A. R. Interested In 1929 Election

Members of the Grande Ronde chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, as well as daughters all over the state of Oregon have an exceptional interest in the election of officers to be held during the approaching Continental Congress to be held in Continental Memorial hall at Washington, D. C. next month, inasmuch as an Oregon daughter, widely known and loved throughout the state is a candidate for one of the five in the national chapter. This candidate is Miss Anne Lang, of the Dalles, whose name has been placed on the ballot for the office of reporter to the Smithsonian Institution. The office is an important one to one which Miss Lang is exceptionally well fitted to fill, her talents are confident, and her election is earnestly hoped for.

Miss Lang's record of service in the organization in which she has so prominently begun when she became a charter member and later, report of Quaker chapter; she was state chaplain 1918-1920; state treasurer, 1920-1922; state reporter, 1922-1924; elected honorary member, 1924; vice president, 1924-1927; state chairman, 1927-1928; national vice-chairman, 1927-1928; national vice-chairman, 1928-1929 and member of the resolutions committee at the 36 and 37 Continental Congresses.

About 150 people, residents of Island City and adjacent territory, were present at the community church last evening and shared in the "calico" party given under the auspices of the Ladies Aid society of the church. The hour of the party was seven o'clock at which time a pot luck supper was served in the church dining room. This was followed by a community sing led by Mrs. Garrett Blokland, president of the aid and assisted by an orchestra consisting of Miss Ethel Hansen, piano, Clifford Blokland, clarinet, Elmer Case, saxophone and John Dahlstrom, violin.

Miss Minnie Holman had charge of the stunts and program offered during the evening and she kept things moving at quite a lively pace. She had some contests which had for their object merely the mixing up of the crowd and getting everyone better acquainted. After this the company assembled as a kangaroo court and with Ralph Hunt as judge, Mrs. Ray Blokland and Mrs. Milo Blokland as constables, Miss Holman as clerk, various male guests were haled into court to answer to the charge of not complying with the requirements as to dress for last evening. All the offenders pleaded guilty to the charges proffered, except Arthur Heilmann, and it was necessary to summon a jury and give Mr. Heilmann the benefit of a trial. So painstaking was the counsel for the defense that court adjourned before the jury box was filled. Two contests were put on in which the women were obliged to try their hand at carpentering and the men sewed carpet rags. The successful evening closed with a more formal program consisting of a reading, Mrs. Annes, a reading by Mrs. Benwick Clark and violin solo by Miss Anita Heilmann accompanied on the piano by Ethel Hansen.

Members of the La Grande Neighborhood club are looking forward to the meeting to be held Mar. 19 when the Rev. Melville E. Wires of Pendleton will be here to show his pictures and to talk. Mr. Wires is pastor of the Methodist church in Pendleton and also is a widely known artist.

An invitation has been extended to the Women's club of Baker to be guests of the La Grande club for that afternoon. Mr. Wires spoke two years ago before the Neighborhood club and at that time those who heard him were greatly impressed.

He shows pictures he has painted of Oregon scenery, including sage brush and desert scenes and others characteristic of parts of the Oregon country. He has received much praise for a picture of Wallows lake. At his performance here he will show Oregon pictures.

MENUS

By Sister Mary

BREAKFAST—Grapefruit Juice, French toast with honey or sirup, broiled bacon, coffee and milk.

LUNCHEON—Macaroni and cheese, peanut butter sandwiches, sliced oranges and bananas, coffee.

DINNER—Vegetable soup, broiled pork chops with apple, cauliflower, cole slaw, cake or cake pudding, coffee or tea.

French toast has a way, when cooked at home, of coming out quite unlike the golden confection served in the restaurants. While it seems absurd to suggest that perhaps the restaurant is less thrifty than the housewife and uses less milk with the eggs, I believe that is the answer. One-half cup of milk to two eggs is about the right proportion. Fry the bread in butter, but do not use too much, or the toast will be greasy rather than crisp. And don't forget the powdered sugar on top.

Macaroni and cheese can be made with a variety of touches. Some prefer the use of canned tomatoes or tomato soup instead of milk. A half bottle of catsup gives a piquant flavor, and don't be negligent with the cheese. Macaroni and cheese without enough cheese is a poor excuse of a dish.

In cooking pork chops with apple, peel and core and quarter the apples, putting in with the chops when the former are about half done. A dab of brown sugar and a dash of cinnamon, even with the meat juices, improves the flavor.

Buttered rather than creamed cauliflower is better with a pork chop meal. Pour off most of the juice in which the cauliflower is cooked, saving it, of course, for soup, butter, pepper and salt, and serve. (Copyright, 1929, NEA Service, Inc.)

Sent Nearly 100

The chapel proper will seat about 200 and when the doors and curtains are opened into the Sunday school rooms the seating capacity will be doubled. Plaster-board is used as the wall covering, and sound from the pulpit, organ and choir loft is focused well out into the room. Soft colors will be used on the walls and the lights will be concealed so that no one in the room will have to face the direct rays.

The basement, which is not yet floored or ceiled, is to have a dining room and coat hall 25 by 40 feet in addition to cloak rooms, large kitchen, furnace, etc.

As this is the first church building to be dedicated in Elgin within the lifetime of many young men and women of the community, a large crowd is expected.
