PHILADELPHIA'S INFIELD STRONG
National League Club Expected to Push Way Out of the Cellar

By BRIAN HELL.
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
WINTER HAVEN, Fla., March 5 (AP)—Supporters of the Philadelphia Nationals hope and believe that they have lost the jewel of baseball since the last season ended. The Phillies have consistently finished last in the National League race of late and any chance must be for the better.

Early signs at the training camp indicate that Bert Shotton, now a sophomore manager, at least has a chance to push his team out of the cellar.

A late question mark remains after the pitchers' names but the rest of the line up has been so improved that even if the pitching is no better than it was in 1928 it will show more results.

Good Infield
Manager Shotton is able to offer a good infield, full outfield and two excellent catchers. He finds his stock on the shelves for emergency left hand but may be able to do something in the way of replacements later.

The most encouraging development for Phillies fans is in the infield. Tommy Thompson seems certain to play great ball of shortstop. The star of the 1928 world series, when he wore a St. Louis Cardinal uniform, has recovered from a broken leg, suffered in 1927, and runs without the slightest suggestion of a limp.

Fred Thompson at second base is an established star and Arthur Whitney third, and Don Hurst first, are well on the road that leads to baseball glory even with a tall end team. The 1928 season marked the first year in fast company for Whitney and Hurst and their manager believes that the experience gained under the will show dividends this year. Whitney, 300 in his first chance, and Thompson and Hurst were not far away.

The Outfield.
Honey Peet, who came from St. Louis by way of Houston, Texas, apparently could not be denied a place in the outfield. Chuck Klein, who was promoted from Fort Wayne late in the season finished seasonally that he will be given a chance to repeat. Lefty O'Doul, former Giant and League Southern may divide outfield assignments. The veteran Cy Williams will be held in reserve.

Virgil Davis and Walter Lorian at 24 and 26 years of age, take rank with the great young catchers of the game and will share the receiving burden. A pair of Georges, pluck and speed, will be the other catching hope.

Three New Hurdles.
In addition to the pitchers brought over from the 1928 season, three new ones appear to have won places on the staff. Jack Muligan, back from Syracuse, is a left hander of promise. Two right handers from the Southern association may win starting positions for themselves. Luther Roy, late of Birmingham and with previous major league trials, and Phil Collins, up from New Orleans, where he pitched in 49 games, will be given extended observation. Holdovers include Ed Baecht, Ray Henge, Alex Ferguson, Bob McGraw, Lester "Sugar" Sweetland and Claude Wiloughby.

Dreyfuss Makes Offer To Waners; Trayner Injured

PABO BOHLER, Cal., Mar. 5 (AP)—Horney Dreyfuss, owner of the Pittsburgh club, today stated that he had offered Paul Waner a $1,000 increase over last year or $12,500 and had mentioned $1,000 for Lloyd, a $1,500 increase. This figure is $5,000 under the Waner's demand.

Trayner suffered a recurrence of his hip injury and may be out of practice until Monday.

GRIMES MAKING GOOD
WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Mar. 5 (AP)—Eddie Grimes, who was with Tulsa last year, will be the 9th. Louis Browns' regular third sacker this year if pre-season practice of Manager Dan Howley bear fruit. Grimes is being coached carefully for the pennant chase.

Another rookie getting special attention from Howley is Dick Perini, highly touted backstop, to whom the Browns paid a $25,000 bonus to sign. Perini attempted to get into infield practice yesterday and Howley immediately warned him away.

Dondora, a likely looking infielder, injured a finger on his tossing hand and was also taking things easy. Howley looks on "Don" to become one of the best graduates from the minors this year.

Local Gunners Hope To Avenge Sunday Losses

If the weather Sunday is good, the scatter gun artists of the La Grande Gun club hope to make up for two losses last Sunday in the Oregonian telegraphic shoot. At present the club has three wins, two losses and one tie. If this tie is shot off Sunday and if the other three matches could be advanced, the local shooters would be well up the list again.

The shooting will take place at Lone Tree during the morning with the local club to fire against the Marshfield, Coquille and Prineville-Hoodhead clubs.

A large attendance is hoped for.

Barbuti Accuses A. A. U. Official, Won't Give Name

NEW YORK, Mar. 5 (AP)—Ray Barbuti, Olympic 400-meter champion, will remain suspended from competition until he identifies the A. A. U. official he has charged with having permitted track and field athletes to receive more money than their expenses required.

A four-hour session of the registration committee of the Metropolitan association, A. A. U. last night, with Barbuti and several newspapermen as witnesses, failed to develop any new facts which might have permitted the suspension to be lifted.

Barbuti denied many of the published statements attributed to him but stoutly insisted his charges as to over-payment on expenses accounts were true and that a "certain A. A. U. official" knew of it.

Efforts of Joseph A. Kelly, president of the association, to get Barbuti to identify the official met with failure. Barbuti said it would be very unsportsmanlike to give the name. He has retired from track competition.

MOMENT OF GLORY
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Mar. 5 (AP)—George Benjamin has had his moment of glory to the New York Yankees training camp and even probable exile to the Yankee farm at Chambersburg won't be taken to him.

Benjamin made his way here by freight train and an occasional lift in an auto, was sent in to bat for one of the pitchers in a practice game here yesterday. He was passed, went to third on a single.

McWENEY SIGNS
CLEARWATER, Fla., Mar. 5 (AP)—Doug McWeney has capitulated to the arguments of Wilbert Robinson and affixed his name to a Brooklyn contract.

Dazy Vance announced he was going back to Homestead, Fla., to build a variation camp, unless the Robins agreed to give him $25,000. The Brooklyn board of directors announced their top figure would be $22,500. If Dazy accepted that he'd be the highest paid pitcher in baseball.

Falconer Acquires Large Land Area

PENNINGTON, Ore., Mar. 5 (AP)—Fred Falconer, prominent Pennington sheep man, has purchased 2,680 acres of land southwest of Pennington from the Land Investment company. Of this acreage 2,500 acres are tillable and 1,500 acres are now in fall wheat. The price was not divulged.

Falconer recently purchased a ranch of 11,400 acres near Pilot Rock to add to his extensive holdings in Walla Walla, Wallowa and Umatilla counties.

HE WAS CRAZY—LIKE A FOX

They said James Pacey, 28, an Alaskan, was stark mad when he refused to desert the abandoned steamer Alway as she foundered early in a storm off the Alaskan coast. But now that all the survivors are back, Pacey (right) insists he had an eye on salvage money. Left is Capt. H. R. Throckmorton of the wrecked vessel, and (below) the scene of the epic struggle.
