Dick Hanley Is Against Change

CHICAGO, Feb. 19—(AP)—The change in the fumble rule does not meet the approval of Dick Hanley, head football coach for Northwestern University.

"We must consider the spectator in football and when we take away the thrilling long runs after a recovery of a fumble, we're taking away something vital," said Hanley.

Well, if the styles continue as they are, we're not in any danger now of petticoat government.

MID-WEST SPEED KING IS VICTOR

Elden, of Notre Dame, Defeats Percy Williams—Vaults 14 Feet

By Herbert W. Barker (Associated Press Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Feb. 19—(AP)—A heavy muscled football star has come out of the middle west to beat Percy Williams, Vancouver sprinter, at his own game.

Jack Elden, halfback on the last Notre Dame football team, furnished the track season with a sensation last night when he conquered Williams in a 60-yard dash at the annual New York A. C. games in Madison Square Garden.

It was the first defeat of Williams' career. The double Olympic sprinter, champion, up to last night, had met the greatest sprinters in the world at varying distances and always with the same success. During his present American invasion the Vancouver youth had downed all the leading eastern sprinters, including Karl Wildermuth of Georgetown, Jimmy Quinn of the New York A. C., and Jimmy Daley of Holy Cross. What is more he had trimmed Elden decisively in the Meadowbrook games at Philadelphia last week.

Famous "Kick" Fails

But Elden was not to be denied last night. He was off to a perfect start, sped down the straightaway like an express train and had just enough left to stand off Williams' closing burst of speed. Williams was slow off his mark, as usual, but his famous "kick" near the finish failed by half a yard to nip the flying Elden. The time, six and two-fifths seconds, failed by one-fifth of a second to equal the world's record. John Fitzpatrick, another Canadian, was third, a step or two ahead of Quinn and Bob Wiese, of the New York A. C.

The games developed two new world records and an amazing pole vault of 14 feet by Fred Sturdy, of Yale.

Weems Haskin, now competing for the N. Y. A. C., shaved a fifth of a second off the indoor mark for the 40-yard high hurdles, clearing the four barriers in 7 2-5 seconds in one of the trial heats. He was beaten in the finals by a clubmate, Carl King, in 7 4-5 seconds. A Newark Prep school relay team shagled the interscholastic record for the mile which was turned in 3:30 2-5, a second faster than the former mark set by the same school in Philadelphia two years ago.

Sturdy, who was forced to take a back seat in competition last year because Yale's best pole vaulter happened to be one Sabin Carr, came within an inch of his famous former teammates' indoor world's record of 14 feet, one inch. Sturdy needed his 14-foot performance to nose out Victor Pickard, of the University of Pittsburgh, who competed for Canada in the last Olympics. Pickard cleared 13 feet 10 inches. Sturdy failed in three attempts to break Carr's record with the stick set at 14 feet, one and one-half inches. Franko Nurni turned in the fastest two miles of the season to beat a mediocre handicap field. The Finn's time was 9:15 2-5, far behind his world's record of 8:58 1-5 set in the same games four years ago.

O.-W. Basketball Tournament In Portland Sunday

The O.-W. basketball team won a practice game last night from the M. J. A. 29 to 17. The game was played in preparation for the O.-W. tournament to be held in Portland Sunday when the La Grande, Portland and Seattle teams will play for the championship. Last year La Grande was runner-up to Seattle. The winner will enter the system tournament in Denver.

Besides the basketball tourney, bowling matches will also be held in Portland and La Grande will enter a team in this event.

Boston Man May Referee Strib, Sharkey Battle

By Edward J. Neil (Associated Press Sports Writer)

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 19 (AP)—The layhoo or not the layhoo seemed to be the question today as the rumbly of a war over referees broke the calm and beauty of Stockland by the Sea. The opinion was general that Johnny Broad, 48-year-old veteran of New England rings, would referee the fracas on February 27 between Jack Stribling, the slant salter, and Young Strubling, clean-cut Georgian. And everyone seemed certain of this despite "Pa" Stribling's outraged declaration that he didn't raise his boy to fight Boston heavyweights with a Boston referee in the same ring.

All the shooting, whether real or feigned, hinges on the interpretations of the contracts the two fighters hold directly with Madison Square Garden corporation and indirectly with Jack Dempsey, the former champion who is learning about fight promotion from two contenders for his old crown, Johnny Buckley, plump little manager of the Bostonian, says the issue is settled by the naming of Broad and Jack Sheehan, both Boston referees, to the disputed post by the Massachusetts state athletic commission. Pa Stribling says the fight has just begun.

The general opinion is that Broad already has been named to handle the major fistcliffs a week from Wednesday night. Since Florida has no boxing commission and no state code governing a match of this kind, the rules of the Massachusetts commission probably will govern the fray. This also stirs the Stribling ire because no draw decisions are permitted under the Massachusetts code.

Regardless of the referee controversy that has not rattled the hair of Dempsey's stock head, nor given him visible signs of worry, the battle has been given its final battle—last toward success. There is close to $250,000 in cash receipts already in the box office, a huge pile of reservations, and interest growing daily. The city already is packed to the saturation point with visitors. The best guess as to the ultimate "gate" ranges between $250,000 and $400,000.

