Giant Cripples Are On the Mend

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Mar. 13 (AP)—Most of the cripples in the New York Giants' camp have recovered.

Carl Mays, Fred Fitzsimmons and Andy Reese are ready to return to duty. Mays, who broke a thumb when he knocked down a line drive some days ago, got back into action yesterday and Reese, "Charley horse" has disappeared. Fitzsimmons has been troubled by a leg injury suffered when he stopped a grounder with that part of his anatomy. He is ready to take his turn on the mound in the exhibition games. Pat Crawford is about the only cripple on the roster now. He is suffering from a sore arm.

Glenn Wright Has Shoulder Injury

CLEARWATER, Fla., Mar. 13 (AP)—Glenn Wright seems to have stolen the show at the Brooklyn Robins training camp. The big shortstop was the subject of almost all the talking that was done here yesterday. He is undergoing treatment for a shoulder injury, alleged to have been incurred before he was traded to Brooklyn by Pittsburgh. Wilmer Johnson has threatened to carry the case to John A. Hyndler, president of the league, if Wright's shoulder doesn't respond to treatment. Latest advice from Miami where the shortstop is under the care of a physician indicate he will be ready to play within a week or so.

SUGAR MAKES EATING A JOY

Why eat unflavored, unappetizing foods?

A change is coming over the well-informed eating ideas of this country. For a time, food faddists tried to make us believe that we had to eat all kinds of things we didn't like in order to be healthy. Good sense is beginning to assert itself and we now know that the foods that are good for us may also be the most enjoyable. In fact, if we don't like the healthful foods, we probably won't eat them.

Prominent medical and other scientific authorities are now reminding us that appetizing flavors may be developed and improved by sugar. One well-known scientist, for example, states that "fruit flavors are developed by sugar. Fruit acids are softened by sugar."

The only safe rule for a healthful diet is to eat as large a variety of foods as possible, including cereals, fruits and vegetables made appetizing to the taste by the judicious use of sugar. Sugar is not only nutrient in its least costly form. It is Nature's perfect flavor. Sugar develops the appetizing quality of nearly all fruits. Desserts of fresh or cooked fruits are growing more and more popular. Modern candy containing fruits, nuts and pure sugar is delicious and satisfying at the end of a meal.

No one should overeat or under-exercise, but everyone, in order to be healthy, should eat plenty of healthful foods and enjoy them. The Sugar Institute.

CHICAGO OUT FOR NATIONAL TITLE

Cubs Proclaimed Favorites for 1929 Flag; Plenty of Punch Present

By Victor G. Miller (Associated Press Sports Writer)
AVALON, Santa Catalina Island, Cal., Mar. 13 (AP)—The clashing of symbols and brass attend the preparations of the Chicago Cubs for the National League pennant race—they have been widely proclaimed as favorites to carry off the bunting.

Pre-season clamor already has vested the Chicagoans in the garb of the champions, and now all that Manager Joe McCarthy has to do is to win the flag.

One of the most colorful aggregations in the club's history—and one of the snappiest outfits seen in many seasons—has been spring training on this pleasure isle. The inclusion in the lineup of Rogers Hornsby, and his mighty bludgeon appears to have much to do with the Cubs' envied position as favorites, and the spirit and pep with which they have gone through their conditioning toil indicates that they are imbued with the pennant spirit.

The final day was lacking in the final days of last year's hectic campaign, resulting in the loss of the gonfalon by a four game margin, the Cubs hope will be contributed by Hornsby, seven times leader of the National League hitting. Then, such specialists as "Kid" Cuyler, "Hacks" Wilson, and Jackson Stephenson will be there to aid in boosting the Cubs over the top with their long range shelling.

While McCarthy is depending considerably upon the star second sacker, he also lays great stress on his reserve material which he describes in enthusiastic terms. Believing that strong reserves form a necessary adjunct to a squad, the Cubs' pilot has lined up an able substitute for each department.

Clarence Blair, a youngster from the Little Rock, Ark., club, should prove valuable as relief man for Clyde Beck at the "hot corner." Elwood English, but 21 years of age but possessed of two seasons experience with the club, will hold down shortstop. Charley Grimm will be at first, Hornsby at second, Beck at third, and Norman McMillan again filling the general infield utility role.

Five Good Candidates
Cuyler, Wilson and Stephenson to all appearances will occupy the outfield berths, with Clifton Heathcote and John Moore, other veteran fly chasers, moored.

