Income Tax Pointers

No. 32
Various penalties are imposed by the statute for failure to file a return and pay the tax on time, and for making a fraudulent return. Distinction is made between failure and "willful failure" to file a return. For failure to file a return on time, the penalty is 25 per cent of the amount of the tax, unless a return is later filed and it is satisfactorily shown to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue that such failure was due to a reasonable cause and not to willful neglect. If a taxpayer exercised ordinary business care and prudence, and nevertheless was unable to file a return within the prescribed time, the delay is due to a "reasonable cause."

For willful failure to make a return the penalty is not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, and in addition 25 per cent of the amount of the tax. For willful making a false or fraudulent return, the penalty is not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than 5 years, or both, and in addition 50 per cent of the amount of the tax.

A PRIZE-WINNING BABE

Well, well—and who's this cute little fellow? Why, it's Babe Ruth! And what a bouncing babe he is. (That comes from bouncing baseball off rightfield fence). But old Father Rupert is proud of him. He has traded his bat for a rattle and has on an old-fashioned nubby that is liable to trip him on the baseline if he isn't careful. He can talk, too; he can say "Tellynbeat-thathitwotwosconduselytwoyards!" The Bambino was a four-base hit when he appeared in this guise at the Bonux Arts hall in St. Petersburg, Fla.

AT THE THEATERS

Elinor Glyn Gives Clara Bow Compliment

"I think Clara Bow has the most fascinating and vivid personality of any woman on the screen."
Not only the thoughts of a half million flappers and boy-friends throughout the United States, but also the view of Elinor Glyn, famous novelist.
At any rate, that was the text of a telegram received by the red-headed star at the Paramount studios in Hollywood the morning she began work on "Three Week Ends," her new picture, which will open at the Star theater today for three days.
"The greatest compliment I have ever received," was the star's comment.

Chills And Thrills In Picture at Arcade

Those who visit the Arcade theater where "Seven Footprints to Satan" is being presented, will do well to prepare for a lot of chills and thrills. For this new First National picture has more than the ordinary amount of creepiness. It was directed by the past master of mystery films, Benjamin Christensen, and embodies a story that is at once original and tremendously exciting.

It is the story (by A. Merritt) of a young couple who are kidnaped and taken to a strange mansion inhabited by a queer character known as "Satan." He is surrounded by a number of weird and grotesque figures such as the Spider, a dwarf, a witch and what not, and the things that occur in this place startle the most blasé of film patrons.

Thelma Todd and Creighton Hale have the leads, with Sheldon Lewis, Wm. V. Mong, Sojin and others in heavy roles.

THE GARDEN

DAHLIAS AND GLADIOLI
Dahlias and gladioli have become such important factors in the mid-summer and late summer and fall garden that they now have national societies devoted to their interest. So great has become the demand for the newer and finer varieties that they must be ordered early to get them. Send lists in with the seed order. New varieties and novelties are often exhausted before it is time to put them into the ground. Order early to be sure of getting what you want.

The gladioli is a sure fire bloomer and liberal plantings at intervals are certain to produce gorgeous color in the garden beginning with July and continuing through the season. They also furnish one of the most popular materials for cut flowers. There are now strains of gladioli which may be raised from seed and give bloom the first year if sown early. The named varieties, however, are by far the most satisfactory.

Dahlias are now rivals of the chrysanthemum in their huge size and great variety of form, resembling the chrysanthemum in giving small button-like blooms, single and anemone-types, up to huge cabbages as big as one's head. Dahlias may be grown from seed as annuals as easily as zinnias. The big fellows need an early start and should be sown indoors by March, at least, in order to give a season of bloom worth while. The small bedding types such as Colonus hybrids need not be sown until May 1 outdoors. They will come into bloom the latter part of July or early in August. Sown in March, however, they will get going in June and furnish a sheet of color all summer. They are as colorful and as free blooming as the zinnias.

Dahlias ordered now will not be delivered until May but if the new and finer varieties are desired, it is safest to order at once. Growing plants are furnished until into June and the dry tubers are sent out earlier. There is little to choose between them as to garden success.

Some gardeners prefer to buy the growing plants which have been propagated from cuttings and others prefer the roots. They bloom equally quickly.

OFFICE CAT

An insurance man says his company recently took of a new office boy who is a wonder. A man came into the office the other day, and asked, "Can you insure my immortal soul?"
"I don't know," the kid replied, "but if you'll wait a minute I'll ask the manager of the fire department."

TO MY SUCCESSOR
Here is a toast I want to drink to a fellow I'll never know—
To the fellow who's going to take my place when its time for me to go.

"I've wondered what kind of a chap he'll be and I've wished I could take his hand."
Just to whisper, "I wish you well, old man," in a way that he'd understand.

"I'd like to give him a cheering word that I've looked at times to hear."
"I'd like to give him a warm hand clasp when never a friend seems near."
"I've learned my lesson by sheer hard work, and I wish I could pass it on."

To the fellow who'll take my place some day when I am gone,
A clerk made request on his Jewish boss for an increase in pay. The boss argued that he was not entitled to the increase; as a matter of fact he actually did not work during a year, and figured it out for him on the basis:
8 hours per day for sleep, 122 days,
12 hours per day for recreation, 122 days,
52 Sundays per year, 52 days,
2 wks. vacation with pay, 14 days,
Off half of Saturdays, 26 days,
Off on holidays, 8 days,
Time off for meals, 20 days,
Total time off during year 364 days.
Balance 1 day.
"This day is Yom Kipper and he didn't work."

A La Grande man claims his girl friend is the champion high stepper because she caught her toe in her skirt the other day.

The man who takes a cold bath every morning in winter should be prepared to enjoy heaven after having experienced so much of the other place here.

Some gardeners prefer to buy the growing plants which have been propagated from cuttings and others prefer the roots. They bloom equally quickly.
