16th when he closed out the match with an unfinished run of 20.
 Matsuyama's match average of 25 was hardly impressive but it was more than enough to give the Japanese the victory. Incidentally it was his first triumph in the last two 18.2 ballline tournaments. He failed to win a game in the last one at Washington in 1927. Horemans' average was 18.4-14.

 This afternoon Cochran and Hagenlacher, both former title holders are to clash. Tonight Schaefer, another ex-champion meets Grange.

Butler Bulldog Team Hoping To Win U. S. Title

CHICAGO, Feb. 5 (AP)—The Butler Bulldogs from Indianapolis have made another leap toward the mythical national basketball championship for 1929.
 Although handicapped by injuries, the Bulldogs added another scalp to their already impressive collection last night by drubbing Illinois 33 to 28, in a furiously fought game at Champaign. They already have conquered such powerful teams as Purdue, Pittsburg, Missouri and North Carolina.
 Chicago, the collar team of the Big Ten, upset the Bulldogs early in the season for their only defeat. Carl Hildebrand, scorer and scoring ace, was absent from the Butler lineup last night because of an injury suffered at Evansville, Ind. Saturday night, while Captain White ran into a wall and had to be taken out during the game.

Wild Bill Wins Third Straight Golf Tourney

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Feb. 5 (AP)—Trilled by a score or more of golf's outstanding luminaries, "Wild Bill" McIlhenny trooped out of Hot Springs last night with the major portion of the $5,000 prize money in the annual South-Central open tournament tucked away in his pocket.
 The victory yesterday after an 18-hole playoff with Bobby Cruickshank and Horton Smith, was McIlhenny's third major win in a few weeks.
 McIlhenny had little trouble yesterday in distancing his two rivals, finishing two under par 72 to lead Smith by two strokes and Wee Bobby by six. After the three had tied at 290 strokes at the end of the 72-hole play.
 The Pensacola open was the immediate objective today of the traveling golfers.

Chief officer Harry Manning says:

"Reach for a Lucky instead of a sweet."

"WHEN I climbed aboard the 'America' after those cold, strenuous hours getting the men off the freighter 'Florida,' there was nothing I wanted so much as a Lucky—'By George,' it tasted wonderful! A Lucky is always refreshing. My tense nerves relaxed, my aching throat was soothed and the whole thrilling adventure just seemed a part of the day's work. As time goes by, and as I look back to that memorable night, I'll always remember the wonderful taste of that welcome Lucky. As I went around to visit the men we'd rescued, I found many of them enjoying Luckys, too. We really couldn't wait to get back to our ship and 'Lucky's.' As an actual fact in returning to the 'America' I noticed one of our men* rowing with one hand and lighting a 'Lucky' with the other. There's no flavor to equal toasted tobaccos, and I always prefer Lucky Strikes. There's wisdom in the saying: 'Reach for a Lucky instead of a sweet.' It helps a man to keep physically fit and we who follow the sea must always be prepared for any emergency."

*The man mentioned by Chief Officer Manning was Boatswain's Mate Aloys A. Wilson.

Note: Authorities attribute the enormous increase in Cigarette smoking to the improvement in the process of Cigarette manufacture by the application of heat. It is true that during the year 1928, Lucky Strike Cigarettes showed a greater increase than all other Cigarettes combined. This surely confirms the public's confidence in the superiority of Lucky Strike.
