Importance of Water

In the old days water was the cause of many blights between individuals and tribes. It still is the cause of disputes in the cattle country and in the oil territory. Water is essential to the drilling of an oil well and often expensive.

Speedy Relief For Sore Throat

Safe Prescription Requires No Gargling

No longer is it necessary to gargle or to choke with nasty tasting patent medicines or gargles to relieve sore throat. Now you can get almost instant relief with one swallow of a famous doctor's prescription called Thosine. It is a double action, relieves the soreness and goes direct to the internal cause not reached by gargles, salves, and patent medicines. Thosine does not contain iron, chloroform or dope, is pleasant tasting, harmless and safe for the whole family. Also excellent for coughs; stops them almost instantly. Quick relief guaranteed or your money back. 35c, 60c and $1.00. Sold by Red Cross Drug Store and all other good drug stores. —Adv.

AT THE THEATERS

Hilarious Action In "Love Over Night" Sunday

Plenty of hilarious action taken place in "Love Over Night," Rod La Rocque's new star comedy which comes to the Colonial theater on Sunday. La Rocque is seen as a subway worker, Jeanette Loff as a pretty fortune hunter and Tom Kennedy as a stupid detective. A particularly funny sequence finds Kennedy pursuing the other principals through the concessions of Coney Island, whilst comedy and thrills are nicely apportioned in a subway train holdup and the kidnapping of a bride.

Hector Turnbull, producer of "Hold 'Em, Yale," a recent Rod La Rocque star vehicle which gave the star plenty of fun making opportunities, also produced "Love Over Night." All the fun makers of that aggregation are reunited in this one which is acclaimed by those who have seen it as a "hundred per cent" comedy melodrama.

Jack Holt At Arcade In "Submarine"

There is a fast-moving, soul-stirring drama at the Arcade theater Sunday entitled "Submarine." The photodrama affords Jack Holt opportunity to perform numerous and thrilling feats under water as a diver. Some of the greatest deep sea action that has ever been our privilege to witness is included in the picture.

Ralph Graves, as Holt's buddy, does a fine piece of work and keeps Holt on the qui vive lest he lose the picture. Dorothy Revier is another member of the cast, who plays the dance hall girl for all she is worth, the fickle nature, the marry in haste and repent in leisure attitude, the unfaithfulness and the love of a good time are all to be found in her portrayal. Arthur Rankin gives a beautiful interpretation of a death scene.

The action revolves around the friendship of two petty officers in the navy, who are ready to sacrifice their lives for each other. One marries and the other unknowingly flirts with his buddy's wife. When the husband finds it out there is trouble. The husband is the best diver in the navy and when his pal's submarine is rammed and sinks, the diver has to go down and save the friend, whom he believes betrayed him. The underwater sequences are thrilling. They more than make the hair stand on end and the cold chills play up and down the spine. Frank Capra, the director, has got every ounce of drama possible out of the sequence. He has shown a master touch in every scene and produced a film fabric that will go down as one of the outstanding productions of the year.

Buddy Rogers Is Featured In Film at Star

Charles (Buddy) Rogers second starring picture for Paramount, "Someone to Love," will be the attraction at the Star theater Sunday. In this picture, Mary Brian, who proved such a success opposite the star in his first starring vehicle, "Varsity," is cast in a leading role and is offered an unusual opportunity to exercise the winning personality which has won her many screen friends. In "Someone to Love," Rogers has the role of a music sheet salesman who falls in love with the daughter of a wealthy man. Through the blundering of his two companions, played by Jack Oakie and William Austin, the girl and her father get the impression that he is a fortune hunter. Rogers is unable to explain the situation and his romance is blighted.

Having lost his job at the music store, he accepts the commission to revive a failing girls' school. His high-pressure efforts, meet with success and the girl comes to the school to see the improvements. They meet again and are reconciled. The girl's father is won over and love is victorious. The story is one particularly suited to Rogers' personality. It is bright and quick with plenty of comedy included in its unusual plot. The supporting cast headed by Mary Brian, is excellent. Jack Oakie won instant success in Clara Bow's "The Fleet's In!" and William Austin is famed as the best character Englishman on stage or screen today.
