Mrs. Fleming And Mrs. Roehm Speak At Club Meeting

Mrs. R. S. Fleming and Mrs. Charles Roehm gave interesting papers and talks yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the Art Research club at the home of Mrs. Lynn Wright. Mrs. Roehm's subject was "St. Joshua" Reynolds, and Mrs. Fleming's was "Thomas Gainsborough." Mrs. Fleming also compared the works of the two artists.

About 20 members of the club were present at the meeting.

The artists, Correggio and Andrea del Sarto, were discussed yesterday at an interesting meeting of the Hamblers Art club held at the home of Miss Margaret Anson.

Mrs. George Hirale was in charge of the program and told of the two artists. Mrs. Blinnie also read Browning's poem, "Andrea del Sarto."

Mrs. L. V. Johnson who is leaving soon for her new home in Townsend, Mont., was pleasantly surprised yesterday afternoon by members of the Lucky Dozen club at the home of Mrs. S. C. Smith. The delightful three-course luncheon arranged by members of the club was served at 1 o'clock.

After the luncheon an hour of visiting was enjoyed. As a token of regard and with best wishes for success, Mrs. Johnson was presented with a beautiful picture of Watona lake.

Miss Marguerite Klopfenstein, who is leaving tomorrow night for Pulaski, Va., where she has accepted a position with the Pulaski Engineering company, was the honor guest at a handkerchief shower and party last night given by a group of her friends in La Grande.

Camp Fire Girls Receive Honors

Twenty-three Camp Fire girls won two health honors each at the joint meeting of the Scandinavia group and the newly organized group of Mrs. Clyde Davis, which met in the room of the Scandinavia group yesterday afternoon after school.

Dr. Leva Wilkes gave tests for passing the examination for the rank. The quiz included demonstration and knowledge of care of the feet during hikes to keep them in the best condition. Treatment of three kinds of wounds was also part of the examination.

Before the meeting Jean French and Myrtle Schultz put the camp fire room in order to win a public service honor.

The Pukwana Camp Fire girls are holding a dinner tonight in the basement of the Methodist church. The hostesses are the girls who are candidates for the rank of fire maker. Mrs. V. E. Hall, acting superintendent in the absence of Mrs. R. F. Tyler, will attend the dinner which will take place at 6:30 o'clock.

Honoring Mrs. Albert Lamm on the occasion of her birthday anniversary Marieje Halnes and Velma Charlton were hostesses at a delightful party at her home at 2402 North Ash street Sunday afternoon. A birthday cake with candles and birthday gifts from the guests were features of the afternoon which was enjoyed by the honor guest and Mrs. J. K. Charlton, Bernova Hunt, Mrs. Ed Workman, Gwendith Workman, Inez Charlton and the hostesses.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST—Baked apple with cream, hominy grits, broiled bacon, toast, coffee, and cocoa or milk for the children.

LUNCHEON—Cream of asparagus soup, minced ham or tongue or beef sandwiches, jelly with or without cream, tea.

DINNER—Irish stew, buttered kale, celery and olives, fresh apple pie with cheese, tea or coffee.

A breakfast cereal generally means the usual uncooked cereals of corn flakes, granoluts, puffed wheat or rice, or the usual oatmeal, cream of wheat or a wheatena of some sort. Hominy grits are a cereal ordinarily thought of only when seen on a restaurant menu.

It is no longer necessary to go through the tedious process of preparing hominy, as our mothers and grandmothers did. Hominy, ready to serve by merely warming, may be bought canned, or in dry bulk form, needing only soaking. It is perhaps a bit heavier than other cereals, and could not be used with the frequency of oatmeal or other cereals.

Neither is it necessary in this modern day to prepare cream soups in the home kitchen by the tedious process of cooking vegetables and making them into puree for the soup foundation. The market teems with very satisfactory cream soups made from every available soup vegetable, and it is merely a simple matter of opening can, adding milk, heating and serving with toasted crackers.

