AT THE THEATERS

Jack Mulhall In "Naughty Baby" At the Star

Jack Mulhall, popular featured player in First National Pictures, who is co-featured with Alice White at the Star theater in "Naughty Baby," a spicy, fast-moving comedy-drama, holds a record unique in filmdom.

He has played opposite more blondes during his film career than any other star or leading man.

Alice White is the latest, and the list goes right back to Mary Pickford, via Dorothy Mackall, Greta Nissen and Lillian Gish. He also played opposite some famous brunettes, including Colleen Moore, Corinne Griffith, Norma and Constance Talmadge and Gloria Swanson.

Thomas Todd, Doris Dawson, James Ford, Benny Rubin, Fred Keasey, Roscoe Boone and twelve other notable supporting players appear in the cast of "Naughty Baby." Mervyn LeRoy, youngest of film directors, megaphoned the picture.

The production was made under the direction of Albert S. Rozeff with a cast including Gertrude Olmstead, Charles Gerrard, Lillian Tashman, Donald Keith, Florence Allen, Robert Elliott and Ruth Cherrington.

A television set provides one of the thrills of the picture and proved highly entertaining to the audience. Scenes showing the broadcasting and reception of messages over radio have been introduced into the action. Other highlights are an art auction in which many rare antiques are shown, a half-raising automobile ride over a wild stretch of road and a poignant love story.

Skin milk is often fed to bull calves for a longer period than hinders, says the Oregon experiment station. A bull calf may be carried on to eight or ten months of age, although he can be weaned at an earlier age if fed good leguminous hay or if he has the cut of good pasture in addition to a grain mixture. As it is desirable to keep the bull growing, it may be necessary to feed grain for best results. A good mixture is five parts of bran, four of ground oats and one of linseed meal.

OFFICE CAT

Nervous Patient: Will the anesthetic make me sick?
Doctor: No, I think not.
Patient: How long will it be before I know anything?
Doctor: Aren't you expecting too much of an anesthetic?

Lodger—Look here, I'm going to leave this place. The towels are not clean and I never can find any soap.
Landlady—Haven't you got a tongue in your head?
Lodger—Yes, but I'm not a cat.

"Bridget, has Johnnie come home from school yet?"
"Yes, sir."
"Have you seen him?"
"No, sir."
"Then how do you know he's home?"
"Cause the cat's hidden under the store, sir."

When John wrote back from college that he was playing quarter back, his dad went down town and told that his boy was now a "hand quarter at football."

And then there was the freshman who sent his pants to the Associated Press.

We'll begin to believe in woman's intuition when the average house wife can make toast without having to scrape it over the sink.

Income Tax Pointers

No. 25
Amounts paid or accrued within the taxable year 1928 as interest on indebtedness are deductible, with certain exceptions from gross income in determining net income. Such items include interest on money borrowed to defray personal expenses and money borrowed for the purchase of real estate. If a person owes money secured by a lien or mortgage on his home, the amount of interest paid on such indebtedness may be deducted. Interest, however, need not be evidenced by lien, judgment, or mortgage to make the interest thereon deductible. Frequently indebtedness is evidenced only by note without additional security.

Providing pleasant surroundings for hired labor helps create better working conditions for the hired man. A pleasant room if the help lives in the employer's home; or if he is married a cozy, attractive cottage increases contentment. Contented help is more likely to stay permanently and be more efficient, says the Oregon experiment station.
