DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., March 11—(AP)—Two powerful racing cars stood ready today to make a final assault upon the world's speed record of 207.55 miles an hour and awaited only the prospect of perfect wind and beach conditions at low tide.

Major H. O. D. Segrave, of England, who set a record of 203 miles an hour here two years ago, has pitted his trim 12-cylinder Golden Arrow racer against the plant tri-motored Triplex owned by J. M. White, of Philadelphia, which holds the present record. Each declared he was confident of setting new marks of at least 215 or 220 miles an hour.

Unfavorable beach conditions which has delayed the start of the speed trials for nearly a week, showed considerable improvement at low tide early today, and if the nine mile sandy stretch is leveled at ebb tide at 2:45 p. m. today, prospects of staging the tests are bright.

Major Segrave said today that his forthcoming attempt to break the world's record of 207 miles an hour on the ocean speedway here would be the last speed trial he intends to make.

Major Segrave calmly estimates he has about one chance in ten in coming through his tests alive. At a theoretical speed of 240 miles an hour, he says the hazards he will face are numerous.

REFURNISHED OFFICE AND SIMPLE HOME

Respecting the president's wishes, Northampton, Mass., welcomed Coolidge back to civil life quietly. Not a little speculation has been in progress, however, over the redecoration and refurnishing of the law office of "Coolidge & Hemenway" in the building (upper left), just concluded. The old home on Massachusetts street (lower right) is little changed, although some of the old neighbors have moved away.

conscious early today eight hours after his skull was fractured in an automobile accident. Mrs. McLain, who headed the Scottish hospital overseas, and was known as "the Angel of France" and "the most decorated woman of the world war," was slightly injured, while her husband was given no more than a "lighting chance" for recovery by surgeons of the Santa Maria hospital, where he was taken.

artificial ones," the judge elucidated. "I mean dogma, creed and restraint placed in bygone ages by church and governing institutions. The average high school boy when asked now why he does right, will say, 'because I don't get in jail,' or 'I'll go to jail,' or 'to the reform school,' or 'I'll go to hell.'"

Mexican Federals Line Housetops in Juarez War

Mexican federal troops forced to surrender Juarez to revolutionaries, lined housetops in their struggle, as this NEA Service telephoto to The Observer shows. Bullets whined about the defenders and the NEA cameraman as this picture was taken.

the future follow: The new age will be natural, scientific, logical and level-headed. The new generation will reason. It will not be hemmed in by high walls of superstition and myth.

"I am offering no panacea for existing social conditions. I merely choose to help improve the present state of domestic relations by offering a few simple suggestions." Judge Lindsey will debate tonight with the Rev. Oliver Rifeley at the L. D. S. auditorium at 8:10 o'clock. He announces that all persons wishing information on that and allied subjects can turn in at the platform written questions before the debate opens and he will answer them at its close.