Back in Majors

The St. Louis Cards had Heinie Schulte two years ago but found him lacking in experience to play shortstop regularly. After a year in the minors, Schulte is back in the majors, this time with Detroit. He hopes to fill the shoes of Jack Tavener, sent to Cleveland in the Uhle trade.

Girl Tossers Preparing For Class Contests

Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons from 3 to 4:30 o'clock are busy times for the girls at La Grande High school who are participating in basketball. The scene of the season's athletic activity is the high school gymnasium. For the next two weeks the girls will practice and will then begin class competition games. At the end of the competition the all-star teams will be chosen, says Miss Eleanor Glass, coach. Doris Cade, Ludora Laughlin, Mildred Standley and Jane Stange are assisting Miss Glass with the coaching.

The teams which have been chosen for each class are: Group I: Charlene Evans, Doris Cade, Ludora Laughlin, Mildred Standley, Marva Lyman, captain; Jane Stange, Group II: Elizabeth Hoos, Virginia Wurl, Ruth Durland, Bethah Prouty, Hester Hopkins, captain; Margaret Douhan.

There Goes the Clock!

When one lives in an apartment house one hesitates about buying the alarm clock, ring out its chime call on the early morning air. Snap a heavy rubber band around the sides and the bell of the clock. It will muffle the bell enough to prevent its annoying anyone but the person it is meant to annoy.

FOOCHOW, China (AP)—The nationalist government's ban on gambling has created a new demand for motion pictures. For centuries gambling has been the principal form of entertainment offered by Chinese hosts to their guests.

Murkison, Elde Grithuber, Mary Bantz, Second team: Naomi Jackson, Eileen Conradt, Wilma Steop, Elva Twidwell, captain; Gerry Newcker, Lucile Price. Substitutes, Maravene Kiddle, Ethel Greiner.

Huskies Clinch First Place In Basketball Race

SEATTLE, Feb. 19 (AP)—University of Washington's basketball quintet clinched the leadership in the northern division of the Pacific coast conference here last night by scoring a 42 to 19 victory over Washington State college. Their victory assured the holding of the three-game series with the University of California quintet, champions of the southern division, for the coast championship.

OREGON LOSER

EUGENE, Ore., Feb. 19 (AP)—Idaho took a close basketball game from Oregon here last night, 29 to 27, outplaying the Webfooters in the first half, 14 to 11 and splitting in the second half to effect Oregon's hard bid for victory.

PLAY-OFF MARCH 1

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19 (AP)—The Bears of the University of California and the Huskies of the University of Washington will meet in Seattle, March 1 for a three-game series to decide the championship of the Pacific coast basketball conference.

The University of Idaho Vandals remained today in second place in the northern division and will finish the road trip tonight at Corvallis, where it will meet Oregon State.

"Voila!" reach for a Lucky instead of a sweet -

the trim figure is always fashionable

Paul Poiret, Famous Parisian Creator of Fashions

"If you want to keep slender (and who doesn't in these days) avoid sweets and smoke Lucky Strikes. There seems to be something about them; possibly the flavor, that satisfies the craving for the rich things that add weight.

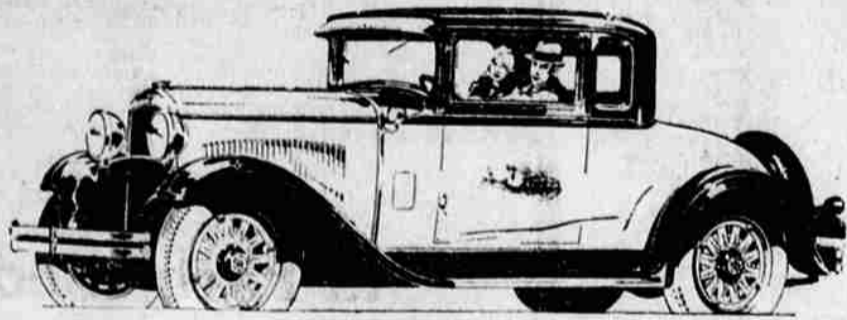

"Voila," reach for a Lucky instead of a sweet—the trim figure is always fashionable. Advertisements that I saw when I recently arrived in America, said:—"The best way for sugar to be eaten is as a flavor of foods". They are quite correct in cautioning a modified use of sugar. Sweets to excess are bad. I advocate a few puffs of the Lucky Strike toasted flavor when sweets tempt.

"I may add that I smoke Lucky Strikes myself, and I think they have contributed much to the state of mind which has helped me to create my greatest successes.

"Lucky Strikes are certainly an inspiration!"

PAUL POIRET

Note: Authorities attribute the enormous increase in Cigarette smoking to the improvement in the process of Cigarette manufacture by the application of heat. It is true that during 1928, Lucky Strike Cigarettes showed a greater increase than all other Cigarettes combined. This surely confirms the public's confidence in the superiority of Lucky Strike.