It is in the catching department that the hottest battle is raging, but it looks as if the Cubs will retain the two veterans of last year, Miguel Gonzalez and Charley "Gaby" Hartnett, and one of two young backstoppers who are in camp with good recommendations and qualifications, Tom Angley from Atlanta and Robert Grace from Little Rock, Ark.

Two newcomers will make the mound corps if their performances to date count for anything. Ed Lautenbacher, 21-year-old acquisition from the Reading, Pa., club, comes to the Cubs with a record of ten victories and five defeats.

Berlyn Horne has been puzzling batters with his deliveries, and McCarthy has indicated that the former Jersey City pitcher also might be a member of the staff.

Earl Mastro Wins From Nationalists

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 13 (AP)—The fistic stock of Earl Mastro Chicago youngster whom many believe is of championship timber, had risen higher today as the result of a decisive win over Young Nationalista, veteran Filipino who has proved a stumbling block to many other hopefuls.

Mastro, who but a short time ago trounced Kid Franco, of Italy and former European champion, in a bout here, had the swarthy-skinned Nationalista at the mercy of his speed and cleverness virtually throughout the ten round bout here last night. In but two seasons the Filipino able to cope with the Chicago Italian's skill.

Of the 1,482 "pedestals," or Italian local government using as may be, only 482 were boys. The honor is sufficient for the others.

Yankees In Need Of Work At Bat

TAMPA, Fla., Mar. 13 (AP)—More batting practice seems to be the chief need of the New York Yankees.

The world's champions opened their exhibition schedule yesterday by noosing out Tampa club of the Southeastern league, a club 30 organization, one to nothing. All told the Yankees got only eight hits and three of these went to Antonio Lazzari who had the honor of driving in the only run of the game in the seventh inning. Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig were impotent at the plate. Gehrig got on base once but only because he was passed.

TOWNSEND AND INDIAN FIGHT TO DEADLOCK

PORTLAND, Ore., Mar. 13 (AP)—Pedro Amador, Panama Indian and Billy Townsend, Vancouver, B. C., lightweight, furnished boxing fans with plenty of excitement and thrills in their smashing ten-round draw here last night. Townsend led in the early rounds, hitting Amador with everything he had, but the Indian boy never wavered and came back strong in the latter rounds, putting Townsend to the mat three times in the seventh round for the count of nine, eight and nine respectively. For this showing and his aggressiveness a majority of the spectators felt Amador was entitled to the nod. One judge gave him the decision, while the other two arbiters called it a draw.

Checker Players Hiss At Kitty

CHICAGO, Mar. 13 (AP)—Shrouded in the silence which be-tokens the concentration, 20 expert checker players were competing today for the championship of the United States in a tournament sponsored by the American Checker association.

The contestants included Sam Gotnosky, of Brooklyn, present world's champion; Willy Kynin of the Bronx; Basil G. Case, Illinois champion; P. H. Ketchum, Illinois champion for three years, and Jesse Hansen of Oakland, Cal.

Opening of the tournament brought to light the involved rules of checker etiquette, and revealed checker virtuosity to be as temperamental as championship golfers.

