CLOSE DECISION GOES TO LOMSKI

Majority of Crowd, However, Think Griffith Is Entitled to the Nod

By Charles W. Donkley Associated Press Sports Writer LOS ANGELES, Feb. 15 (AP)—Jerry Griffith, the winner from Mount St. Louis today, is a popular if not an official decision over Lou Lomski, acknowledged as the leading challenger for the world's light heavyweight championship...

Battle Very Close The favored ring observers agreed today that the battle was so close that it could have been awarded to either man. McTeland figured that Lomski, the "Avocado" from Aberdeen, Wash., was the last three rounds by a considerable margin and therefore was entitled to the nod.

Lomski Held in Eighth Lomski began to cut down Griffith's lead in the seventh round, although his margin was slender. He began to move out in front in the eighth, the best round, when he outboxed and outspiced his lower rival. Continuing his aggressive attack in the ninth and tenth, Lomski's left hand shot out fast and he brought blood from Tuffy's nose.

When You Plan A Bridge Dinner---

You are concerned with two important factors that will make it a success. First the menu must be satisfying, appetizing, both in appearance and in taste; and second, you must have pleasant and comfortable facilities for the evening at cards.
