Teacher: "And why do you think Washington did twice as much for his country as Lincoln?"

Boy: "Cause Washington and Lincoln each had a birthday, but Washington gave us the Fourth of July."

"Why do you always go out on the balcony when I begin to sing, John? Can't you hear to listen to me?"

"It isn't that, but I don't want the neighbors to think I'm wife-beating."

Applicant: Here is my diploma in public speaking.

Employer: Very well go out in the other room and address those envelopes.

A young man was lying on the operating table ready for an examination.

Doctor (to attendant): "Bring in ethyl chloride."

Young Man (jumping up): "No, Doctor, please don't bring a woman in here!"

"Did you hear about the defacement of Skinner's tombstone?"

"No, what was it?"

"Someone added the word 'friends' to the epitaph."

"What was the epitaph?"

"He did his best."

Teacher: "Can anyone tell me the meaning of the word collision?"

No one knows? Well, it is when

The rate of tax on the income of corporations was reduced by the revenue act of 1928 from 13 1/2 to 12 per cent. The same rate applies to the income of insurance companies, the reduction with respect to this class of taxpayers being from 12 1/2 to 12 per cent.

ELISE JANIS VERY ILL

PARIS, March 11 (AP)—The condition of Elise Janis, American stage star, was unchanged this morning and still extremely serious.

The congestion in the right lung is the disturbing factor, along with the blood infection which is spreading. The appendicitis symptoms were less pronounced yesterday.

SHIPS IN DISTRESS

WARSAW, March 11 (AP)—The Polish steamer Pezow and five Swedish and German craft were reported being carried northward by breaking ice floes today. A reconnaissance airplane discovered the ships which were last reported in the North sea near Fechnarn.

An important bulletin from Harvard College Observatory just reaches us, treating of the Coma Virgo Galaxies. It doesn't say anything about scenery by Urban so it mustn't be a Ziegfeld show.

"My, that popcorn smells good!" said the farm belle.

"I'll drive closer so we can smell it better," said the youth.

AT THE THEATERS

"Stocks And Blondes" At Star Tuesday

Some movie actresses fear to become "types." They do not like to appear in a number of pictures in which their roles are alike in any respect. Jacqueline Logan has nothing to fear in this line.

Since attaining fame as a leading woman Miss Logan has had an extraordinary variety of roles. Instead of becoming known as a "type" among casting directors and producers, her versatility has become recognized. Although she is under contract to C. B. DeMille she is in demand among a number of companies where difficult parts are to be portrayed.

During the past year her roles have ranged from the solemn dignity of Mary Magdalene in "King of Kings" through a series of varying characterizations in "Argentina," "For Ladies Only," "The Blood Ship," "The Wise Wife," "The Leopard Lady," and "Midnight Madness." This would be considered a busy season by any player.

When Dudley Murphy completed the script for his PBO special, "Stocks and Blondes," to be shown at the Star for one day, Tuesday, both he and producing officials of the company decided Miss Logan would be ideal for the role of a night club entertainer whose ideals carry her beyond her sordid surroundings to a home with the boy of her choice.

Other principals in the cast are Gertrude Astor, Richard "Skinner" Gallagher and Albert Conti.

Two things come together unexpectedly. Now can anyone give me an example? All right, Johnny, what is it?

Johnny: "Twins."

"Seven Footprints To Satan" At The Arcade

Ever so often a motion picture produces that chilling, creepy sensation one gets from reading a weird ghost story on a stormy night while alone in the house.

That is the way "Seven Footprints to Satan," First National mystery thriller now at the Arcade Theater affects you. If you permit your self to be lost in following the ramifications of the film, you begin to believe it and then it's a case of gooseflesh and cold sensations along the spinal column.

At the same time it is sheer delight. Just like reading the "Arabian Nights" only more so. For the film treatment of A. Merritt's best seller simply takes you out of yourself and transports you to a world of wonders where all kinds of strange figures appear and disappear, where things are what they seem and where every dark corner conceals a fearsome creature.

A hideous creature called the Spider, played by Sheldon Lewis, a dog-faced professor played by Win. V. Mong, a rather interesting lunatic interpreted by Dan Crimmins; a queer dwarf, a witch, and then some nice people, such as the hero, Creighton Hale, and the heroine, lovely Thelma Todd. Also Laoka Winter, a delightful creature and queen of Satan's harem.

The story is all about the adventures of the two young people—Eve and Jim—who are kidnapped and taken to the mysterious abode of a man calling himself "Satan." What befalls in the house of horrors would beggar the descriptive powers of a Poe.