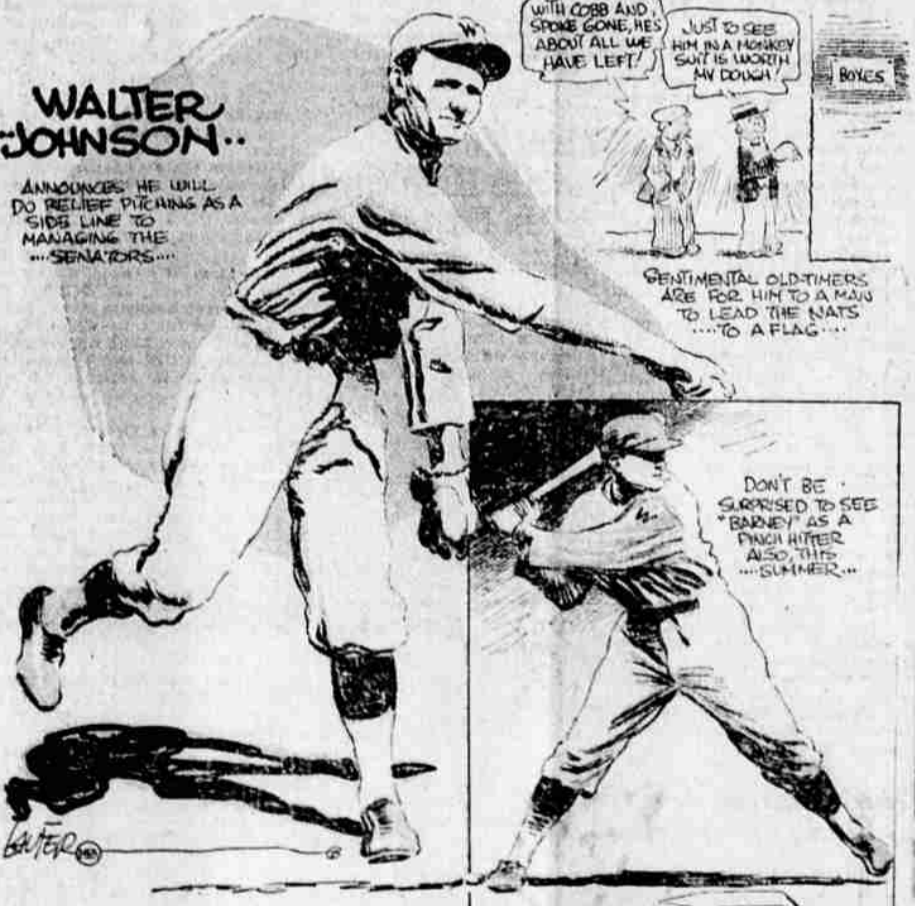

"One player can't smoke if it annoys his rival," explained E. J. Seelbach, secretary of the association. "It is considered criminal for a player to drum on the table with his fingers. It's nothing short of murder for a third person to step in and comment on the play."

"Sh-h-h-h" came angrily from the contestants.

A cat had walked across the floor.

"Take that thing away!" demanded a checkerist. "How can we concentrate with all that racket going on?"

BRUSHING UP SPORTS . . . By Laufer

The recent announcement of Walter Johnson that he will work as a pinch pitcher this summer as well as manage the Washington Senators comes as great news to the army of fans who late to see the old favorites fade from the major league picture.

Johnson and his early contingent of pitchers and catchers were among the first of the big leaguers to start training in Florida where the Big Train lost no time in settling a good example to the younger pitchers and rookies in his fold.

After a few workouts Walter was convinced there is plenty of stuff left in his famous right arm to at least help out in the late innings if not occasionally to turn in a full game.

And, while on the subject of pinch pitching, it is more than likely that Johnson will serve nearly as often as a pinch hitter. He always has been a good batsman and during his long career broke up many a game with a timely bingle.

A few years back when called into the game as a pinch hitter in the ninth inning of a game with Cleveland at Dunn Field, he sent a screeching homer over the high right-field screen, a feat which had been accomplished but once before by a right-hand batter in the history of the park.

Last year with the Newark Beas illness prevented Johnson from showing what he would do as a manager. Also there was talk that the good-natured Walter was too easy-going with the bad boys of the team, which was generally accepted as the reason Newark finished second instead of winning the pennant.

This year Walter will stand for no fooling. With his full health once more and the old lax ball to rely upon to a pinch, you can scratch last year's story right off the books.

Otto Von Porat Wallops Heehey In Chicago Bout

CHICAGO, Mar. 13 (AP)—Otto Von Porat's galloping gloves pounded a requiem to Tom Heehey's heavyweight title aspirations last night and sent the New Zealand hard rock to the hospital for repairs.

Several stitches were required to close the inch-deep gash in Heehey's lip which Von Porat's right had opened in the final round. The wound sent blood cascading down over Heehey's body, and the New Zealander, realising how desperate his plight must have appeared, told Referee Ed Purdy not to stop the fight, that he was all right.

After the cut had closed, Heehey left the hospital.

Heehey Badly Whipped
Heehey, upon whose body Gene Tunney wrote his farewell to pugilism last year, was a badly whipped man when the Norwegian puncher got through his ten rounds of work. Von Porat took seven rounds, lost two and held Heehey even in the other. To the surprise of most of the 5,000 spectators he not only outlasted the New Zealander but outboxed him most of the time.

The referee and two judges returned an unanimous verdict in favor of Von Porat. Heehey looked the best in the opening two rounds, but from that point on the Norwegian did the hurting. He used his left as a guarding paper and shot right upper cuts to vary the monotony.

Von Porat finished virtually unmarked. It was his most satisfying showing since he began in a small way to become covetous of the world's heavyweight crown. His improvement as a boxer was the point his handlers regarded as most significant. His ability to punch has been heretofore his main reliance.

The fight was worth $17,500 to Heehey and approximately $12,000 to Von Porat, the former Olympic games champion.