Irish stew may sound plebian, but on a frosty night nothing is quite so appetizing as this homely concoction of boiling beef cut into pieces, potatoes, carrot, turnip, celery, onion and cabbage.

VALUABLE GEMS MISSING
NEW YORK, Mar. 5 (AP)—Lost while ghosts walked at Texas Gulman's night club, a $10,000 diamond eurbust is missing from the gems of Mrs. Margot Collin. In the dark the spirit of Rudolph Valentino strummed the guitar and that of Arnold Rothstein evaded questions as to who shot him. On the way home Mrs. Collin discovered her loss.

A subcommittee of the National Crime Commission has recommended abolition of county jails. It does seem they might be better used in some counties.

NEW BATHING SUITS INSURE HEALTHY TAN

Skeleton Found Near Hollywood; Police Puzzled

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Mar. 5 (AP)—The skeleton of a woman, dead for more than a year, found on a hillside in Nichols canyon, only five blocks from Hollywood boulevard, a heavily travelled highway, yesterday involved police in one of the most mystifying investigations of recent years. The skull, severed from the body with strands of blonde hair still adhering to it, was discovered early last night by a group of student hikers. Later squads of police officers, searching the hillside with flashlights, found the remainder of the body, wrapped in apparently once-fashionable clothing.

The condition of both the skeleton and the head was such that investigators were unable to determine definitely whether the body had been decapitated immediately after death, or whether the skull had been torn away after disintegration had commenced. The cause of death also remained undetermined early today. Examination of the skull had failed to disclose any indentures which might have caused death.

From the tattered clothing in which the skeleton was wrapped, police determined that the woman was wearing a sports ensemble. The coat apparently was of rough woolen fabric, checked tan and green, with silk lining. In the right pocket of the coat a small coin purse was found, of brocaded satin, with a green holly design. Inside was a silver monogram "D", two $1 bills, and 60 cents in silver. The purse bore markings identifying it as having been purchased from Lenoir, 14 Rue Royal, Paris; 2146 inside the purse was the photograph of a woman, 50 or 55 years of age. Written upon it was the word "Mama." Detectives were attempting to decipher a coded address on a card, found in the purse with the picture.

All of the clothing on the skeleton appeared to have been of good quality. Dental work in the skull, officers said, indicated the woman to have been of middle age.

New Printed SILK CREPE DRESSES, 16 to 44 —$9.95—

She called it SIN —he called it A Noble Sacrifice

... who was right? STANDING in the shadows, Marvin Smith saw Jack's young wife come swiftly, silently into the moonlight. How tired she looked—how ragged her clothes. His pulse quickened. She was getting tired of the struggle. Soon, she would come to him... "Bobbie," he whispered. She stifled a cry. "What are you doing here? They were close to each other now, his body a flame, his arms aching to hold her. "Let me help you, Bobbie! I love you—I want to help you—" "But my husband..." "He'll never know. You ought to do it for his sake, Bobbie—he needs care and medical attention."

"This makes your dinner perfect"

"Thank you. Coffee does help, I think."
"But such good coffee. You must have a secret."
"Nothing but M-J-B."

Selected grades of green coffees from favored districts in far countries are combined in making the famous M-J-B Blend. Its full-bodied richness and rare flavor is developed and brought out by the M-J-B process of blending and aging before roasting.

Many people find that with M-J-B, the full-flavored blend, they use slightly less coffee. Whether you make it strong, mild or medium—M-J-B has the matchless coffee flavor that only the rich blend can give.

M-J-B is vacuum-sealed in the new improved friction top key-cans by M-J-B's own patented process. Ask for M-J-B coffee at your grocery. Look for the letters on each can.

FROM RADIO TO TALKIE STARDOM

The movies raided the legitimate stage, and now the "talkies" are out raiding the radio lanes. Among the first casualties is the signing of Myrtle McLaughlin, petite Irish soprano of San Francisco. KTR, to be seen and heard in two big new talkie-music movies.
