

Pondosa Man Is Painfully Hurt By Lumber Cars

By Mrs. M. F. Raymond (Observer Correspondent) PONDOSA, Ore. (Special)—Vernie Strong met with a painful accident when he was caught between two truck loads of lumber and his shoulder and arm severely wrenched and twisted. He was taken to Baker for medical treatment, but was able to return home the same day.

A funny picture dancer was given at the school home Saturday evening by the Sunday school. Each person dressed to represent some character out of the funny paper. A prize for the best individual character went to Mrs. W. H. Duncan as Lord Plumbottom. The prize for the best group went to Mrs. M. F. Raymond as Maggie, Mrs. Leslie Robinson as Jiggs, Mrs. Chester Thompson as the daughter, and Miss Marie Conlogue as Count Decay. The judges were Mrs. Stewart Doby, Mrs. P. J. Powers and Thomas J. Powers.

Mrs. James Wade returned from La Grande Friday with her niece Betty Smith, who will make her home here indefinitely. The members of the Medical Springs Women's club entertained their husbands with a card party Thursday evening at the school house. Both pinocle and 500 were played. High score and second prizes were given the men, the guests of the club, as follows: for pinocle first to Frank Whitten, second to W. J. Cantrell and for 500, first prize went to P. J. Powers and second to Henry Maxfield. Following the games, refreshments of hot tamales, fruit salad, cake and cocoa were served. Mrs. James Gobel, Mrs. Mary Murray and Miss Maxine Duncan were members of the refreshments committee. About 22 couples were present.

John and George Earl Murray, sons of L. G. Murray, returned Saturday after two weeks stay in La Grande. While away John had tonsils and adenoids removed. The Blue Bird Girls gave their teacher, Mrs. Trisal Hansen, a surprise handkerchief shower at the home of Mrs. S. A. Robinson Sunday evening. The five girls present were, Jean and Mabel Bradshaw, Delora Bennett, Wilma Larsen and Velma Robinson. The girls served refreshments and were assisted by Mrs. M. J. Lurwill. The surprise was to have taken place at the home of Mrs. Hansen, but on account of her recent having the mumps, plans had to be changed.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Maxfield entertained a group of friends at their home from 4:30 until 9 o'clock Sunday evening. A variety of games was played and appetizing refreshments served. Mrs. T. Christensen visited from Sunday until Friday with Mr. and Mrs. John Stoddard. Mr. Christensen is a bookkeeper for the Grande Ronde Lumber company and formerly lived here, but has been transferred to Baker where they now make their home.

M. G. Murray has moved to La Grande, where he has employment with the Mt. Emmit Lumber Co. Mr. Murray was with the Grande Ronde Lumber Co. for several years. Glen Fuller, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Fuller, who, with his brother Lowell is attending high school at Elgin, had his foot frozen last week. Sunday his mother and father and Mrs. Edward Lark and Mrs. D. E. Nelson drove to Elgin, returning Monday afternoon. They report the boys' foot is improving nicely.

ELIMINATE 200 OFFENSES LANSING, Mich., Feb. 7 (AP)—More than 200 offenses are eliminated from the list of felonies now included in the habitual criminal section of Michigan's criminal code under provisions of an amendment to the code designed to remove liquor offenses and others of a so-called minor nature from the life penalty provision. The measure providing for the changes, drafted by Wilbur M. Bricker, attorney general, was before the house judiciary committee today.

LEGISLATURE BUSY OLYMPIA, Wash., Feb. 7 (AP)—With the governor's tax recommendations beginning to be laid before them, Washington State legislators were ready today to thresh out the bills that will be most vital to the state's pocket-book.
