"Get Rich Quick" Schemes are Abundant

---But How Many Of Them Ever Pay Any Dividends?

Every community is besieged at frequent intervals by high-powered promoters who have a "get rich quick" scheme that sounds like the chance you've been waiting for—but few people ever get their original investment back, to say nothing of any dividends.

Whatever the proposition is—whether it requires $10 or $1000—be sure to investigate thoroughly before you invest. Ask your banker what he knows about it; explain the proposition to him; go slow.

Real chances to make big money are not being offered to the general public. The safe and sane investments typical of your local Building & Loan association are the most dependable—with no regrets later on. We charge no membership fee, levy no fines. Your money is always available.
